Dr. P.J. Narayanan

student affairs chair

Dear UG2k21 Graduating Batch,

As you step out into the world, carrying with you the knowledge, friendships, and experiences from your time here, I want to extend my heartfelt congratulations on behalf of the Student Affairs Committee.

It has been a joy to watch you grow—not just as students, but as individuals who shaped campus life with your energy, creativity, and resilience. Your journey through the challenges of the COVID years has been a true testament to your strength and adaptability.

As you celebrate this milestone, take a moment to reflect with gratitude on all those—teachers, family, friends, and peers—who supported, challenged, and believed in you along the way. And as you move forward, remember: “Our greatest glory is not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall.”

Stay connected with your alma mater, and when you can, give back—through mentorship, ideas, or support—to the generations that will follow in your footsteps.

Warm wishes for all your future endeavours!

Q: First day on campus?

A: I still remember walking in into hostel and parents were not allowed due to Covid. I left my luggage and walked around campus meeting all those ppl who were in touch during online. Then went to jc nd had oreo milkshake(aaj thak meri fav).Then sorted my luggage nd that day jc ngt pe kuch yaadkar hua

Q: Best campus memory?

A: The day when I got placement. I still remember moving from nilgiri to workspace in so much stress and confusion and in some kind of clarity clarity ki I will not pull this. Somehw that day got my job. I sat in WS called everyone and informed abt it but wasn't sure it was happening fr. Was so happy..

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I will miss kadamb biryani, jc shakes, tantra double egg chicken fried rice, david fried maggie fs.. But smtg more that I will miss is my POR which made me what I am today. I will miss being apex a lottttttttt. Ofc I will miss my friends sooooo muchhhhhh without whom idk hw would i survive.. 😊😊😊😊

"it's so fun to watch you dance you do it so effortlessly and with so much energy. you have this skill to just dance spontaneously and that is so cool. i'm glad i got to do a telugu dance with you i wanted to since very long. you're very sweet and doing cult council things with you was very fun"

- Mukta Chanda

"Known her since 9th grade—one of the greatest math prodigies I know. With the kindest soul, purest heart, and a charming smile, she selflessly looks out for everyone around her. My closest friend among the girls, and now the one carrying forward the legacy of Telugu Peeps. I truly...

... hope she starts caring for herself too and stays happy. I believe she has the highest potential among us, and I'm sure she'll go far in life with strength and grace."

"Akka, first things first nuvvante naku chaala istam, ni dhaggara unte time ala pass aipothundhi, nenu elanti jokes vesina thiskuntav, asala..."

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: One biggest change is finding my happiness in others was me in first year but now I find my own happiness most of the times(still in learning phase). Because of this change I am more happy and peaceful in my life. Apart from this I hv improved my eng, grown confident, came out of my grp nd explored clg. In this process I understood ppl don't hv same mood everyday, we need to perceive a situation from their side as well. Also one biggest change in ms is from a funny jr into a strict sr..JK 😂😂😂

Q: What next?

A: Nothing much.... Haven't planned life a lot... I hv got a job and I will prolly continue it for 3-4 yrs and then think of company change or who knows if destiny has other plans... I am aiming to get a car for myself if not atleast scooty. I also wanna explore INDIA. Who knows prolly will take up solo travelling as well... I am actually so excited for my future... Wanna meet new ppl make new frnds... Wanna explore blr to an extent ki i will hate it 😂😂😂. Nd last but not least wanna get a makeover "Maine pehle sirf Nikhita Maam ki kahaniyan suni thi. Popular, sweet and caring person. But DASS main jab team mate bane the, tab yeh bhi dekh liya ki how efficient you are. The responsibilities you take and the way you manage all of them... damn, ita gracefully sabko manage karna should be impossible, but you DID and did them BEAUTIFULLY too. I have always been awed by this and koshish karunga ki kuch seekh bhi lu aapse. Best of luck to you, and always have that pretty smile on your face :)." "

- Mitansh Kayathwal

"The energy you carry throughout any event is like the craziest thing. Had created tons of memories with you through Apex and sooo many student bodies. The night rides, the crazy situations we were put into, and all of these are always fun. Continue being the same innocent person, be stress free, and achieve greater things. Also please don't forget us xD."

- L N Pasumarthy Yashaswi

"Loved how you always took the lead in bringing all the Tel peeps together. Gonna miss all the small chat we had. Your energy is infectious, never let go of that spark! "Hello Mam, You are really great in dealing with people in any matter, even though we didn't have many interactions but I learnt a lot from you. Also you are a really good dancer, do continue to perform and rock."

Earlier I used to think how someone can be fav. apex member of juniors but you are the prime example of that, you are really easy to connect and understand the things. For now this is it, but hopefully we will have more interactions in future, till then keep smiling :)"

- Arpit Pathak

"Hey! I really enjoyed working with you on the DS project – you were an absolute delight to work with. Wishing you all the best for your future, and let's keep in touch!"

"Nikhita I till date miss how you were soo damn active on group-5. You're such a welcoming ...

... person I have to say, you made me feel so excited about Hyderabad (def worth the hype) and I lovee your hindi. I loved ranting with you in the first sem of college and your aura makes everyone feel so comfortable around you :) I would like to steal some of that confidence of yours heheh. Always keep chirping like a bird and stay the jolly person that you are !!"

– Pranjali Bishnoi

"My vibe matches very well with you. Hope we have spent more good time together. Had most fun in short times."

"Hi Nikhita!

You're such a sweet person. You were one of my first friends in college and those video calls are such fun memories:) I'm so sorry about cult nightt 🎉 You're very caring and so proactive about things that matter to you. Don't change too much :P and all the best <3"

Awesome dancer too!"

"27 October Birthday Gang 🎉
I don't know it's something about 27 October that makes people born on that day so hardworking, so caring about those around you, so passionate about what you sign up for, and so disciplined in whatever roles and responsibilities you take up. Ok.. maybe that's just a Nikitha thing. I hope we can stay in touch :)"

- Ayan Datta

"I wish I could have known you better, however from what I know, I have not seen someone be happy in just helping others. For example, in Felicity, you happily did the work that was not even yours, and helped me with the Outreach. Other times, sometimes in courses, or with friends, you have spoken your opinions loud and clear. Even though you are involved in so many things, I never heard anything unfashionable about you. That's surely a very great achievement. All the best for your future!!!"

Q: First day on campus?

A: this was during quarantine, so kinda dead scenes. i remember talking to aryan and shashwat a bit (iirc ;)). the el clasico was there that night but like really late so i watched that alone. oh lastly, somehow i really liked whatever kinda-dry veg curry they gave that day lmao

Q: Best campus memory?

A: impossible to choose the best but ig the first time i just randomly stepped out of campus at midnight with anushka and harinie and returned hours later. nothing crazy now but was like a revelation then. and yes, the surprise birthday party that was thrown for me in 2-2 that was so unforgettable

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: what will i not miss ;; but yeah hanging out on campus, going for random walks with friends at the most abysmal times in the night, and of course, one thing which i used to love that went away too soon - i miss jamming at srujan 50 much. and last but not the least, the diabolical all-nighters :D

"You've been a really nice friend all along college, also an inspiration in some ways how you're able to do so many things - juggling acads with music club events and other cultural aspects of college life. Multitasking expert fr.

Loved performing with you in Meltdown, Octave and Unplugged, you have an amazing voice and musically gifted. Hopefully we'll perform together a few more times before graduation.

Also pls start eating 3 meals a day 🙏"

- Sarthak Chittawar

"such a yapper bhai. too nice, you should be meaner to people sometimes. i remember we started talking because of nolan movies in online sem lol. tpe would've been impossible without you. all the all-nighters and panics we had were finally worth it as i had good company and a good speaker on my team. thank you for carrying our presentations and also mmt. sorry for bullying you for marks hehe. hopefully we do our tpe outing sometime in the future, we have to do it for sure"

- Mukta Chanda

"Orgho, you're such a funny, lively guy to talk to! Your laughter is so infectious and there's never a dull moment with you! Also music god for real!"

- Roja Lakshmi Sahoo

"orghooo, my most fav bengali ever, my yapathon partner, thank you so much for always being there..."

"Yo orgho, I really dont enjoy being beaten up by you (jk, its oddly fun running away from you). You have been a great companion for me, we have done so many courses together, every course I end up doing with you has been really fun. You make being part of a band fun, like the only enjoyable thing about those all nighters is you just doing random shit and making nanda laugh and then I laugh and then... you get the point. I'm even more grateful to the music you have introduced me to."

- Vedansh Agrawal

"One of maybe 3 or 4 ppl I would trust with an aux from NC. Brainrot quiz is gonna happen (alumni status and all lite we'll make them make an exception). Cooking club lite, come to my house next sem and we'll cook some crazy shit with Harsha (especially when we're baked). One of the nicest and most fun people I've ever met, late night talks with you and shashwat in eblock were so fun. If I don't...

- Shashwat Dash

"Orgoooo.. we've bonded so much this past year. You're such a good friend, best co-TA and the coolest person (well a Weeknd fan can never be uncool hehe). Hope we keep meeting, also I need to try your pasta and see if it can change my opinion about pasta being mid xD.. take care and keep in touch"

- Vanshita

"ORGHOEE truly the best yapper ik - I could talk to you about ANYTHING and that is a true gift. I'm so glad we met on discord and even more glad that you introduced me to letterboxd lol. My best memory of us is when instead of doing your group project - we spent the whole night singing god's plan"

- Sreeja Guduri

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: well, firstly i will have to mention my hair haha. but yeah a lot has changed, especially its insane how every one of us have changed. i have friends whom ive been close with from the onset and its crazy thinking how much we've all evolved. its quiterOOzy

Q: What next?

A: well, thats a tough one. but yeah i really hope all my friends stay in touch, that would mean the world to me. i will miss all of them so much, the very thought that they won't be here saddens me. but theyre all great and so smart and talented so of course, they will now show what theyve got to the world and amaze everyone. but beyond things like success, i hope every one of them are happy with whatever they end up doing. and i will always just a call or text away if theyd like someone to talk to

- Muskan Raina

"orgho u r the best, like u r nice, extroverted and very kind. Thank you for being such a nice friend. Getting drunk with u is like the best. I still remember kik night when I made u drink as much i drank sorry for that.

But like u r sooo nice. Pondi, goa was soo fun with u and i hope we go more trips.

U r like an insane 3 shooter its crazy how u shoot so good and its crazy how u learnt in college. Also ur vocals are soo good. Pls dont die in gurgoan and we shud keep meeting again."

- Anush Anand

"orghy, had so much fun with you partying and playing bb, but not so much fun with your courses, plz take easier courses bro, will miss your amazing jokes when we're in the clouds fs, being able to play the keyboard with just feel is absolutely insane, that level is something else, would love to be able to do that, amazing music taste, but travis with his autotune, nahh 😂. whizzing you is gonna be fun when I come to hyd, dw ill do it before you do"

- Raghav Donakanti

"We became friends pretty late, but honestly, it didn't take long for us to get close. You're one of the nicest and most genuinely caring people I know—always ready to help, always showing up. Sure, your music taste is highly questionable, but I actually admire how passionate you are about it (probably why we vibe so well). Even though you're mean way too often, I'm gonna miss you. Hope we keep meeting so I can continue annoying you :) ps: please please please listen to All to well"

- Anushka Agrawal

"only child gangg but truly my twin when it comes to listening to literally any genre ever. thanks for the lobongo lotika and for recommending The Lay Down—still one of the best songs i've ever heard. really admire how you're always down to help with anything. looking forward to our next Spotle game and album rating session :)"

- Jahnavi Voruganti

"orghoe, thnx for playing fifa with me. it was really fun (even though i almost always lost and you like spurs). it's always fun talking to you. i swear you're like steph now the way you're making 5-6 threes in a game. keep being the fun, sweet person you are now and good luck for your life!"

- Sriya Venepally

"Orghoe!! You're an amazing friend to have and an insanely talented person, like no one man should have all that ~power~ talent! cant forget the "mountaineering adventures" we did in goa lmao (among the many other memories); We should do more of those in the future! You have an amazing ability to connect with people and make them feel comfortable, you'll always have the wolves around you wherever you go! People ask how college would've been, if you werent there...I guess we'll never know"

- Ajits

"orghooo, I think the very first night adventure I went in college was with you and anushka when we explored a closed down atrium. I also really reallyyy love when you got us bengali food. I think im still in love with those veg chops!! We need to get them again and next year the three of us should go on sooo many more adventures and side quests. Gotta explore the hell outta hyd in our last year (hopefully)!!!!"

- Harinie Sivaramasethu

"orghoe, from talking in the beginning cause of dna to becoming good friends college has been so much more fun with you. it's so fun to just do tp and hangout with you as well. you're the best yapper out there-dna, dass, tpe, smai and everything else wouldn't have been the same without you. you're such a sweet and kind person, and someone I know i can always count on. will definitely meet you often in college. i'll miss you :("

- Anuhya Nallapati

"Hi Oggy... The whole reason our band was named that is because of you hehe. Loved our band practices and loved ranting to you when we were coords.

I'm glad we went through so many things together. You are very sweet ... I love the conversations you keep having. You are very fun to hang out with. And yes I shall try to not go home hehe. PS: I am better at basketball than you < hehe (hopefully someday that's gonna be true)

Love your bubbly personality
Keep being you :P"
- Bolimuntha Shreya

"Heyy my fellow convent buddy! Can't believe how same all convent schools are – we bonded way too hard over that . Our Hyatt gossip sessions were such a vibe, and I'm so glad we shared so much with each other. Thanks for always giving me that safe space! Keep gossiping with me forever – wishing you all the best ahead!"

- Vrinda Agarwal

"500 chars is insane for this. you're one of my closest friends in life, ever. if the sleep deprivation we're proud of doesn't catch up first, we're gonna be 65 years old together playing and singing pink floyd and radiohead together with wrinkled old hands. I'm so glad we got to a point beyond any kind of judgement..."

... and doubt (at least, that's how it is for me, I hope it's the same for you). you're so smart, super cool, and very talented (laugh at jokes more) i'm so proud to call you my friend :D"

- Nanda Rajiv

"Best singer batch has ever got... Randomly meeting u nd talking abt chd profs and random stuff on clg is always fun... Discussions abt courses toh I still remember.... You are such a fun person to talk with... I wish you all the best for your future and I hope you get everything you need"

- Obbineni Sai Nikhita

"hi. i love how we discuss music. i'll miss it so much. i've had so much fun walking around campus aimlessly with you. back when srujana existed and we used to just exist there was so fun too. thanks for forcing me to take part in the two music things i did too. we need to never stop talking, and next time we meet lets have biryani together."

- Paridhi Prasad

"Online sem wouldn't have been the same without all those rant sessions and discussions we used to have everyday. Tho we grew distant after coming to clg, you were one of my first friends in this clg and I'll always remember those days (tho I argued abt Weeknd's music i later realised that it was indeed good thanks to those recommendations u gave XD). All the best for everything!"

- Anusha Nemani

"My fellow Weeknd guy, I haven't seen anyone else who shares the same passion towards The Weeknd. We should totally cook together man (still haven't tried your food), and please teach me some bengali 🎵."

- P Pavan

"Its so fun hanging out with you, youre..."

... very cool to be around (but im being fr because i have experience). Weve done way too many things together, but the most fun ones will be sports related. Basketball, badminton, and running around campus because you wanted to prove that you were fast. Im just going to list words now because theres too many things to write: fifa, cheesecake, mandi, hcp, nimbu pani, tabasco, chili flakes, biryani, love story, escape room, bereal, 7 sisters coconut prawns, hsnc"

- Sanika Sachin Damle

"from cp jourrney to jc, from nimbu paani to pikm and from our dm's to all the fun had irl, there's so much of college life that i have seen with you. it's amazing to see your passion for music and many other things. you are an honestly very nice person and very talkative, in the best possible way. i am glad that you'll be sticking around for another year and can't wait to make a lot more memories with you. hopefully we will soon get our darjeeling trip together :)"

- Anushka Jain

"Bro, 500 characters isnt enough to describe what we have. You are easily one of the best people ive had the chance to be friends with all the way from first year. Every single music event, every single anchoring gig, jesus we have spend a lott of time together.. And I cherish all of them. I'm so glad you are also dual, cause it would be v sad to see you leave. O&P is a really big part of who I am, and your the headliner. Cheers to more Chaos and graduating in 5 years.. Impromptu convos forever."

... nicest people ik. thanks for being there and do stay in touch. and yes we do have to play cards together in hsnc for sure >_<"

- Maanasa Kovuru

"You're almost too innocent for your own good—I honestly don't know how someone can be so kind all the time. You've been an amazing friend, always believing in me more than I ever believed in myself, and I can't thank you enough for that. It means the world to me. I don't feel like I deserve the thoughtfulness and respect you give me, but I'm truly grateful for it. And brother, thank you for making me a Radiohead—I'll be forever thankful for that. We'll definitely hang out and jam more, no doubt."

- Radhikesh Agrawal

"The default version of "creep" for me is the one you sing. I like your rendition of "all of me" better than the original. Your passion is contagious and its really fun talking about random shit, we should hang out more in fifth year."

- Akshit Kumar

"Orgho, you're of course known for your taste in music and media. You've introduced me to some great artists, songs and shows. You're super friendly and easy to talk to and your stories are always super fun to hear. Of course I have to mention that you're the steph curry of night cricket. You're smart and hard working and sometimes I feel like you underestimate yourself, so believe in yourself because you're gonna do some cool stuff!"

- Shrikara A

"Hey Arghya, we haven't interacted much but the times we did, it was sure fun. One of the good souls who is always ready to help out - stay cheerful!! All the very best!!"

- Aishani Pandey

"From football on the field to all-nighters playing FIFA, some of my best memories involve this guy. We've shared great times at the numerous outings that we did, with or without any reason, and he's always been a solid friend throughout. He is really talented but way too modest to admit it. He honestly deserves a lot more credit than he gives himself. Hoping to complete the list of activities that we have decided on before graduating. Grateful for all the fun, the late nights, and the friendship"

- Tanveer Ul Mustafa

"Orgho :) it's genuinely been a blessing to have you as a close friend in college, ever since online sem. We've done so much shit together: debating, playing bball, quizzing, watching f1 and football - and it's been so much fun doing these with you. It's awesome to see you perform with oggy. Tysm for hooking me up with radiohead too - we need to have another weird fishes sesh soon. Vibing in 247 was also so much fun. hope your hindi is good enough to survive in Gurgaon! I'll miss you a lot man :)"

- Kapil Rajesh Kavitha

"Met you first in Vayu music rehearsals. You sing and play the keys so well. A nice person to talk to! Keep doing music. Best of luck for your future. Will keep in touch!"

- Soham G Korade

"You are such a yapper and I really really like talking to you about the most random things. Skeletons used to hit so hard in 247 on your speaker. You yourself are an amazing singer and performer and most probably the most extroverted person I know. But you are now a full blown proper kassi lol. Always stay the same. I will miss our convos!"

- Adnan Qidwai

"I think you are my favorite Bengali because you don't try to be Bengali xD. You yap so much and I honestly love that about you - always someone very fun to talk with. Let's have prince fish fry asap :D"

- Srijita Mukhopadhyay

"Como estas, Mr. :O rgho Roy? My final year hallmate. Lmao let's see who manages to irritate the other first. But hey, seriously dude. Be less nice to people XD. You are such a gem, it is actually insane. Not once have I seen you not think positively about a situation. And you are always so genuine. I am one of the lucky ones who managed to meet you One day... one day you will see AoT. I will make sure of it! But until then (and beyond lmao), wish you all the best wherever the journey takes you."

- Prakul Agrawal

"Orgho, you're one of the sweetest guys I met on campus. Always happy and chatty. It's sooooo much fun listening to all your stories and having unexpected (but QUITE interesting with a touch of drama) chats with you on the side of the road. Thank you for always being so helpful, and letting me cry on Farewell <3 Wishing you all the best. Take care and keep in touch!"

- Ashna Dua

"Arghya, group's actual chef! 🍷 Teach me to cook next sem, no excuses! On court, we're equally inconsistent shooters, but our NBA obsession makes up for it! Go Dub Nation! 🏀💛💙 Everyone knows your elite music taste, but I don't get it - show me tunes to change my vibe. Here's to more threes & epic cooking! 🔥"

- P Harshavardhan

"Lowkey Gurgaon got so much better, unexpected flatmates fr 😊😊"

- Aryan Gupta

"You're such a vibe Arghya! So sweet, so fun to talk to and so relatable regardless of whatever you're ranting about. I still remember the conversation we had in auto back in first year where you were explaining why CHD is hard, not sure if you remember xD Stay in touch Arghya and keep ranting with a passion!"

- Anika Roy

"Literally the first friend I made in college!! So glad I had that Lana pfp :) Miss the music VCs and still love all the DebSoc memories (esp the Taylor/Kanye thingy we did). Awesome taste in music and so much fun to be around!! tears are rollin' down my face, tears are rollin' down my face"

- Kriti Gupta

"may god bless you with mountains of gold and silver. orgho ur so sweet and cool. idt I can ever express how much fun I have hanging out with u, I swear we are just laughing at random things (mostly reels). i LOVE ur music taste and its so cool of me to have a 93% match w you on spotify blend. having lettuce w you all(esp that day)is definitely a core memory, I wanna do a lot more of that while also being able to cook yummy things 🍔. i think we've come a long way from that barca debate to now :)"

- Himani Nilesh Belsare

"hi dude i am so sorry i am rushing. but bro i love you. one of the most level headed people. first person i saw on campus. good start. my reference for music recs. one of the oldest friends. love how you stick to your way of thinking even if it might not be well received. we've made sooooo many memories but i am out of time..."

... bye"

- Aryan Ashok Chandramania

"never realised you are such a goodie, good man, and most heroic academic comeback, chill guy."

- Bafna Jainit Sushil

"Orghee!!!

My fellow Music Club Coord! Loved drowning in assignments, you were still there! Loved having you around, and I love your voice – you sing so good!

Keep in touch, byeel!"

Roja Lakshmi Sahoo

Roja

Q: First day on campus?

A: Well, first day included meeting my roommate and getting locked with her for 4 days quarantine (xD). I still remember spending my first Felicity stuck in Parijat! So I consider my "true" first day to be after quarantine—spent the WHOLE DAY walking and talking to everyone :p.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Felicity Buzz 2022 probably! Best DJ Night and gossip sesh with seniors—unforgettable (most of it at least xD). Late-night practices and prep for dance/events were some of my best memories with juniors <3 And yeah Farewell 2024 (the one we threw)... the less I say the better!

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Tbh JC and Davids ke bhaiyas and aunty is who I'll miss a lot! They have probably seen it all, eavesdropped on all our post-night-out debriefs and laughed at our bakchodi. Walking around campus, saying hi, and randomly starting conversations or rants anytime, anywhere...that'll be hard to let go of!

"roja lakshmi sahoo you're the life of any party. my constant prithvi dance partner. wow we've danced together from freshers in first year to cult night in final year which is crazyy. my shots partner you always bring the worst out of me when bhand lol. we had such cute rant dates whether it was ice cream or sushi and the many many many clubbing parties we went to i can't even count anymore. ill keep visiting you in blr tu bhi aate rehna xD"

— Mukta Chanda

"bohot jyada fun person. one of my first few friends in the college that stayed till the last one, xd. bohot maje kara hai saath mai pehle saal se.

— Bhole Gaurav Hitesh

"I don't think meine college mein kisi ladki se itni baat ki hogi jitni terese kari, teri jaisi sport kabhi mili hi nahi. I will never forget the tunnel sutta. funny, cutie, best dancer. hope tu NGO mein acche se seva karegi, lol. will miss you, bye. O fuck tu abhi toh hai ek saal, milte"

— Bafna Jainit Sushil

"best dancer in college , aur kya juniors ki fav , sab cheez main best :)"

— Sriya Venepally

"Rojaaa! You're an actual pataka. Chota packet bada dhamaka!! So full of life, mad confident, and such a blast to be around. I have never seen anyone light up the stage the way you do. Wish we danced more together :) You're a BOMB. Keep slaying!"

— Meghana Tedla

"Super energetic and enthusiastic person. Always up for tough things and you somehow manage everything so smoothly. Felicity, Cult council, DIP and most importantly CV. Everything was super fun. (tai bandar forever lmao)"

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Me becoming an absolute biriyani-holic! Also I feel like I've become eternally nocturnal lol. I've learnt insane multi-tasking skills through everything. One of my biggest life lessons was definitely learning everything that can go wrong will go wrong is real, and how to deal with that as well! And I think my favourite change would be my ability (or so I think) to be scary and commanding – thank you dance practices! Also dilli waalon see seekha gaali kaise dena hota hai :)

Q: What next?

A: Ooh that's something I genuinely feel like going with the flow for! Hopefully a nice job in a nice city with easy access to the beach! I hope I travel a lot and eat to my hearts content. Maybe an MBA abroad somewhere down the line, who knows. I really hope I'm still dancing often and I can't wait to dance at everyone's weddings lol :) Oh and I definitely need a Goa 2.0 with college friends someday <3

... better teacher! Loved learning from you during our Felicity, and batch dance sessions. You always made it so much fun !!"

- Vanshika Dhingra

"Hey Roja, happy to have met you! You're an amazing, sociable person and a great dancer. We didn't hang out much, but I still remember when it was my first day and you randomly pulling up to me and (iirc) asking for my name in front of kadamb. Being LE, I had very few people to talk to initially, and I guess that helped me open up a bit. I gave such an awkward response that I regret till this day lol. Thanks for that and hope we keep in touch :)"

- Aaryan Ajay Sharma

"Roja – saali kamini, One of the most fun, chaotic, and amazing people I've met on campus! You're always a blast to be around – funny, full of life, and always up for anything. I've always admired how you take initiative without hesitation and still manage to charm the hell out of everyone like a true diplomat. You're bold, beautiful, and straight-up unstoppable. Keep rocking, keep slaying – the world isn't ready for you! ❤️ Keep meeting nahi toh maar dungi hehe"

You handle everything with such grace, whether its work or dance, or anything else. I'll miss you teaching me dance for Felicity yaar. All the best superwoman :)"

Q: First day on campus?

A: Arrived on campus alone, unpacked in silence. At 10PM, got a text: "If you want to sleep, just call me." Terrified at first, given it was my first day away from home, then realized it was my roommate. Met him and his friends by midnight, kicking off one of the best weeks of my life. Unforgettable 😊.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: My sleep cycle... I used to sleep at 11PM and wake up at 4.30AM once upon a time... then went on to sleep at 4 almost everyday. One more would be my hair... had the best hair (not exaggerating), now i struggle to grow it 🙁

Q: First day on campus?

A: went down to bakul. quarantine. took my bags to the parul wing. ran into tanish and orgho immediately. went to my room, left the door open and shashwat poked his head in the door. later everybody on the floor played cards together. it was the randomest collection of people and such a vibe lmao

Q: Best campus memory?

A: there's no singular best memory – I've been lucky enough that college has been a collection of great ones

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: being able to just walk over to my friends rooms and chill. and usually suspecting with the usual suspects

Q: What next?

A: hopefully leave soon

"Only person as chronically online as me. I've enjoyed spending time with you all these years, doing the random timepass we keep doing in OBH. Only person I can send RDR2 reels to. I cannot relate to your movie addiction, but very cool stuff. Will miss partying with you guys in kik/etc after we graduate (on time hopefully 🙏)

"We're definitely watching donnie brasco together. I'm not gonna watch it in the summer. Very cool person, goated movie recommendations and gets all references (not just the ones I makes). Forever one of the usual suspects / time pass gang, whatever you wanna call it. How the hell you manage to get so many things done while wasting as much (or maybe even more) time as me, I will never understand. Keep coming home man, a lot of movies / shows left for me to watch and I want you to guide me."

Q: First day on campus?

A: It was my first time being in a hostel. So I was terrified and homesick even before stepping into the campus. I got my room with my friend Adithya the first day, so it helped me to calm myself. From then, it was about surviving each day away from home, not knowing all the crazy times I would have.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: There are many memories, from all the workspace nights to the random walks and the dlf nights. The time I spent in my room would always be memorable to me with Adithya, Naveen, Hanish, Anirudh. All of them randomly coming to our room, just chilling and spending time together is special to me.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I would miss the people I was with during the college years, the college and hostel life and the student life in general as I don't know If I will experience it again. Getting to know these people, spending time together and having good memories with them is something I would cherish my whole life.

Q: Biggest change since first year?
A: To say I had changed from my first year would be an understatement. From my physique to my mind, I had changed a lot from the first year. I have learnt and experienced a lot from the people around me and I hope to carry these lessons with me.

Q: What next?

A: For now, I have nothing on my mind regarding my future. Another chapter awaits me, joining the corporate world, leading an independent life completely. I don't know how it would be like when experienced to the full potential, which makes it all the more exciting and scary at the same time. Again I am what I am from all the people and learnings I had. And I hope to carry those with me.

Hardik Mittal

iykyk

Q: First day on campus?

A: covid batch, so first day for us was quarantine in bakul with around 50 more boys, got to know each other, did the first overnight on the first night of college with all of them.

coming out of quarantine was felicity, practiced drums and played on the main stage 2 days after.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: ofc its not easy to pinpoint, but going on trips, watching sunrise after waking up all night, going to DLF at 5 in the morning and so much more with all the lovely people around

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: the people of the batch. as people started to move out of hostels and college post endsems, I realised how much I would miss them all. even though I hadn't talked much with someone, it still felt, I likely won't be meeting them soon, since there being is irreplaceable in my college life.

"Miss karunga mai tujhe bohot. Yaha pe toh kya hi likhu, jitna bhi likhu kam hi hai. Btw maine jo offer uss din mall mai diya tha, i stand by it. Chahe kuch bhi hojaye dost banke rahega kya? Keeping apart the differences, and the fact ki ab dono ki jindagi alag hogi, I will try to stay in touch as much as I can, no matter which end of the world I am sitting in, and I would be very happy if you feel comfortable doing the same. Mai hamesha bas ek call vala button huun, yaad rakhna."

- Bhole Gaurav Hitesh

"the sweetest, cutest guy I met. literally makes me question my sexuality sometimes."

- Suyash Sethia

"pookie, cutie, jitna naam du kam hain, tune jo experiences diye cheel hone ke utne kisine nahi diye. tere se advice kabhi nakaam nhi gayi. tere sath rehke humesha secure feel hua ki kuch hua toh yeh sambhal lega, thank you for always taking care of

"Hello meri jaan. i am so glad i found you. from listening to my rants to giving me advice on how to manage everything you always were there. Thank you for always keeping up with me annoying you every time i came to your room. 4th year was so awesome because you were there.

from going to udupi to eating paratha to saying khecho to...

... whatever we eat , everything so much better because of you. I am always here for you buddy , and one of these days we should start using trex money for options :p"

- Gautam Batra

"Such a fun person to be around! I remember you used to always have such unique ideas about everything, be it a new start-up or a project.

A: learnt a lot of things, from seniors, from juniors, from batchmates and a little from the college as well. not sure if I am still "ready for my last job", but yes iit did teach me a lot of valuable lessons that I would forever be grateful about.

other changes - kadamb is gone, thub backside is gone, old srujana is gone, soon the main gate road-forest will be gone, new acad building will be here, maybe new hostel behind obh too

"Hacking club has been such core part of my identity and Hardik made sure that it stays afloat. He handled much of the administrative part and I didn't have to worry about it. I can always vouch for his talent when it comes to hacking. I had a lot of fun working on hacking club events, discussing hacks together with him.

Thanks for everything. Hope to stay in touch!"

Q: First day on campus?

A: First day of quarantine. Early morning, my roommate and I were fast asleep when a loud crash woke us up. For a moment, we were scared. Then we saw it—the fan had fallen from the ceiling, right between us! We laughed. There we had a story for the "Intros".

Q: Best campus memory?

A: I loved all our late-night cycle trips; each one had its own vibe. In some, we ended up watching a random movie after parking our cycles at a mall and came back around 4 AM. In others, we rode for over 50 km straight with no destination, only to crawl back to campus half-dead but fully alive.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Late-night talks and fun with friends, movie nights with snacks, and, of course, waking up every day just to talk to your crush. I'll miss the unplanned adventures, the chaos, and the inside jokes. The college events weren't grand, but the memories made were priceless.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I went from being an introvert who barely spoke to anyone to wearing a saree and walking in front of the entire batch. From struggling with deadlines to managing time like a pro.

"Harshit is one of those rare friends you simply can't forget. Together we went for countless outings, rode bicycles through the streets at 1 A.M., went for a couple of trips outside of Hyderabad, and he would always find ways to make every single one of them memorable. I'll always remember the absolutely unnecessary all-nighters we pulled just talking about life. He's always up for something new—and drags us along too 😊. Grateful for having a friend like him :)"
— Tanveer Ul Mustafa

"The most punctual and lazy guy(yes, idk how) I will ever meet, man, the dedication this guy has to studying something I admire a lot and tried emulating, obviously failed miserably 👉. Man plans his life like a video game. Beyond that, he doesn't know how to stop teasing or keeping secrets; he jokes about things with no limits. A very reliable, awesome guy, more than that, one of a kind, I don't think I will ever meet anyone like him again. Thanks for being a good roommate, brother."

— Sreenivas Bhumireddy Papireddy

"Despite being in the same lab we grew close after our random conversations and yuktahar meals in the recent year. I know you value and care people a lot, it shows in the little things you remember and that's what is special about you. It's been great getting to know you..."

... during this time. Hoping for many more great days ahead!! Wish you good luck on your life journey and keep in touch! #chuckaboo"
— Gouravarapu Shanmukha Sai Keerthi

"Before Meeting you, my friends circle was very small. It was you due to which now i know hell more number of people. Tu hai hi itna Famous XD. Mujhe room se bahar jaana pasand nahi but pata nahi kitna tu mujhe kheech ke JC, Movie, Minecraft, kahi na kahi le jata tha. Kuch bhi bada plan hu, if you dont lead it, fir nahi hone wala vo. Remember this for future. Baat karte rehna kabhi kabhi"
— Yash Bhaskar

"Harshit is one of my closest friends— working with him on projects was always a blast – countless teams, endless fun! He never studied ("kuch nahi aata"), yet aced exams (💡). In pool, he'd claim his shot won't go, but it never missed. Girlfriends? Plenty. Girlfriend? Zero 😂. First sem ka pankha episode –legendary! Fun, sharp, and effortlessly brilliant—that's Harshit! #BestBuddy"

— Bhav Beri

"He'll Jedi mind-trick you into an epic trip. One minute you're saying 'no' to a plan, the next you're packing your bags. He is a marathon conversationalist and the world's most suspiciously skilled 'beginner' at Pool. He'll absolutely demolish you at it while claiming he..."

- Maharnav Singhal

"Hanging out with him is always an adventure, and my wallet still hasn't recovered. Just don't expect a birthday treat – apparently, being born during the semester breaks is an excuse for freeloading."

- Pranav Agarwal

"Harshit is one of the most colourful person I have ever met -- very bright, very kind, extremely annoying (XD), one of the nicest singers I have met (but tujhe piano bajana nahi aataa ;), classic CogSci dulla, but most importantly an extremely good friend. So fortunate to have met a person like him.

I will cherish the nice music performance we did (and the one we messed up as well!). All I can say is --

Haan, Hasi ban gye!"

- Vaibhav Agrawal

"Harshit is a standup guy who cracks some good jokes and bring a great vibe. He's the kind of guy that thinks he's the next Dhoni on the field, but the only thing he catches is his breath after 2 runs. This kassi guy will finish his assignments weeks in advance and crush everyone in CGPA but the only women he talks to are 10+ years older than him."

- Shreyas Reddy Palley

"you are one of the most friendliest and funniest guys ever and one of my first friends in campus... the vibe and the atmosphere around you is extremely warm. keep this spirit and energy in you always, hope you never change, keep making others laugh around you and be extremely successful in life, also shaadi pe zaroor bulana :)"

... are always laughing, and so is Harshit. I love that you always used to laugh with me, even at my worst PJs. I will cherish the nights we spent outside T-hub playing bluff on the grass, and you kept collecting sets of 4 xD. Keep your laughter alive forever!"

- Parth Nimish Desai

"Harshit is not just your average Kassi. He is a Kassi who is also really cool to be around! Whether it be cricket, pool, just random tomfoolery or vibing on music, he is the absolute go-to-person! Working late nights with him on CG, SE and Megathon really makes me realize how amazing of a teammate he is (why will I form team with him again and again otherwise?) even if we joke about it.

It was a real pleasant experience vibing with you on the trip back to college after Hidden Castle!"

- Divij

"Harshit is that one guy who naturally ends up leading the gang – picking the food joints, deciding which movie we're watching, what song goes on next... basically the unofficial CEO of our friend group.

What's surprising though? He's ridiculously punctual – not just with classes and assignments, but also with the latest gossip. Those late-night talks in Bakul and the trips was really fun!!"

- Mayank Goel

"Harshit is the heart of every group he becomes part of. The man is the best story teller (i think you need to start pitching startups). The best god we had in our games, making them memorable. Like your singing too, especially last one when everybody left, and we took control of your lab."

- Kyrylo Shyvam Kumar

"He is one of the few all rounders of the batch. Its always...

... fun hanging out with. He is a genuinely talented and down-to-earth person, he's someone you can always count on. I know you will success in life and dont forget to stay in touch !!"

- Aarnav Nagariya

"Bhai tu bahut hi genuine dost hai... jitni bhi masti kari hai bahut maza aaya hai - badminton, bluff, and all the mafia games. The dance class was too fun (and a bit overwhelming lol), its a pity I couldn't join daily with you guys. You really manage work with friends really well, need to learn that from you :))

Atb for your future, bahut miss karunga tujhe yaar!"

- Akshat Sanghvi

"Harshit bhai – Always ready for fun stuff, will miss our random meetups, long convos, gossiping thoda about people, and teri insta pe bheji hui reels. Apna DIP Project itna badiya bana tha apne contri se ki mai kya batau lol. Will also remember us playing Bluff sitting by the tree near T-Hub. Apan milte rehege hopefully. All the Best! Let's stay in touch!"

- Mitansh Kayathwal

"Harshit, tu full-on harami aur backchod hai, but also one of the most solid and genuine people to have around. You're always there when someone breaks a leg, just to make sure they never walk the earth with two legs again. You're our undisputed God when it comes to Mafia. Cheers to my fellow DIP TA, aur wapas kabhi nahi TA karenge yeh course bhai. Tera Kaminapan aside, you genuinely know how to have fun and make sure everyone around you has a great time too."

"Stop bullying people, man, and make sure you're helping everyone out! More importantly, when that internship is done, I'm expectin a BIG treat from YOU - no excuses, and don't you dare ask me for one! 😂 I know you're itching to escape this place ASAP, but until then, let's actually hang out and have some solid fun. Cheers to that! 🥂"

"Hes the most friendly and cheerful person ive ever had the pleasure to work with. Always willing to put his best into a project. The best pool player i know and an amazing person to talk to."

- Pranav Agrawal

"Had a lot of fun talking to you, your humor and sarcasm are top-notch! I still remember meeting you first in yoga class, and then bonding more during those two music courses (we really did have a ton of overlapping courses, lol). And of course, how could I forget all the jamming sessions and performances, Vayu and beyond, those were some of the best moments! You're a super talented singer bro, keep singing and shining. An amazing friend overall. Wishing you all the best for your future ahead!"

I'm really excited that you're moving to Hyderabad, because we have so many places left to visit (wonderla)."

Q: First day on campus?

A: I think I had it easy. Most of the day was spent in quarantine, locked in a room. But that night brought joy as we played games like Mafia and hide-and-seek. On the third day, once we were finally let out, the real fun and adventure truly began, foreshadowing 4 years of nonstop chaos and fun.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: That day I was out till 4:30 - Seeing the city thriving and alive at that moment was livening. Peaceful, just standing in front of the gate - admiring the beauty of the sight - with perfect lighting for the vibe and with cool wind gushing past your cheeks. I'd never felt so alive before.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Sitting on the benches in front of VC, enjoying the weather and the ambience.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I've changed a LOT since my first year. The biggest change has to be that I've now learnt what truly matters.

Q: What next?

A: 2 more years of uncertainty and grinding. Hopefully the leap of faith I am taking will work out fine.

"It's never a good idea to bet against Ishwar....

Therefore you always want him to be on your side. And I'm extremely lucky to have had him on my side for more instances than I can count.

He is fun, He is smart, He can effortlessly switch between brain rot and deep philosophy. But he is still human, he cares, he likes drama but not conflict. He trusts me, but still is the biggest skeptic i've met. He is a contradiction, hard to understand, but is a puzzle worth solving."

- Kommireddy Bhargav Srinivas

"Best person i met in college. Always funny and up to craziness. Only dude who could match my freak XD. Will always remember the dinner dates with netflix and chill and the deep debates we had on random philosophy. The most hardworking person i know and a guy i would trust with anything in my life."

- Pranav Agrawal

"Ishwar is a sweetheart, and one of my earliest friends in college (Clusters actually did something for once!). Whether it be days laden with course work or nights about our adventures in Dungeons and Dragons, Ishwar has managed to sneak into each of my key memories (and I love him for it!) The way he balances his life around his heavy research work and still manages to tag along with all our tomfoolery is something I have never...

... managed to unravel. Thanks for all the memories Ishwar!"

- Divij

"Ishwar, you're my favourite cat on campus, mischievous and always up to something, from plotting against TAs to trolling in course groups you're not even in. You're smart, playful, and a furry who won't even pet a dog. You have this sweet, kid-like presence that somehow makes everything feel lighter and more fun. You're thoughtful, creative, and the best person for the most weird conversations. I'll miss bumping into you, teasing you endlessly, and hearing your random UWUs. Love you, my furry cat."

- Vansh Garg

"My dear tooty frooty cutie patootie, I'll badly miss you deer :(Carried each other through so many courses and way too many ups and downs with the gay brainrot memes (were they memes tho?). Ok the brainrot was mostly mine :P Who's gonna randomly come to lab when bored and drag me away from work by saying "Hey cutie" 😊😊 Will miss having someone to hard carry the projects by "helping" with coding. Obviously, cannot end this without talking about the life-saving clutch results you got for RSAI 😊"

... him closely, and I can safely say that you cannot get into trouble with him being around. He will somehow manage everything and will get the job done perfectly without showing any attitude. He is quite fun to talk to (fondly remember his passionate explanation of DnD and his writeups) and very approachable. Hope ours paths cross again in the future :)"

"I had a lot of fun working on DASS project with you (even though the project was a PAIN towards the end 🎉). Though we didn't speak a lot during clg I'll remember those random rant sessions we had about courses. All the best for your future!"

- Anusha Nemani

"A funny, sweet and simply brilliant guy. It was always fun hanging around with you. Would have loved to hangout more.

A master (de)bater, with many questionable interests, but that's for another time. You always light up any conversation and I only hope you continue to do so. All the best for whatever comes your way!"

- Arnav Negi

"Ishwar is a brilliant, hardworking researcher with exceptional skills in AI – truly someone to watch! His talks can get... interesting [and creepy] (especially with Pranav around), but his dedication is undeniable. Wishing you great success in your higher studies – just go easy on the 'PK fan club' moments! It was good to know you and be friend. Ending words – uwu....."

- Bhav Beri

"Hii my fellow IPT TA! You somehow made paper checking actually fun – that's a talent in itself. Always such a fun person to talk to, and I'll never forget that you're the only horror book reader I met on campus! Also, Wattpad?? Reader and writer? We need way more gossip sessions about that. Wishing you all the best for CMU and everything ahead – see you soon!"

- Vrinda Agarwal

"uWu Ishwar. I have loved the Philosophical discussions which we have had and hope to continue those sometime in the future. You are a pretty organized person and SE would not have been as much fun without you. Keep working hard and I hope you achieve all you want to in life. Let's keep in touch. All the best!"

- Mitansh Kayathwal

"I love Ishwar. He's basically perfect. Perfect in the ways that he's perfect in – no one could be a better Ishwar B B than Ishwar B B. Allow me to explain – this man can be an understanding and caring person, and a freaky force of nature, in the same breath. Crashing into him in Bakul's corridors have contributed to some of my most rewarding experiences as well as ones that I might never heal As I said – Ishwar is perfect. The world be worse off both with one less, and one more..."

"One of the sweetest people to ever exist ❤️, and probably one of the smartest too. Thanks for making the online sem fun, those GI meets made the online sem honestly one of the best semesters of college. I wished we could have spoken more on campus, but you always were one of favorite people on campus. Again, I'm sorry for the fact that you had to deal with Sreeram all these years (and again at CMU). Love you buddy, and all the best at CMU and please stay in touch"

- Haran S K Raajesh

"We had some great moments together. I remember how we could talk about random stuff (with each discussion growing more and more weird :) and yes obviously the first batch trip. I actually wished I've joined the Lit Club with you. Having your witty remarks in our chats was always a delight. It would be wonderful if we could continue our conversations about research and life even in future "

- Kyrylo Shyvam Kumar

"Really sweet dude. Will miss all our conversations (and crying over badami leaving us here :(. I hope you fulfil your goal of getting a fur-suit some day.. have fun in cmu!"

- Kapil Rajesh Kavitha

"Ishwar is one of the most loyal friends I know. He always came whenever I called him to BBC. Most (including me) saw him as a hard-working and smart kid who aced his academics. But having known him up close, he never lets others feel that way. He's a very humble person. He helped me out with my research work without making me feel dumb about those silly probability theorems. Truly one of the truest friends I've had in campus. Thanks for making those semesters at BBC special.

meow:))"

- Parth Nimish Desai

"Take care of your goblins (and yourself) while you're away <3"

- Jhalak Akhilesh Banzal

"On my first day, I walked up to him and talked. I never expected us to have a friendship that lasted so long from such a brief moment. I like your easy-going and carefree nature, and I'm happy we got to share so many things together. I will miss our nights watching anime together. I know you'll be able to face any problems you face, but I'll cheer you on..."

... regardless. I'll always be a friend to you, and I hope you have a great journey at CMU"
- G V Krishna Chaitanya

"Ishwar :) One of the very few people I am still friends with from GI! Yes, those GI days were indeed memorable, and would always bring a smile to my face whenever I would think about them. You are one of the most studious and smart guys I have met in college, and I wish you all the best for your future, I am sure you will do great!"

- Vaibhav Agrawal

"Yo Ishwar, you're a really nice guy to talk to, had a really great time at precog with you and all those WUs 😊, and your jokes hit different bro, have a great time at cmu, all the best and keep in touch ra"

- Raghav Donakanti

"Brother is so humble, nice and intelligent + is a total cutie-patootie. Your dedication is infectious! Econ team didn't happen, so lets team up for a game or two the next time we meet :P

All the best!"

- Aaryan Ajay Sharma

"Heyy Ishwar! Although I had limited interactions with you primarily as a part of those GI meets online, and that PNS TASHip we did together, one of the things I have held on to since first year is greeting you. Really smart and fun to talk to. I will miss the random meows you introduced in those conversations. I wish you the best and hope we stay in touch."

- Rudranish Agarwal

"U_uU ❤

Funny character, personality as bright as his hair :D
Have had so much fun interacting with you especially in the good old GI days of the first year."

- Rushil Kaul

"Ishwar, you look like you are the most innocent guy on campus, you have got the cutest puppy face ever, but when one actually talks with you, do they realize how savage you really are. I have seen your love for books and movies while having many chats with you. You are extremely smart and thoughtful. All the best for CMU :))"

- Keshav Gupta

"Ishwar is such a cute guy, I loved every time I hung around you. I'd just plop down next to you and spew the weirdest stuff. Loved our little conversations, and I went to my first concert with you! I had a blast, couldn't ask for better company. I really should've gotten to know you sooner. We'll play some dune and dnd yet!"

- Aniketh Parkala

"My favourite guy in college wishes we could have spent more time together. I like u a lot, the way ur so chill and calm and take things so nonchalantly. And I am not qualified enough to talk to you about how god ur in studying."

- Sreenivas Bhumireddy Papireddy

"Ishwarrrrr; You're an amazing person and there's always more to uncover in you; I always look forward to talking with you cause its so fun and you're outtake on things are pretty interesting; Goodluck with CMU!! and I hope to meet you here on the 1st/2nd week of Aug"

- Ajit S

"Ishwar sir, you were really a jovial and a funny person. we met on a skit and soon became good friends. We even became educators for Bhargav sir XD.

You are a chill guy, just keep that forever...

And let's connect even after college...

UwU btw."

- Aman Raj

"Hi Ishwar, Any day, I don't know if I'll meet my close friends, but I'll definitely see you outside my room everyday, wearing your shoes, leaving for lab, coming from lab etc.

And yes, thanks for carrying DPCN xd. Hope you get in life what you dream of.

Lets stay connected."

- Yatharth Gupta

"Really talked with you a lot throughout college. We went to office together. Had a few weekend walks, where we explored areas because we had nothing to do. It was always insightful to talk with you, when you came up with interesting facts i did not know. Thanks for carrying our team in ANLP :). CG5 was obviously fun. I remember you winning in rock paper scissors to decide which song we will do. We did play a little in office too. Was fun having your company all this time. Wish you all the best."

- Pranit Khanna

"Ishwar comes off as a very serious and demure but he is really chill and actually a pretty fun person to be with. Ishwar is a very deep thinker and even his jokes are full of complicated references. Had a great time with him in the POIS project which we took lightly after the midsem and had to grind in the last few days xD. He is innately smart and I am sure he will do good wherever he goes next. All the best!"

- Yash Prashant Adivarekar

"Heyaa
You're a very sweet and wholesome person, and it was always fun talking with you about anything and everything

Cat bro!

Q: First day on campus?

A: First day of the campus was fun. I went to quarantine I literally don't know anyone in the campus by then except a few. Met many people escaped quarantine after 2nd day to go to interactions found that I can sing and try to mingle with people which was my quite opposite to my personality back then.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Having chitchats. I never knew I can sing on a stage, for the first time I started to sing in Octave the first 2 years were a blast. I tried everything photography, singing, dancing many memories tied to them.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Friends I made in campus. Many times when I felt alone these were the people that helped me to cope up. The best laughs that made my stomach ache so hard and brought tears in the eyes. Many late night chitchat sessions 9 people on 2 beds gossiping about random shit. These are best moments that I miss

Q: Biggest change since first year?
A: I used to be a shy kid with a lot of stage fear. Eventually I started opening up to people started to dance sing tried to join in clubs entertain people understood how to talk to people and how things work. Overall I guarantee that my first year self would be proud of me now.

Q: What next?

A: I have this random thought of making a video of campus in a horrific way. Since I would be in hyderabad I need to do that at some time and I don't want to end up being in a rat race and scratch my face for full time with tension so I need to learn new skills and focus on fitness.

"To My Penny,
Thankyou for meeting me in college and helping me come out of my interaction hurdles. One of my closest friends in the girl group. CG Grinder.
I hope you get whatever you wish for in life. Kind person at heart but not so funny in comic sense. One of the very few persons with whom I can openly talk about life. She deserves all the success that she achieved and I hope she continues flying even higher."

"It's been 9 years since I've known u, from those awkward hellos to the great bond we now share, we've come a long way. Memories ante ekkada start cheyalo kuda thelidu, enno conversations, trips, a few theeta panulu, and laughter that echoed late into the night. Every moment is a piece of our story. "Nine years and a lifetime of memories! From last-minute exam preps, late-night gossips (especially bw exams 😅), fights, laughs – every moment was soo much memorable because of you , my unofficial #104 roomie. From the day we got so excited we got into IIITH....

... you've made everything more real and special. 500 characters aren't really enough to write about u. Gonna miss you a lot ❤️. But you know whether you need to talk, rant, or anything at all, I'll always be just a phone call away for you."

"Writing this was so tough, because 500 characters can't even begin to cover what you mean to me. Remembering small things about me, the way you care when we meet, and your brainless episodes of hysterical laughter – all these have truly made you a special friend of mine. I'm incredibly grateful to have met you. Apart from setting up my marriage, you've been a good mom. Even if we go long periods without talking, I hope we can always reconnect and chat as if no time has passed."

"From the moment we started that internship, something about late-night talks 😊, weird food cravings, and the chaos turned us into partners in crime. Since then, it's been nonstop laughs and your classic overthinking (which, honestly, I low-key enjoy). You're more like the one I've always admired and hoped to have by my side. Sometimes I still wonder if there's any chance you can just end up in Gurgaon again – just saying, the city's a lot less fun without you.

Megs

Q: First day on campus?

A: First day on campus was super overwhelming but so fun! Felicity prep was in full swing—seniors running around, juniors getting pulled into Kalakshetra work. We spent the whole night making a huge “2022” out of cardboard and setting up lights. Met so many people and just vibed with the chaos!

Q: Best campus memory?

A: One of my best campus memories has to be during second-year Felicity. It poured, the event was a mess, and everything was basically falling apart, but instead of sulking, we ran out into the rain and danced like maniacs to "Hey Macarena". Just us, the rain, and zero shame. A full-on movie moment.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I'll miss the late-night drives, the 5 AM convos, the endless “what if” questions, aimless walks, cards, movies, food, gossip, and just doing absolutely nothing yet having the best time.

"Megs, you are the cheeriest, most energetic, and silliest person I know. Our vibes match really well and I'm so lucky to call you my best friend. You are so talented – be it dance, art, sports, or studies. Your discipline and commitment really inspire me. Thanks for boosting my ego by laughing at my lame jokes. You are so kind, caring, and compassionate. You have made my college days the best. I'm so happy that we're both in MS and excited for what's next."

– Ronak Dhingra

"hi megs, best roommate ever. we've come so far from 6th grade to graduating college. i'm glad that these years of my life were spent with you. i loved coming back to room and having late night talks just lying on the bed. you listened to me and gave me good advice. you're so bubbly and goofy, it's very cute. you are also cringe but you get away with it with that cake. you're such a good dancer too and you're too hott. you were an integral part of my college life. love you"

– Sriya Venepally

"Unlike you, I didn't hate my best friend at first. It wasn't a surprise we got close. It was fun working with you through classes especially the first 2 years. We've also spent a ridiculous amount of time hanging out, discussing tea. Don't think we'll ever get used to your lameness. But you're also very kind and..."

... thoughtful. I'm glad you were able to take all my jokes. I mean well. And thanks for answering mine and Gundams stupid ass questions. I don't think we'll stop talking anytime soon 🤪!"

– Marri Abhinav

"Hii Megss, you are such a sweet and kind person, who is also extremely talented in everything. You are such a hardworking person and you dance so gracefully. It is so fun spending time with you, even if we are doing the stupidest things possible. I really enjoy our late night drives and convos. Inter college was more fun when you came to play. Goa and Coldplay were crazy chill with you being there. It is impressive how determined and strong-willed you are and you should never change who you are."

– Revanth Kumar Gundam

"Megs, imma start off by saying I love your ass cause I do xD. But really your energy is infectious and I've always loved dancing with you ! Keep rocking always !"

– Roja Lakshmi Sahoo

"Hi megs, I love hanging out with you and yes, thank god Marri brought me out of my room. All the times we randomly stayed up late talking about random stuff was so entertaining, and although lost my precious sleep, totally worth it. I was so happy to have gotten close enough to you before goa which made the trip insane. I think you..."

I love your confidence. I miss our chai breaks :P You are an amazing and a very elegant dancer. Keep being you !! Keep being the fun loving and happy person you always are.

To more memories ahead!! <3"

- Bollimuntha Shreya

"Maggie (you told us to call you this in the intro post so I'll do it once at least), thank you for carrying me in ds and other things too :) You graduating is a little bit easier knowing that you're staying in hyderabad, but I'll still miss the nights we spent doing wrong shows or wheezing over the lyrics you make up. And as much as I hate your jokes, they still make me laugh. Please always stay bubbly and funny, don't let anything change that.

Best of luck for everything ahead!"

- Jaikar Sai Muppidi

"Hi megsss, thank you for being an amazing friend through college. I'll be honest, your smile is contagious, you somehow make everyone around you happy and smiley. You and I both know how much ece sucks but it became more bearable with your help, being your team partner helped me get through EW2. It's really sad that you are leaving already, feels like I just met you at BBQ Nation (I think XD). Well you are still in Hyd, hope to see you again soon."

- Vedansh Agrawal

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Biggest change? Honestly, I still feel like the same mess as first year—but maybe a slightly more put-together one. I've become more confident, way more social, and finally stopped being scared of the stage. Now I dance like no one's watching... even when everyone is :). I've also learnt how precious good friendships are and that keeping in touch matters. So yeah, less fear, more fun, and maybe just a tiny bit more drama!! 🎉

Q: What next?

A: What else—corporate life, adulting, pretending to have it all figured out while totally winging it... just going with the flow and hoping for the best!!!

"megsss, i love dancing with you and your bad jokes and your bubbly af personality. you are so fun to hang out with. my most favorite memory of us is teaching and slayinggg nadiyon paar. best of luck for your journey ahead and hope we can hang out as co-workers soon <3"

"From our first encounter while spectating a cricket match, you are been a very helpful and close friend of mine. I'll forever be grateful for the help and guidance you gave me throughout DSA, OSN, DASS and SMAI.

Despite some playful beef throughout the years, you've always been there for me whenever I have been in a tough spot. I do wish that we got to interact more in the last few semesters :(but it's fine, let's keep in touch now and I know you'll kill it with your research work"

"Even though you're very unethical, its hard not to like you. You are extremely tamil (in a positive way) and its very funny to watch you yell at people in tamil. the one time you made chocolate cake it was way too good, and you need to make more now that theres less people to eat it. I hope your swedish thing works out and you stop being scared of your advisor. we should ta something together again 3rd time in a row. I hope you stop falling sick so you can come to basketball a lot more."

"Hola! Fellow CVIT sofa contender!
Mostly the only person who is awake with me in CVIT at nights! The best chef in CVIT (maybe even college!). I still love that brownie you made once, the only vegetarian thing you made so I could eat 😊). Has tech bro phases where he talks about hardcore hardware stuff (motherboards, CPUs, GPUs). Love those discussions (altho I get only around 10% of it). Extremely nice guy at heart, will never forget the forever assignment and demossing help! Lots of love!"

It's hard to believe how quickly time has flown since we first met at Parijaat. I still remember how excited you were, showing me everything you had bought. That was our first proper interaction. You were my first roommate at IIIT, and it was such a fun experience. Thanks to you, I got into Tamil songs and even became a fan of Sunfeast All-Rounder biscuits! Thanks for all the good times, support, and memories. Wishing you loads of success and happiness ahead.

"Harsha :) the first Tamil friend I made on campus (probably 😊) Your craze for CG, blender or Unity is just insane, waiting for someday where I can actually play a game that you have developed.

The best part about you is the randomness, when most people make plans and stick to it, you are just so flexible to make new plans, like sudden badminton or movies :) Can't forget wall painting as well, insane artist 😊"

"Harsha's always been a great person to talk to—whether it's about cooking, chess, or just everyday stuff. We've worked together on course projects and a hackathon, and he's shown real depth of knowledge in both. Hoping our 5th year includes plenty of chess games, some gaming sessions, and finally getting to try his legendary cooking (have high expectations, don't you dare let me down 🤪). Looking forward to more good times ahead!"

Q: First day on campus?

A: It was peak Felicity—music everywhere, and I was quarantined. Homesick and stuck inside... that day sucked, not gonna lie. Missed home a lot, won't ever forget it.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Honestly, it's hard to pick just one. I think it's the little things—late-night chai, random laughter, doing nothing but still making memories. Somewhere along the way, I felt what love, comfort, and home truly mean. Everything was just... the best. ❤️

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: What I'll miss the most? Definitely those random Mondays where I could just choose not to do life and stay in bed.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: You're talking about change, while my height hasn't changed in the last 6 years!

Q: What next?

A: What's next? Honestly, even I don't know! Joining corporate life, maybe playing a sport, maybe becoming a health and yoga freak—who knows? But yeah, that's kind of the vibe I'm going with for now!

"Prissss.. the best, funniest, understanding and most comedy person. We hit it off almost instantly when we met. Q: First day on campus?

A: Luckily, first day on campus was during Felicity time and it was an amazing way to kick off college life. Met my Hyd gang on day 1 itself and met my roommate Ronnie who I knew from before so that was a good thing. Played basketball and explored different parts of college, also got lost in the forest

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Winning inter college basketball cup for the first time ever. Even though I was injured my team played so amazingly well and pulled off a crazy upset to win it all. It was such a satisfying moment to finally beat VNR and nothing could ever top that. Winning that trophy with the gang meant everything

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I will miss playing all the sports possible. Inter batch, house and college were such fun times. Playing with my basketball guys and batch people was so entertaining and I don't think I can ever find such people to play so many sports again. Just randomly walking around and playing a sport is great.

"hi revanth, you were my favourite person to be around when drunk. we have so many good memories together from staircases to random people's houses. you're also insanely good at basketball and your commitment to it is really amazing. you're a really good guy. i also admire your ability to put in low effort and get good grades. best scammer i know. also thanks for not being scared to sit behind me on scooty"

– Sriya Venepally

"Basketball orz, and batch all rounder, you really are a wonder.

Sometimes funny also xD"

– Roja Lakshmi Sahoo

"Revanth, we've known each other for so long. And I only really knew you as the class clown and the chill guy that took everything lite and never studied. But in college, I saw a whole different beast. I still don't know how you are this good at BB, or every other sport for that matter. No one has made me laugh more than you have. We can talk for hours about pretty much anything without getting bored. Truly the guy playing life on easy mode. Underneath that rowdy exterior, is a total softie lol."

– Ronak Dhingra

"Bro is the all rounder I've always been inspired by. Man is the definition of 'Jack of all trades' but still somehow makes everything looks so effortless. Really admire your pure heart and..."

...the eternal sweet and nice behaviour.

Keep going my guy! I'm sure everybody you ever meet will be amazed with your sportsmanship"

– Sannidhya Gupta

"hi gundam long walks with you were very entertaining. you're a good dancer and bb player. very loud cheergirl. you're so hyped up always and our guy-girl pov stories just keep happening all the time. i've complained to you so much about life thanks for listening. grande walks lmao one of my very embarrassing stories but issok i cooked up nice cover. very fun pondi and goa trips. here's to many more dumb useless rants in the future"

– Mukta Chanda

"Probably I studied this hard just coz you were there. Insane grasping skills you have bro, please understand I can't keep up sometimes. You are soo cute when you explain me the same damn thing for the 599th time when I look at you with an exclamation. Thanks for being in Vayu, and all the lob passes and my missed layups. Give me car more often now, you are clearly earning more, so I won't clear any splits from now thank you. Also, learn volleyball, you gotta be better mate :laugh"

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: In the first offline sem, I was worried about grades and getting a job. More so, I was tensed about finishing my research in time. Gradually everything became very chill and I was able to manage it all while going out and playing sports and having a lot of fun. I have lot more confidence in myself now to get things done and I believe I made some amazing memories and friends which I dont think I ever thought was possible in first year. Overall there was so much growth and change since then.

Q: What next?

A: First I would have to complete research and thesis to be able to graduate, but after that mostly the plan is to work for a couple of years. By then I would start to miss college life so ideally would like to go to a college again for an MBA, preferably abroad. Then I would pick up a job again hopefully in some European country or US to explore different places and have a change. After that I would probably like to settle back in India and just have a simple, peaceful job..

– Marri Abhinav

"I love playing on your team. Somehow, being on the same team as you gives me the confidence to play however i want and you would take care of the rest. Other than that, im glad we got close even though it was late into college. Goa, clubs, everything seemed crazy fun with you being there. Let's go on more trips in the coming year. Love you"

– Aniketh Atmakuri

"revanthhhh, you are crazy good at basketball and genuinely so funny even though i don't understand the words sometimes but i get the joke from the tone. Hanging out and partying with you is always so fun. Also you have so much energy when you perform on stage, i admire that. We must recreate the cool batch trip pic the 4 of us had infront of that statue!!!! wishing you all the best for the future :))))"

"Dude, you're a true allrounder and insanely athletically talented! I'm really glad you chose to play cricket as well! I know you wanted to keep, but we definitely needed you in the field way more than behind the stumps 😊. I'm going to miss all the cricket get togethers and chats we had. If you ever need to talk to someone about...

...t keeping frustrations, give me call, not many people know what we go through 😊"

– Haran S K Raajesh

"I still have no idea how you're so good at all sports you play ra.... one of the most athletic people I've met who also has a great sports mindset.... please never lose that... and also your unexplainable charm in the way you speak and interact... hanging out with you was always fun... still remember our photo as 'UG3 non-captains' :) and of course also remember our partnership against MS (i know i did most of the hitting but you were there and it made a difference :p)... keep in touch ra cutie"

Sreyas

Q: First day on campus?

A: Came to the campus right during lockdown, and we were put in quarantine. But that didn't stop us from enjoying :) Standing in line with the plates for meals, sneaking out of the quarantine area, playing table tennis on bakul tables, meeting friends and making more :) It was very fun times

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Really hard to point out to one event, but those late night walks, drenching in rain, midnight movies, last second submissions, wall painting, match streams, badminton, bakul concerts, unlimited mafia, scamming course projects :) impossible to choose from the infinite memories made

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: All the chaos that my friends bring to the table, the late night walks, Oreo shake, the dogs, the deep philosophical discussions about life, and maybe the profs?? I'll let you know when I start missing..

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Hehe :) pass
But among the other big changes, would be my understanding and ability to speak in Hindi, my badminton skills. And obviously the knowledge, I've forgotten all of the PCM I knew ;) for all the TCS I've learnt

"Kid, You've got a power you're probably not even aware of—a strong magnet that pulls people in and somehow changes them (for the win). So calm, so mature... trust me, just turn around and see how many have fallen.

There's a lot to learn from you, kid. You're someone I genuinely look up to (haha stop laughing). The perfect match to the person in that image with two people looking through a telescope at an infinite window...

Amy<3"
— Ashwini Kulkarni

"I once had the honor of pushing a genius in a wheelchair (not Stephen Hawking but close enough). I have a lot of fun memories with Sreyas, building battlesnakes, discussing the absolute crazy things he pursues (He literally tried to formalize constitution to find loopholes, like wtf). The work he did in the later years was far removed from anything I knew – quantum mechanics, quantum computing, etc. I'm glad I got to know him. Hope to stay in touch!"

— Kommireddy Bhargav Srinivas

"You are literally too smart for a normal human da... You're gonna go places that's a given.... just remember our random intellectual conversations for what they're worth"

— Aadarsh Devanand

"sreyas :) the (ex-) yuktahaari friend! I will forever cherish the yuktahaar meals that we shared..."

... together.

fellow arch linux user (we will continue fighting whose setup is better XD). I remember we used to sit together and discuss ricing in prof. Anoop's DIP class, man those moments were real fun. and DIP reminds me of our wonderful project, which I am sure did a great contribution to science and humanity XD :P.
all the best in life!"
— Vaibhav Agrawal

"Sreyas was a great friend—until he got a girlfriend and vanished from the group like a magician. Now we just get rare sightings and "busy bro" replies. Don't forget the OGs!"
— Harshit Aggarwal

"One of the first friends I made in college. In hindsight, a bad move, brother has some insane IQ. I realised too late that ur a god tier level, too cool for me to hang out with. Studying all night with you in the lab is the best memory I have, also including the higher marks u get, even though we studied the same number of hours.

Brother, ur the nicest and the most helpful friend I can ask for. Will miss hanging out with you. Wish we could travel more, really missed ur company when tri alone."
— Sreenivas Bhumireddy Papireddy

"Sreyas, our very own Quantum guy! ☘
Dude, you're insanely smart, it's actually unreal - got so much to learn from that big brain of yours fr. But beyond all the quantum stuff, when are we hitting the badminton court? I seriously need to learn from the master himself! Those cycling lessons are still pending, when's that happening? 😊 Always appreciate your patience. Keep being brilliant!

- P Harshavardhan

"Thanks for all the study tips in 105 classes xD Stay cool!"
- Roja Lakshmi Sahoo

"Hey Sreyas!

Talking with you is always fun, and love your inquisitive nature. You make theoretical discussions as engaging as regular chats which friends have. I admire your calm and joyful nature and your composed approach to anything.

Keep cherishing these traits!
Stay in touch, and wish you the best in all your future endeavours!"

- K Ganeswar

"Hi broo... You are one of the smartest people I've met in college. While I haven't had the chance to interact with you that well, I can tell by simply talking to you that you have immense knowledge within you, and that you are already putting it to good use. It is always a treat to witness your drive towards greatness. All the best for everything! I know you will succeed in all you put your mind to. P.S.: We should become better friends by the time we graduate."

- Nobhendu Chowdhury

"Sreyas was my first friend in College. His amiable nature really relieved me that I will have good friends in...

Q: What next?

A: Another year around here, then potentially a PhD. But who knows what random thing will change my mind. Afterall, IIIT has changed me drastically over the last 4 years :)

... college! Plus he played chess as well, a bonus on top! Sreyas is one of those people who I've found to be most alike to me in terms of our interests -- be it playing chess, poker, bluff, or even Quantum/Math stuff. I think it goes without saying that he's a quantum God. Let's keep in touch for rest of our lives!"

- Parth Nimish Desai

"While we share the same name, Sreyas is a superset of me. He's an algorithm and quantum god, a legend in badminton, and truly a man of culture. I think that Sreyas can bring up the vibe of any party and has the perfect work-life balance. It's been a real honor to be in the same batch as this beast and I hope we'll stay in touch in the future :))"

- Shreyas Reddy Palley

"You are the calmest and one of the most warm people in campus i know of.

I always loved talking to you whenever we met. You are extremely smart, i will always remember you while playing mafia and the crazy reasonings you used to draw in a few rounds. You are crazy good in badminton too. Stay healthy and all the best in whatever you do :)))"

- Keshav Gupta

"handsome and kind and calm"

- Ashutosh Srivastava

"It's very easy for me to find faults in people. I have known Sreyas for a year now, but still I can't find a fault in him. His attitude is just right, and he is so humble. His face brightens up when you meet him. Never has he complained, nor has he given up on things. He is a lovely person, and one person that I can always learn from.

Its crazy at times to see how he maintains his cool. I have never seen him sad, and he always replies with a smiling face. His...

...s expressions want to make you happy."

- Aditya Ranjan Padhi

"A very genuine and caring person. We've always shared a similar mentality and interests - from chess and quantum, to badminton and our shared talent of being thin. It's always fun talking to you.

I should've joined the satellite project, always had a fascination for astronomy, would've been really fun with you. Sometimes I regret not joining CQST, we would have really killed it together :)). Gonna miss all those badminton matches. You really have upgraded a lot, waiting for a finalizer match :)"

- Akshat Sanghvi

"Go for the long hair again bro! Just once more 😊 Very smart and very chill guy. Gonna do great things for the field of quantum 🎉 This man always faster than Ashwini fr ✅ Both of us are not going anywhere anytime soon..So see you around ig 🤗"

- Punnavajhala Gnana Prakash

"Sreyas is one of those people who can get along with literally everyone. Polite to a fault, he's so soft-spoken that even when he wants to yell, sounds like a suggestion. Unlike most boys he bathes everyday sometimes twice. But the same hygiene standards don't get translated across the board (let's just say he doesn't wash hands before meals sometimes even after playing sports).

But hygiene quirks aside, he's an incredibly kind soul, a hardworking teammate, and someone you can truly rely on."

- Mayank Goel

"We had some great interesting discussions together on various common interests maths, quantum and even ethics and politics. I enjoyed the latter two the most, ethics had such interesting questions. And...

...d we should play more badminton next year as I will be staying in Hyderabad."

- Kyrylo Shyvam Kumar

"Hey brooo, you're one of the calmest people I've met on campus, and definitely one of the coolest roommates

I've ever had. I had so much fun discussing cricket, research and all the random stuff with you. I don't know if I'll ever find another fellow Suresh Raina fan! It's kind of crazy how many things we have in common, but we're only discovering them after our fourth year. But I'm sure we'll stay in touch, and we're definitely playing cricket once we're back on campus!"

- Kunal Kamalkishor Bhosikar

"Hey Sreyas, we've met and started talking very recently yet, you've become a good friend of mine. Ashwini used to tell me a lot about you when we were roommates, and when I started talking to you, I realised you meet her description exactly. Smart, understanding, tries and keeps drama away from his life, practical, simple and a fun friend. It's always refreshing talking to you and teasing Ashwini together. I know you will have an amazing future, given that you are super talented. ATB for ur future"

- Pabba Ananya Vaibhavi

"Sreyas, my wheelchair buddy! You're one of the smartest, most joyful, and fun people around. You always wear a smile and bring great vibes to every hangout. You're also one of the sweetest, humblest, and most grounded people I know. Your enthusiasm for astronomy, stargazing, and quantum world is infectious. You've even made me wonder about quantum stuff, but I'm not falling for your quantum cult just yet :P. Hope you always find yourself in the best state, collapsing only into moments of joy and achievement"

- Vansh Garg

"Playing chess with you was always fun, and I'll never forget how much fun we had while working on that cloth protector project together. You even started learning the flute, that was awesome to see. Really enjoyed our convos in Yuktahar. I wish we had talked more in the later half of college. I always appreciated your knowledge and curiosity and how you liked hacking around Linux. Also had a great time on the Astronomy Club trip! Wishing you all the best ahead, let's keep in touch!"

- Soham G Korade

"Eeessreyas Bhai, aka RP, aka Bor, aka Macha.

Man, loved working with you since Automata days, and then TAing the same course and building LTM xD. Let's complete our problem statement(s) and figure out the damn quantum problem of whether Estimating Computational Coherence Resource theory is QSZK-hard (unlike Captain-Claw, which might be PSPACE-hard).

I've learned a crazy amount from you, not just in research/coursework, but also from your outlook on life. Don't change man, and stay in touch :D"

Q: First day on campus?

A: got roped into kalakshetra, ate veg biryani :(. but met a lot of good people so it was fun overall.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: winning against vnr in our college tournament. it was a very close game, going into ot and it was the first time we beat them.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: being able to sleep at any time during the day. gonna miss being jobless enough to just hang out with friends doing nothing for hours.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: started being more active in college events, participating in things outside my comfort zone.

"future roomieee thank you for getting me through college. without you forcing me to study and being my project partner i would've failed in half the courses. wisest advice giver and the smartest person i know. from talking through a mutual friend to being my constant pariyaat partner and sessions and cake baking gossip sessions, i cannot wait to be your roomie in blr. will forever simp over you playing bb and i promise to be a good wingwoman (not that you'd need it xD), 42X and sherlock ftww"

- Mukta Chanda

"I don't want to say goodbye but here I am. I can't even count the number of times you've saved my ass in every way possible. Thank you for all the advice you gave patiently even though I didn't listen sometimes. You've been there for me all my best and worst moments. college wouldn't be the same without you. You're an absolutely amazing person who deserves so much. I really look up to you and how awesome you are at everything from academics to sports. Keep killing it and wish you all the best!"

- Jaikar Sai Muppidi

"sriyaaa, I'm so grateful we both decided not to go for buzz--because without you, i don't think i would've survived the rest of college. i love how, whenever either of us was bored, we'd just go to each other's rooms to talk or silently sit..."

... on our phones. our conversations are always so fun and full of the most random but interesting topics. you're so pretty, honest, and such a good basketball player. thank you for always being there for me. i'll miss you. don't go to bangalore :(

"Hi roomie! I can't believe it's been 10 years since we first met. That's cwaazy! I've literally seen every side of you. Happy, excited, sad, mad, sleepy, sleepy AGAIN. I'll never forget our 4am talks about everything and nothing. You always listened to my endless rants and stories like they were actually interesting. You are so talented and effortlessly good at everything you do. I admire you for that. Now that we are going to break our 10 years streak, I'll miss you. Love you endlessly, always."

- Meghana Tedla

I really like the way you maintain and value the friendships in your life. You are dependable and trustworthy, thanks for always being there for me."

- Ronak Dhingra

"I apologize (jk, you're welcome) that I dragged you out to hangout randomly. So glad I found someone to watch football with, supporting rivals only makes it better. That and ofc simpng over Pat. Watching that IPL match together was one of my most memorable weekends in college. We both know I go easy on you when we play pool. Wish you luckkk and lets hope I don't see any less of you. Maybe you're not so heartless after all :) To anyone reading this if you're over 6ft, here's her number - 8790X..."

Q: First day on campus?

A: 27th march -- sent straight to parijaat for quarantine!

30th march -- out of quarantine -- the first class was ISS lab.

the first actual lecture was linear algebra -- it felt surreal, the lecture hall, everything. had my first veg puff at VC on that day iirc, one of my favs at VC always...

Q: Best campus memory?

A: cvpr 2025 paper got accepted! it was I am in the night, i had already slept, woke up suddenly to find the results, saw "Accept" on overleaf! that night had a different magic! the cold and the sweet coffee that followed -- all fresh in my mind.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: the cvit summer school -- i remember how excited i was to finally be joining cvit, it was the beginning of a completely new phase, and the freshness of those moments is something i will cherish forever. the album of music teacher would be a very nostalgic one!

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: have become much more mature and confident, especially in the last months. but still a long way to go. will forever take the lessons i learnt here close to my heart.

"Vaibhav is the lab resident--always buried in research, focused like a laser, and practically lives in the department. And is the ~worst~ best piano player I performed with."

- Harshit Aggarwal

"bhai, I will always remember the late night deep talks and secrets, I don't think I had with anyone yet. Mein sabse sunta rehta tha ki logo ko kitne kharab roommate milein, but kabhi relate nahi kar paya, kyuki mujhe toh kabhi koi dikkat hi nahi hui. love you and your ass <3."

You have always inspired me to work hard - even when I dint feel like it. All the best for ur future, bahut miss karunga tujhe yaar."
- Akshat Sanghvi

"Vaibhav is the resident music genius + CVIT king. He nonstop grinds passionately on all tasks and is a coffee addict. I'll remember Vaibhav as the guy who always lifts up the vibe during parties and cracks those hilarious jokes. While others might think they know Vaibhav well, they don't know about his insane crack side that comes every blue moon. It's truly a sight to behold and one day I wish to see it again. :))"
- Shreyas Reddy Palley

"Vaibhav :) I had so much fun practicing and performing with you during Freshers and Octave. I'll always remember your cheerful Hellos whenever we met :D You're very fun, chill and humble, always stay the same.

Take care and keep in touch!"

"Vaibhav, you are the only one I know in campus who..."

... gets deep pleasure from understanding any concept and who would put days of work to understand it just a little more. Both of our love for understanding CS brought us together and I had a great time learning with you, and can never forget the xv6 assignment. Always remember the basics, keep on enjoying and learning CS even more and let that thrill of researching never go away. Keep being dedicated and keep making ppl around u sway with ur piano"
- Keshav Gupta

"You are the person who I respect a lot, for your work ethic and your ability to get things done. I respect how many efforts you put (while also enjoying the process) to achieve your dreams. You always add more spice to the fun we have in our group (I am sure Akshat would agree with this.) Glad that we still can be in touch and see each other regularly. And we must have more karaoke nights next semester, may be in my house XD"

- Kyrylo Shyvam Kumar

"Hi bhai, I remember our friendship from 1st year itself. It is great having you as a friend. Although in the later half, we didn't talk much, but you'll be my friends forever. Zada research karli bhai tune XD.

Stay in touch... 😊 "

"Vaibhav and his headphones. Can't find one without the other. Of all the places we would meet in yuktahar most of the time, or I'd find you lost in thought in research street. Those discussions were some of the best :)"

Q: First day on campus?

A: Hahahaha, covid. So, we had to quarantine. I remember coming in and seeing my roommate - Yatharth - relaxing on the bed.

I should've realised that this man would probably be the most chill and one of the most wholesome people I would meet.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: My friend was sick. I spent the entire day walking him around and taking his pictures.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: The egg maggie at BBC.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I stopped keeping a beard. Gosh, that was an awful look.

Q: What next?

A: Idk what I'm doing. Reading the testimonials written by my friends for me, it seems gross injustice to be in such a state. I suppose I'll just have to figure it out :)

"Where do I begin 😊 Partner in crime, in courses, RRC, gay memes, brainrot, rants, everything. The lab is gonna be very empty without you. Heck, I am gonna feel empty without you 💔 Just observing what you do made me realize the difference in levels and what sets people apart. Extremely well-planned and a total workaholic. Couldn't have asked for a better lab partner. Constant source of motivation. Obviously, you'll absolutely crush it wherever you go. Have fun. Keep sending degenerate reels 😂 😂"

- Punnavajhala Gnana Prakash

"Vineeth, my roomie for all the time I spent in college. I really enjoyed the room time with you. Talking about your life goals (they change daily lmaoo), talking about your new crushes, your date experiences, and little acads. It was really fun. Such a disciplined and driven person you are. I have learned a lot from you about planning and executing things. You are really good at it. Though you do RR about some things, trust me, you have always handled them efficiently.

Stay connected bro"
- Yatharth Gupta

"Most academically talented person I have ever known. I'm sure you'll do great in life, as if you aren't already xD. You're extremely hard working and don't take anything for granted, which is something I need to learn from you....

Acads apart, very fun person to hang out with, keep up your singing as well, and pls reduce your foulung rate."

- Sarthak Chittawar

"Vineeth MF Bhat. The man, the myth, the machine. Imagined that you'd be a scary academic god, but you're really sweet and supremely helpful. Will always remember the fun conversations and Vrinda roasting sessions."

- Sannidhya Gupta

"Im changing your testimonial so what youve written for me doesnt really make much sense. You're really good at dancing, and singing, and a menace to play basketball against. Its nice when you pick this friend group to go out with over the other ones because youre very enjoyable to be around :)"

- Sanika Sachin Damle

"lil vinty, words can't describe how insanely smart you are. keep leaving everyone awestruck wherever you go. your never ending achievements give me passive pride as your friend. best of luck. you're gonna make it very big very soon and i cant wait to watch it unfold"

"The kassi of the batch! From strangers to the ultimate bro-sis duo - what a journey 😅 I've genuinely loved our endless gossip sessions (even if you...

... always find new ways to irritate me and be mean – so annoying!!). But I'll give you this: thanks for listening to me and giving solid advice when it mattered. Also, shoutout to your mom – she's so cool, unlike you... please take notes. See you around, bro – don't change too much!"
– Vrinda Agarwal

"Vineeth, our certified 'Unc' for real! Bro, your studious mode is next level, sometimes it's actually scary, ngl! Legit feel like I gotta activate 200% brainpower around you. Absolute MENACE of a defender on the bb court! Still kinda sad I never got those cooking lessons from you 🤪. And yo, enough with cracking all the interviews – pick one and stick to it for a bit da, I can't even keep up with where ur going! 😅

All the best, legend! 🔥
– P Harshavardhan

"One of the smartest guys I have come across. I will miss all those late night meetings we had discussing random things which made no sense at all now that I think about it. Damn intelligent and hardworking, you deserve everything you have achieved and even more. Sure hope to meet you in Bangalore and have fun there!"
– Rudransh Agarwal

"Hi Vineeth! Just read your testimonial, thank you for the kind words. You're also incredibly understanding and never judging. The way you have clear goals and work consistently towards them is rare and inspiring. People like me are often confused, so your focus really stands out. It's a pleasure having you as a batchmate and a friend.. Also, I'll definitely call you when I'm in Bangalore!"

"Vin – Bestie, apna Research and acads Grinder :O. IOT grind se leke bhai ab last day study marke bhi top krletा hai (kassi!!). Sweet at heart, always ready for bakchodi (irrespective of situation). goated forever. The late night unhinged convos and roaming Blr with you will always remain memorable. Hope you achieve all your dreams! All the Best!"
– Mitansh Kayathwal

"To me, Vineeth is that one guy who helps me realize my own state every now and then by simply asking "Wow you look dead what happened". One would think it's a joke, but more often than not, that was true and it's a good thing to know that I look dead at least

:P Cheers man, thanks for looking...

– Divij

"It was pretty nice running into Vineeth again in college. I genuinely enjoyed talking to him and annoying him during class. He had weirdly insightful takes and ideas and was actually fun to chat with...though it would be nice if he stopped being such a kassi and actually watched the reels I so painstakingly curated and then sent (—). Still, 10/10 class neighbour. Would absolutely bother again."

– Khushi Wadhwa

"Vineeth is an all-rounder, bro is so good at everything he does. He is also very fun to talk to, you can always learn one or two things by just talking to him. The way he creates his own paths to get something he wants and his ability to just get things done is quite motivating. Hope he takes less bt than (and from) me. I will miss the discussions with him which just gave pure existential crisis and would make me question everything around 😊"

– Swayam Manoj Agrawal

"Vineeth is a cutie both literally and metaphorically. Love how we were able to talk for hours about the most random stuff (while at the same time discussing about life with great clarity). I admire how he carries around his academics and being such a rizzler. I'll definately miss poking you across the corridor. I expect so much from your future endeavors. And if we do happen to bump into each other again, lets have one more round of those "intellectual" discussions (wink)"

It started when I was walking down the corridor and passed your room when our gazes connected through the sliver of space the door left open. I remember the times we caught up while he shaved at the corridor basin, a towel draped over his back. Somehow all these times Swayam bore the brunt of our attacks. But seriously, you're the sweetest person I know, and being a kassi/tompr, you'll breeze through any challenge. I'll miss you a lot. ATB!"

I still remember the time we went to the library & did reddit together. I had been having a rough time & that evening played a significant role in me finding the motivation to snap out of it.

"Hey Aaryan.
Not a long time we spent together, but I still remember our DNA project team – and let me just say, that was honestly the best team experience ever! Zero hurdles, all smooth, crazy coordination.

You're such a nice friend – very humble and always helpful. I still remember those DS assignment days, sitting in the lab and running the code together.

Thank you for those amazing moments!

All the best for the future – stay in touch!

Prishaaa"

"Hi Aryan, you're honestly one of the most hardworking, and polite people I know. You were always there to help, no matter how late or tired you were. Working together on the project was such a great experience, you were super reliable and just really good at what you do. I'm so glad we got to work together, and I really hope we stay in touch. Wishing you all the best in your research, but don't forget to eat while working! And seriously, stop saying thank you so much 😊."

"You're one of the funniest and most genuine people I know. I remember one of our early conversations about coursework, and how we were ruminating over how messed up our sems were going. The empathy and encouragement during those times really touched me. I wish we had more chances to interact, but I think there's still time to fix that – hope we keep more in touch soon"

Q: First day on campus?

A: Fortunately skipped quarantine, got a good room mate since he also came at the same time. Never thought i would get this connected with the random guy in the next 4 years. Had to taste yuktahaar food on the first day itself 😅, since all other messes were closed.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Cheering for the performances during felicity, felicity buzz, freshers, and navrang is a unique memory. Those performances were truely awesome. I wish i was that great in dancing, but unfortunately i am not.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Late night COD, smashkarts, among us, cards, movie streaming sessions with friends is one thing which i would definitely remember for the rest of my life. I would miss them the most.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: The amount of carelessness in academics went up a lot 😅

Q: What next?

A: Just a simple job with little to no risk. hanging out with friends during weekends. Have not planned anything much.

"Kassi Master of our batch and my very first friend at IIITH. A proud member of the OG Trio, cinephile, SRH loyalist, and Instagram firestarter. The topper with effortless talent, unmatched dedication, and endless wit. College wouldn't have been the same without him—especially in the early days. One of my closest friends: selfless, caring, and truly inspiring. Grateful to have had him in my life—wishing him all the success he deserves."

Q: First day on campus?

A: Reached campus at 4 a.m. on Dec 4, 2021, with my parents, but the gate was closed due to COVID-19 protocols. Waited outside in the cold until 6 a.m. Got entry and was directly taken to quarantine at Parijat Hostel. Not the ideal start, but definitely a memorable one

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Some of my favorite memories from campus are the late-night walks to JC, spontaneous trips with the people who made every moment special, and simply spending time with friends who felt like family.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Friends :) ,Food and playing hockey

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I've learned that it's perfectly okay to pursue whatever you want in life and to strive to become whoever you want to be – but also to let go gracefully when things don't always go as planned. 😊

Q: What next?

A: Not overthinking what lies ahead – just embracing the journey and letting life unfold, one moment at a time. And on a lighter note, whenever time allows, I'll be off exploring the places on my ever-growing travel bucket list.

"#Monu,

Always ready for trips—and one trip I'll always remember is our Vizag trip. One of the best memories has to be the OSN assignment we did... well, actually, you did it 😊 All those "scams" were super helpful. You're someone who never overacts—jo mann mein hota hai, seedha bol deta hai. No fear, no filter. Bas aise hi bane raho. Milte rahenge :)"

From you teaching us the whole syllabus the night before exam to swimming sessions (you were way more consistent), I'm truly grateful for all of it. Loved exploring blr with you, abhi aur explore karna hai. Also really admired your early-to-bed, early-to-rise routine (even though it faded a bit over the years, try keeping that up!). Q: First day on campus?

A: Locked down, regrouped with discord friends, found my roommate (the only one I had all three years), played cards while being quarantined, got intro'd a few times, intro'd a batchmate (as a prank)

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Parties with the entire group in my room, being the DJ (yt with tab switch + manual volume fade setup), going around OBH/campus for the after-party until all our laughter melt into one. then the after-after party with the girlfriend ^-^

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I'm still here for an year (or more) [I need more time to decide what I will miss the most]

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Hair – I love my long curls ^-^ – I've learnt to be comfortable with what I've chosen for myself and not needing external validation (even though my hair is regularly complimented by people :))

Q: What next?

A: Research/Associate monk at Hemis Monastery, Ladakh

"of all the things i found at IIIT finding someone as incredible as you was the least expected. we can talk about anything (and we talk about everything) and it is interesting. your creativity and morals make you the beautiful person you are. thank you for listening to me, making me laugh each day and being the reason i know how beautiful life is. i knew i found a new home when i spent my first diwali away from home with you. maybe newer houses come, but home will stay the same. i love you akshit"

"Respected roommate Akshit Kumar, I will miss sleeping next to you, sharing a cooler, movie screenings and everything else we did together. Ngl (not gonna lie) you have taught me a lot about how to think and I don't think I'd be half the person I am today if I did not have you with me the past few years (sidenote - i have greatly admired your reaction gif library). Great roommate and an even better friend, I hope we keep in touch and get more opportunities to get drunk and piss in water bodies

We did so many things together, went to so many places. I will always remember randomly coming into 246 to play your guitar or take pictures when you're sleeping that you would see much later. These have just been some of the golden times of my life, the moments that I will always remember. And yes, garib rath to hai hi."

... much but I'm grateful for the friendship we've built in these past few months. Our parties have always ended with you being dead or almost dead which just proves how awesome we are at partying XD. I wish you all the best for your life ahead and I hope we stay in touch!"

- Raghav Donakanti

Q: First day on campus?

A: My first day at campus was really okay. What I knew was we were sent directly to the quarantine. however, the day was really nice.

Got to know a lot of people that time, some of whom I never saw online and some of them i saw online in first semester.Good day!

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Winning the skit for our house in first year.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: 4 years of college

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: A bigger friend circle.

Q: What next?

A: Focus on career and meeting with friends...

"you are one of the most friendliest guys and one of my first friends in campus... the vibe and the atmosphere around you is extremely warm. keep this spirit and energy in you always, hope you never change, and be extremely successful in life, also shaadi pe zaroor bulana :)"

- Keshav Gupta

"Aman bhai, you are a simple and sweet guy.

It was a great time to work with you in a team.

Happy journey and Stay connected."

- Kabir Shamlani

"I wouldn't have known how much of an anime fan he is if he didn't tell me about it himself. Man is cultured and has refined taste. Really chill to hang out with and I had tons of fun explaining to him the entire plot of games that I have played :P"

- Divij

"Our roll numbers were adjacent to each other, so it was inevitable that we end up meeting, and I am very happy that we did. Aman is one of the most respectful and polite people I know. I got through many boring classes only because he was there cracking jokes and keeping the atmosphere fun.

But beneath all the smiles, lies great power. Aman is extremely skilled when it comes to math and adjacent fields. He is downright overpowered and isn't a threat only because he chooses to use it sparsely."

- Kommireddy Bhargav Srinivas

"Aman is one of the GREAT personalities I've met at this college. Love his no-shit, chill-going attitude to life. I've had the pleasure of talking about many intellectual things with him (from politics to weird business models). Loved his anime suggestions and him being one of the first frisnds I made in college he is in my core memories now (this happened over a random house skit btw)"

- Ishwar B Balappanawar

"Aman bhai,

Tum to bhai ho apne hi... Yaar tum jo ghumne jaane ke liye hamesha available rehte the... aur hum jo JC pe daily jaate the... vo best tha. All the best bhai for future, hamein bhi yaad rkhna and ham to hain hi aapki seva me haazir."

- Rohan Kumar

"Aman bhai, kya badhiya bande ho yaar tum, mauj masti, padhai, friendships, sab manage kar lete ho. Mere ML ke Aadhe code toh tumne he debug karen aur samjhaye hai XD. Kya knowledge hai yaar tumhari, salute. Har domain me tumhe idea reheta hai kuch na kuch. I really admire you for that.

Saath free fire khelna hamesha yaad rahega.

best of luck for future, keep in touch"

- Yatharth Gupta

Q: First day on campus?

A: Well...being a DASA student my first 4 days in campus were spent in quarantine XD. But after quarantine ended I remember feeling that I might get lost in the campus but then I realized that was not the case within a day.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Late night walks in campus. Somehow the campus feels more alive post 12 am than in the morning XD

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: The freedom to sacrifice my sleep just to finish a book (corporate life T-T)

"Anusha, you've been such a sweet and genuine friend, my next-door neighbor for years. Through all the rants about deadlines, pressure, and the rough hostel conditions, you were always there, and I could truly count on you. You've been one of those friends I could always rely on.

Good luck with your job in Bangalore! Stay in touch! ❤"

– Kritika Gautam

"Anusha, I'm really going to miss you. Coming to your room to help pick out dresses, heels, and even fixing buttons became such a fun little ritual for me and your support always meant the world. You were there for me in so many ways, just like I tried to be there for you..... The corridor won't be the same without you. It's honestly hard to imagine being here without your rants, and those chats we used to have. Can't wait for us to meet again soon love you loads and let's definitely stay in touch"

– Thota Santhoshini

"Hi Anusha!! I got to know you so much more in the 4th year of college and I feel we are so similar, we totally match each other's energies when talking. You are one of the only person who matches my horror for lizards hehehe, loved lizard tracking with you lolll. You're such a calm, sweet, innocent, honest and a very hard working person. I love how you have the guts to take hard decisions to stay..."

... focussed on your goals!! Stay in touch :))"

– Pranjali Bishnoi

"hi roomie, you've been a constant for 3 years of my life. The first time we talked on the landline after our orientation would have never let me imagine our intertwined paths years down the lane. I loved our late night discussions (complaining about courses, discussing books, series and more) from our beds. I wish you the very best for your future and I hope we get to always keep in touch!!"

– Marinie Sivaramasethu

"we haven't talked that much in college except for a short span in second year but i won't forget the fact that you were someone who definitely made my transition to college easier during online sem. thanks a lot for that time; you're a good person at heart. i wish you the best wherever you go :)"

– Arghya Roy

"Ig our batch got the best of both worlds by having the first sem online. it brought together people who would've otherwise never spoken. That and our interactions in the batch trip. Loved talking to you Anusha. DASS was doable only because of how you helped a lot while coding while sitting late night at workspaces. And yes discussing courses and professors was always fun. Thanks for these memories. Hope you do really well in your life and all..."

Q: Best campus memory?

A: My best campus memory would always remain the DJ party organised by Apex in our first year. People went crazy and all of us danced our hearts out. Nothing is more fun on the campus than the DJ parties after the event, you get to relax and enjoy with your friends.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Definitely the PEOPLE

I will everyone of them I had interacted and built a connection with, the campus is just a bunch of buildings without them, they are what make it special and memorable

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Knowledge, my ideas for the future, got a more holistic idea about the world rather than my own little world I was living in before coming to college

Q: First day on campus?

A: Lockdown times...

First day on campus feels like a decade ago. Met so many people and had no idea some of them would end up becoming such good friends.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Can't pick one "best" memory no matter how hard I try. And the best memories definitely can't be written here XD

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: simple answer, the people and college life

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Campus life. Half the campus is under construction right now and overall campus was much better before. First year campus... those were the times. I didn't explore Hyderabad much in the first few years, but now I'm in love with the city.

Q: What next?

A: Mastering the art of doing nothing, professionally :)

"My partner in crime! You have been such a dear friend to me these past 4 years and I can not imagine my life without you. No matter where life takes us in the future, I hope you are always happy and successful. You deserve all that life has to offer and so much more. You are the calm to my storm, the rainbow to my soul. You picked me up in the darkest of days, and I hope I was half as much to you as you were to me. May all your wishes come true. All the best for everything!"

And khair ab toh jindagi alag hogi, but mai hamesha bas ek button door huun, yaad rakhna. mera pehla bhai hai tu, and regardless of hum dono kaha hai duniya mai, tu hamesha rahega Also, Thodasa chinta karlo bhai duniya mai, itna bindaast rehna sehat ke liye acha nahi hai xd. Tujhe kuch hua toh mai kya karunga bc. Khayal rakhna yaar, miss karunga mai tujhe bohot."

Q: First day on campus?

A: Locked in Bakul, quarantine. Sneaked out 4 times in 3 days, some of the happiest memories on campus. A little afraid to be alone, but a lot more excited to explore xD.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: The 3 am walks to TCS/T-Hub terrace, partying in Bakul/OBH, playing pool, gossip sessions in CCNSB, chilling in my friends rooms more than my own.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: The people, everyone I met was either an absolute angel or a demon. But I'm really glad to have you all :)

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Realised what's really happening around me, what's important and what requires attention. Learnt how to learn, to work with constraints and restrictions. Stopped caring about a lot of unnecessary things, focused more on things and people who matter the most to me. Grateful and thankful for what I have, less stressed about what I don't.

Q: What next?

A: As a CND, quite hard to pin point. But I really hope to grow more, both professionally and personally, I would love to explore and create good memories.

"GUPTA GANG. From sharing the work in our assignments on discord to having the most fun ever in the batch trip. So many memories to cherish, so many fun times to remember.

Ashish Chokhani

Ashish

Q: First day on campus?

A: On my first day at campus, I was a bit nervous about what lay ahead. After settling my luggage in my room, I met Ishit, my quarantine roommate. We quickly became friends, sharing stories about our hometowns and discussing our first-semester SGPA.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: My best campus memories include going out for classes and mess, evening walks after dinner, dinner outings, movies, games, table tennis, cricket, kaabo, bluff cards, evening jogs, exam-night discussions, birthday bombs, and celebrating birthdays with friends.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: The thing I'll miss the most is playing COD with friends, Amogha visiting my room at midnight to remind us "yesterday has become today," fun debates with Nikunj over Haldiram vs Bikanerwala, teasing Pronoy and Pranav, and the friendship I built with Umang, Harsh, Manuj, and Ishit.

"Ashish bhai...one of the fewest persons to address me as VSS...in the initial sems our interactions were much confined to academics related (I used to come to your room during assignments only 😊) but over the sems we enjoyed a lot through COD sessions and obviously those cricket sessions on FG/amphi dais 😊....miss those random discussions in the 24X corridors....all the best for your future...apple mein dhoom machana"

- Soma Satya Pradhith Vulichi

"Ashish bhai you are my foodie partner. Your's and Ishit room was the most frequent and relaxing place I visited. It was enjoying to visit mess with you all guys and amount of fun we had celebrating birthday parties can't be counted. You are one of my best friends on campus, keep contacting! Don't forget."

- Nikunj Garg

"Ashish is a smart, intelligent and a creative guy by nature. He used to be stuck to his laptop, be it for solving college assignments, doing his internship work or binge-watching Web-Series! Yes, his web series were very dear to him and he could not imagine a day without watching his favourite web-series shows while munching his sweets and biscuits. His room would be the goto place for celebrating birthday parties, which made some of my best memories there. All the best for your future bro!"

- Pranav Gupta

"Had some really good memories with you and your friend circle. Can never forget the countless number of times we used to sit in you room, talk and laugh for hours. I'll always remember your laugh, could even hear it in my room sometimes lol. Lets stay in touch, good luck :)"

- Akshit Sharma

"Ashish bhai, whether it is academics, coding or cricket, it was always a pleasure sharing knowledge and experiences with you. I ended up spending more time in your room than mine because of the great vibes we had. I'd love to get some of your playlists sometime! Will always cherish those COD games and TT times. Let's stay in touch. All the best!!"

- Amogha A Halhalli

"Hello Ashish, had some of the most interesting discussions with you. I will always cherish those 'aaj' 'kal' wala moments. Had some of the best moments playing COD with you and thanks for letting me on some tricks.

Will always cherish those long discussions at night. One of the most focused, hard working, smart and interesting people I came across in college, hope to keep in touch."

- Pronoy Patra

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: When I joined college, I felt underconfident, unsure how I'd manage the next 4 years. I focused only on academics, but as time passed, I met amazing friends and talented people who inspired me. Slowly, I realized my true potential and learned the importance of working smart and hard. Now, I'm confident, ready to face any challenge, and I never underestimate myself.

Q: What next?

A: Looking forward to life's challenges, I aim to meet amazing people and make lasting friendships. I'll stay connected with old friends and college, while aspiring for greater heights. Staying motivated and becoming a problem solver will be my focus for the future.

Q: First day on campus?

A: Straight into quarantine—let me stress here on how horribly it was planned. Stuck in one Bakul wing with bad food, awful washrooms and sinks. Triggered an existential crisis. But a lotta random friends helped me through it – taking it one day at a time. But yeah, that was ass beyond belief.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Haran & Mago, if you're reading this, I k you're laughing There was this girl who I felt was p cute, and the boys convinced me to get outta the room, approach her to say what's up. Man I had the balls to walk up to her, but folded horribly, walked past her, & spoke to 2 random boring humans instead

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: It's got to be the company of my juniors – Ananth Rajesh, this one's a golden retriever in the way he loves me, Amol Vijayachandran, this one's very nonchalant and can't talk to women for the life of him, and one along the autistic end of the spectrum – Siddharth Mago, this one's a special case.

Q: First day on campus?

A: Met my roommate Ram Gopal, we couldn't eat because Felicity. Couldn't pay anything because we had no UPI. A senior helped us to eat from Yuktahaar.

The next morning I went to Kadamb and sat on a table Ishwar was at, and then used a tried and tested icebreaker "What's your favorite pokemon?"

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Too many to pick one, and I still have time to make more!

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: My friends. I'm still stuck here for another year without half of the people I know. When I finally leave, I'll hate having to live by myself. I already know it. It's probably gonna hard to find another place with the same level of cleanliness and greenery.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Willingness to break boundaries. I always was a person who did things I was told to do. I still am. But I'm getting out of there slowly. Maybe one day I'll break enough I find a passion.

Q: What next?

A: An internship, more research, experiments, a paper and then to get a job.

"KC is the kind of guy in any show who's effortlessly easy to be friends with. He has a slightly unhealthy obsession with playing rogue-like videogames and will grind mangas/animes at insane speeds. KC is one of the scariest people to play Bluff with and I would instantly go bankrupt if I ever gambled against him in poker. He introduced to so many fun games but I hated how I always got into them with him during exam seasons... I wish I had met him much earlier :)." - Shreyas Reddy Palley

"KC is one of the most precious and loving friends I've had on campus. "I'll put it to you this way" -- I wish we spent more time in first and second years as well. KC is a calling machine in poker and the exact opposite in bluff. He will catch every bluffed card you try to get rid of, and always somehow end up winning with 25 cards in his hand. I will always cherish the time we spent on and off work - be it studying game theory and playing poker, bluff, catan, etc. Let's keep in touch for life:3" - Parth Nimish Desai

"Oh, I never dreamed I'd cross paths with such a legend in college. You, my friend, are the zen master of chill, snoozing like a pro even with the exam clock ticking down to doomsday! You're always caught up in Japanese games that I wouldn't understand no matter how many times you explain them. We're in the same lab, but I can't use you for random tasks." - Sunkari Sai Satvik

"Talking to you calms me down. You are probably the person with the most chill vibe going on. I don't remember how we met, but boy am I grateful. You always had something wise to say, something to guide me out of the darkness of the situation. Your catchphrases are as iconic as you. Thank you for everything, hope to meet you in the future." - Kommireddy Bhargav Srinivas

A: Getting to know how big our campus was

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Movie streamings, group outings, club events, and a bunch of other small moments on campus are what I'll remember most.

I'll always treasure.

I learned so much on this journey with you by my side. I'm going to miss you a lot ❤️. And you know, talk when you need to, rant when you feel like it just know that I will always be a phone call away for u"

Q: First day on campus?

A: Honestly, on my first day of campus, I had my doubts. Since everything had shifted online during COVID, it just didn't feel real. But that was four years ago. Things moved offline gradually, and once I actually stepped onto campus, it finally started to feel real and wonderful.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Scribble and Farewell

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Late Night Food.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: The biggest change since my first year has been in me. I started off confused, a bit hesitant, and unsure about where I was headed. Over the years, I've grown more confident—not just academically, but as a person. I've learned to take initiative, handle pressure, and trust myself more. It's not just about what I studied, but how much I've evolved.

Q: What next?

A: I want to travel and explore everything I can—new places, new cultures, and new experiences. At the same time, I'm focused on growing in life, whether it's through a job or starting my own business. I

Q: First day on campus?

A: We came during COVID, so it started with quarantine. But being here as freshers, it felt new, a little scary, and exciting all at once.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Can't pick just one—there are too many. Almost everything about this campus holds a memory I'll always cherish.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Sitting in the amphi, walking around when it's windy, and meeting friends at Felicity Ground.

Kunal

Q: First day on campus?

A: My first day on campus was really fun. It was the day before the first day of my 2-1 semester. I didn't know anyone on campus at the time, but I met all the LEs and their parents. After the parents left, we all started talking and sharing stories, and just like that became best friends.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: I think my best campus memory is a combination of all the moments I spent with my amazing batchmates. I don't think I can choose a single moment, as that wouldn't do justice to all the other times we laughed, learned, and had wonderful conversations together.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: One thing I'll miss the most is the random late-night conversations while "studying" before exams, when everyone is clearly procrastinating and refusing to accept the reality of the syllabus and exam weightage. All the while, we're busy calculating how much weightage is still left to pass the course

"Had fun interacting with you. Keep in touch. Best of luck for your future!"

- Soham G Korade

"Hi bhai,
You have been a calm and jolly person throughout, whenever we met. DS me best teammate... You are some of the rare personalities who have displayed their true hardwork and understand others well. I hope you'll get great paper under Charu Ma'am. Be optimistic. I trust your hardwork, that you have shown despite the two rejects...third will be an accept."

- Rohan Kumar

"Kunal :)
It's crazy to find another Suresh Raina fan, should've known this earlier:)

But actually, a very humble person and now formally my 4th roommate :) We have much more in common than I knew before, we should hang out more often..

+ We should play cricket someday soon."
- S Sreyas

"Hi Kunal, it was great getting to work and interact with you. You are very focused and driven in your work, and really fun and chill to hang out with. Always stay as genuine and down to earth as you are, all the best for everything ahead :)"

- Vanshita

"Hi chote mote, Never thought someone I've known for just three years would become such an integral part of my life. From doing assignments together, going to DLF at midnight, cozy light sessions, BBs, to you "going to prom" :) – we've been through it all. I'd just say: start listening to my advice >_<.

I've seen you grow a lot over these years, and I'm sure this is just the beginning."

- Kavathekar Ishan Kishorkumar

"Kamal bhai, heavy banda hai tu. Unafrid to take tough courses and always ready for a challenge. Was fun binging on black coffee and engaging in deep convos. Past 3 years were a blast, and from that 500 Rs Ratnadeep task to the challenges you are tackling now, the change is crazy. Have learned a lot from your philosophy on life... Let's write that Le-paper and graduate, what do you say? (and maybe trip would be nice too xD)"

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: The biggest change since my first year is probably how the campus looks. I used to really like the 'Srujana' area and the greenery that surrounded it, it had such a peaceful vibe.

Q: What next?

A: Struggle to graduate...

"If there's one man who mastered doing the least for the most, it's Lakshya Shastri. From smartwatch-for-attendance deals to ₹15 vape hits in Room 244 (a cultural landmark in itself), he played college strategically like a game, focusing on the only objective that mattered: fun. Money? Optional. Opinions? "it depends." Like a seasoned politician, he dodged blame, shaped outcomes and though was rarely seen, was always unforgettable. "Maharnav is a brilliant writer with a deep love for books (thanks to his CHD background!). A Linux wizard, he probably changes his OS like moods—there's no distro he hasn't mastered. Though clueless about post-degree plans, he's certain about one thing: eating! A true foodie who can devour anything, anytime. A talented, quirky, highly moody, and endlessly curious soul! Will remember the good days at 460!!"

— Bhav Beri

"Where do I even begin with this guy? Throughout the college years, our friendship swung between ultimate bros and mortal enemies—but deep down, we always knew it was the former (the latter was mostly his drama queen phase). He's the classic coconut type: tough on the outside, but one of the most dependable people I know, always ready to stand by his friends. Whether during class or at 3 A.M., he's always there if he is needed. Unless he decides to jump, hopefully we will always be in touch :)"

— Tanveer Ul Mustafa

"Maharnav's love for long drives is legendary—always ready to hit the road, no destination needed. He's got a thing for cool, fancy stuff and somehow always knows the latest gadgets and trends. Chill vibe, solid company, and a great friend to have around. Keep cruising, bro!"

— Harshit Aggarwal

"Man's living his life in the moment, literally. The moment he wants to change something in life, he changes it, including mobile, laptop, or even bulbs :)

Two skills that I find awe-worthy in him are his ability to drive cars (a very successful Ooty Trip thanks to him) and knowledge in a very coughs interesting coughs field (I will leave it there)."

— Divij

"Can yap about anything. Overthinks a lot. Has a deep understanding of human nature, but doesn't use this knowledge often."

— Pranav Agarwal

"Maharnav, a resident of Room No. 460, was a person who believed in a simple philosophy "my way or the high way". He could be spotted readjusting his things every now and then – be it his Laptop's Operating System or his drawers internal structure, he would always be the person who would have entirely different viewpoints for every topic you would like to discuss. A helpful guy by nature, he could be seen cracking late night jokes with his cherished friend groups. All the best bro for your future."

— Pranav Gupta

Q: First day on campus?

A: Gladly new batches are not welcomed with Quarantine nowadays.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: For me probably the One Piece Dragon wall painting. Spent 150 hours of my life on that.. don't ever ask an anime fan to pick an artwork they will choose the hardest. From regular all nighters, dozen new people joining along and painting together to 3 grade drop that sem. It was truly unforgettable

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: It's really hardest to pick one thing over many others.. but for me it would probably be the people. Everyone here was enthusiastic about something or the other and they pursued it passionately. And that passion was contagious. Be it Cansat, Club events, Wall painting, learning guitar or research.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I can wake and sleep anytime of the day now.

Q: What next?

A: Unfortunately I am CND.. only my advisor knows.

"Gives good life advice. Has a terrible sleep schedule. Remains underground for a long time."

- Pranav Agarwal

"Mayank :) Roomate for 3 years.. Always enjoyed the green tea we made late in the night, or those chess games we played. It was very fun, be it recording your dance assignment or singing on birthday, taking intro xD. Extreme hardworker.. I see you in the room :) never lose the trait, it will take you places :)"

- S Sreyas

"I have never seen someone so invested in learning Telugu. At this rate, you'll probably end up speaking like a native by the time we graduate. Very talented and very passionate about the stuff he does. Vache samvatsaram kooda ilage telugu nerchukuntu untaavu ani aasistunna. Go figure out what that means :)"

- Punnavajhala Gnana Prakash

"Mayank is the most unplanned guy I've ever known--basically an owl, awake when the world sleeps and asleep when it doesn't make sense.

Always up for fun trips at the weirdest hours (and yeah, that trip was a blast!). But when it comes to work, he's surprisingly focused and driven. Wishing you all the best for life!"

"From Eid and Birthday parties to out-of-station trips, to spooky restroom run-ins, we've done it all. Despite all the chaos, he's one of the most dedicated people I know--someone who'd rather spend his free time thinking about the universe than binge a show. A great mind, a strange man, and an unforgettable friend. Hope we keep crossing paths (preferably outside the washroom) after college too."

- Tanveer Ul Mustafa

"Fashionably late, fellow dog lover & might break his arm in trampoline park, that's Mayank for me. Aaj tak jab bhi isse bulaya hain, yeh late pohocha hain, be it for classes, meets or even for his own birthday on JC :) But the man is full of hidden secrets. He knows German, plays guitar, works with local underprivileged children & watches Pyaar Ka Punchnama. He is intelligent, hardworking and even more helpful than you can imagine.

All the best bhai, and smile kara kar zyada. Looks gud on u:)"

"muskann, i'm so glad we met through DASS—i can't imagine not having met you. from being in almost every horrible course together, you definitely made them more bearable. you're so fun to talk to and hang out with. i won't miss you because i'll probably see you every day and spend even more time together than we did in college <3"

- Anuhyaa Nallapati

"muskaan, thanks for letting me (and the rest of us) practically live in your room half the time. although, now i feel it wasn't enough time. tbf any amount of time will never be enough. i love your humour and i love your ability to lighten the mood in any situation, no matter how bad. i wish you all the best things in life. hoping that i still see a lot of you no matter where you are."

- Anushka Jain

"muskaan you are so cool and funny. i wish we spent more time together. but whatever we did it was always way too fun. fun run was sooo good and even eras tour. The evening walks, the morning after breakfast walks, gossip in my room, and of course the things that we did in the room ... everything holds a special place in my heart. You are the person I used to come to if my mood was not right because I knew that you understood me and could relate to me. Even the internship period was pretty fun and

When you told about your college life in Vansh's room, I could see you have that bakchodiness and that good friend in you but bhai tu harami bhi hai, patani teri vahaj se vansh ke room me kya kya dekha tha bhai. Anyways, milte h bhai."

"Nikunj is the most disciplined person I met in college. A funny, optimistic and a chill guy, he completes all his "daily routine tasks" effectively. It was fun to argue with him over Haldiram vs Bikanerwala debate (bhai decide karle Haldiram better hai ki Bikanerwala). A true rasmalai lover by heart and the person who gives free advices to everyone, this person impressed me with his strict schedule for the day. All the best for your future bhai!"

Nobhendu Chowdhury

Bhend

Q: First day on campus?

A: I was quarantined for the first three days. Those days were fun; we played Mafia in the corridors. Then, after shifting to my Bakul room, I went for a walk around campus, excited to explore. However, I got lost near VC and had to ask a senior for the way back. The campus seemed massive that day.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: My favourite memory (a series of memories, really) would be all the campus walks and deep discussions with my friends at 3 in the morning. I will never forget and cherish how just a few minutes with them would give enough energy to get through all the tasks for the day.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I will miss almost everything about campus. I will miss the people who made life so easy here, who were family away from home. I will miss the mess food and all the canteens. I will miss my room, however small it may be. And above all, I will miss the carefree attitude I could afford to don here.

"Bro we've been through a lot of shit together.... More than most people can imagine.... You have some real potential locked in you.... Please don't let it go waste for petty shit like we did in college.... Unleash that hidden juggernaut in you and let it go wild"

- Aadarsh Devanand

"Bhendu, I think you're the smartest person I know on campus. Even our short conversations leave me thinking. You're a great listener, which makes your advice all the more meaningful. Thanks for being a solid friend. Wishing you the most and more bhenduuu, always. <3"

- Ashwini Kulkarni

"We've known each other a while but hardly ever chat, yet it's always a good time when we actually hang out 😊. Now that course szn is done, I'm def gonna be crashing SPCRC way more - so get ready for more random hangs! Seriously, all the best for all your journeys ahead, go kill it! 🔥"

- P Harshavardhan

"Hi Nobhendu! I have known you the longest out of everyone in college and will always cherish the friendship that we have built over the years. I hope you find success in all your endeavours. All the best for the future!"

I hope you have an amazing future ahead, filled with everything you dream of. And this isn't the end let's create many more memories and share even more laughter in the days to come. u are rare and I'm holding on tight to this one"

- Thota Santhoshini

"Ayee Nobhendu :)

I think I first interacted with you properly during POEU..

It's just insane, how many things you are interested in, and the amount of effort you put into it as well. Now that you are a neighbour, and that you have delved into quantum as well 😊 I'm looking forward to more interaction.

Your fact drops and ability to make potentially boring theories seem very interesting is crazy :)"

"Hey Nobhendu!

You're probably the first name that comes to mind when I think of avid readers on campus. It's great to converse about diverse books and genres with you. You're also curious and willing to learn about different topics, which I've noticed during conversations with you. Don't let the explorer in you dim!

Stay in touch, and wish you the best in all your future endeavours!"

- K Gnaneswar

"Dear Nobhendu, from having difficulty in pronouncing your name, to being lab mates. We really have come a far way. I remember the late night card games with you, and also do remember the innumerable assignments you helped me with in 2nd year. I first knew you when you won the second place at the Megathon, and since then I have known you to be very humble. Its lovely having a friend like you. All the best buddy!!"

- Aditya Ranjan Padhi

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: The biggest, most glaring and highly grieved change on campus is the blocking of JC road. It was the shortest way to get to a good lunch right after 1 pm classes. It was also such a good place just to walk around. Now they have destroyed the buildings, and all our good memories along with that.

Q: What next?

A: Nothing fixed. I haven't been placed or interned anywhere yet, so I'm a bit disappointed and terrified that I do not have that stability in life. But at the same time, I appreciate the freedom that uncertainty brings. The freedom to do whatever I want, with little to hold me back. Overall, excited and fearful of the vast, wild world out there. Honestly, you'll have to check back in a few months for a more definitive answer, if you don't mind. (I'll have to do that as well.)

Q: First day on campus?

A: on my first day we were stuck inside the hostel because of covid restrictions, but it was still fun because we watched a cute movie (i think it was your name?) together. first time we were allowed to leave the building, we took the time to literally dress up??? to go to jc of all places T_T

Q: Best campus memory?

A: any one of the 39074902740932740938409328 times we would walk around aimlessly talking about the most insignificant shit ever. best part was the company of course <3 and the nice cold wind never hurt. someone or the other would always try (and fail) to take a pic of the gorgeous moon too.

A: aamras </3 and also being able to just walk down the hall and go annoy and talk to any of my friends. will definitely miss that the most.

Silent worker is probably the closest title I can think of for you, from whenever I saw you during my visits to meet friends at SPCRC. While we haven't had prolonged interactions that often, from the few times we did talk about work, friends and life,

I can say you're also a great conversationalist. You'll also be one of the first people I'll contact to learn about amazing places for dining and treats, so stay in touch!

Wishing you the best in all your future endeavours!"

You have come to know Hyderabad more than me in these years, so now I have to ask suggestions from you, on where to visit 😊 😊 . One quality that I appreciate about you a lot, is that you know what you want. I have not ever seen you in a dual state of mind. Its a very nice quality. Wishing you all the very best 👍 👍 ."

"Almost wrote it for Agrawal smh. I had made a lot of friends over the last 4 years, and honestly, I was always debating between 3 as to who is my best friend. Towards the end, the answer became more and more clear. You are the only friend I can share anything without worrying about judgement. All the sleepless nights (and mornings because of your dumb and never ending alarm) that we spent together, all the lame jokes and outings that we did together are memories that I will cherish forever :)." - Tanveer UI Mustafa

"Publicly, he's 'always busy.' Privately, he's achieving world records in web series consumption. He's also a financial escape artist who pays his dues in perfectly terrible dad jokes. A true enigma." - Maharnav Singh

"Cutiepie, very helpful and kind, somehow manages to finish assignments before I even used to meaningfully start 🙏." - Rushil Kaul

"Pranav is one of those person who has incredible online presence but borderline mythical in real life. He reacts to every message he sees sometimes even his own. But beyond the digital presence, he is the friend in real life I can trust the most.. from waking me up for classes, assignment deadlines reminders and to being my daily meal partner-in-crime for lunch and dinner...."

It's truly the end of an era!"
- Mayank Goel

"Pranav is the ultimate "uncle" friend-chai lover, always buried in work, and a proud YuktaHar fan (Healthy food mess for life!) loving a lot of proteins 😊. His reactions on groups are pretty famous. Despite being a CND student, science never stood a chance with him. 😂 But who needs equations when you've got his warmth, humor, and endless hustle? A true gem!"

He is capable of talking, theorizing, analyzing, yapping hours about the most random things. And I love that about him. He is a good friend (perhaps more? probably one of my best friends) and does care. So a combination of Chaos + Order that is part of multiple core memories of me. Love you bro.

Also guys, DO NOT HEAR HIM OUT when he asks you to xD"

"Pranav is a true bro. Whether it be "high" times or low times, he has been there for me throughout college. Whether it be me drinking Tang in his room when down or whether it was us cussing at college after getting drunk in Pondicherry. Pranav has been there for all my cherished memories in college. Q: First day on campus?

A: When I first arrived, I was a bit nervous about what was next as I also arrived a day later than everyone else. Still, as soon as I arrived, I was allotted Room no. 456, where I met Divij, my quarantine roommate, who I had already known beforehand. From then on, things started to build gradually.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Some of my best campus memories are walking to mess with my friends, having fun-filled discussions, late-night talks, celebrating birthdays of my most cherished friends and teasing some of my closest friends while in college.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Some things I'll miss the most is the friendship bond I formed with all of my friends in IIIT. I would really miss them in my future since some of my best memories were made here in this college.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: The friend circle I formed while in IIIT was the biggest change since first year.

Q: What next?

A: I'll look forward to focusing on my job now, while still being in touch with the friends I made in college time.

"Pranav is the definition of dedication—somehow working "25 hours a day" – Have some fun in life bro! Q: First day on campus?

A: 21 March, 2022.

Had to spend a few days in quarantine :)

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Ranting before exams with friends, pretending to study but actually planning post-exam dinner – with chai, overthinking, and zero notes.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Those planned and unplanned chill talks that began with study plans and ended with life gyaan, laughter, and endless leg-pulling

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: From lost fresher to last-minute saviour – older, wiser, and surrounded by friends.

Q: What next?

A: Making more memories, chasing bigger dreams, learning new lessons, and keeping the old bonds alive – with a cup of chai in hand, always.

Pronoy, I hope to keep in touch with you for rest of my life, hope you do too!"

Q: First day on campus?

A: My first day was so emotional. I still remember my parents dropping me off and how I broke down in tears right after partly because it was my first time away from home, but mostly because we were immediately quarantined due to COVID. It was a strange and quiet start to college life I'll never forget

Q: Best campus memory?

A: One of my favorite memories has to be my birthday celebration. My friends went out of their way to make it special – with surprises, decorations, and cake at midnight. The joy of being celebrated like family, far from home, made that day unforgettable.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Mess biryani. That, and my amazing friends – especially the late-night hostel gossips, impromptu hangouts, and the laughter that echoed in our corridors. It's the little things, the familiar chaos, and the comfort of that life I'll miss the most.

Always keep your chin up, believe in yourself, and I know you'll go on to achieve so much more–truly wonderful things–in life.
Please do keep in touch!"

"Ramandeep,
One of the most chilled-out and good guys I've met always ready to help, always spreading good vibes. A lot of memories are there. Being your roommate was good and it was more short of an adventure 😊 😂 😅.
Apart from this, you are really a good friend. Always keep that vibe with you. All the best for everything. Wishing you an amazing year ahead.

– Shivam Tiwari

"Hey Ramandeep, you're such a kind-hearted person, really glad to know you! Those funny moments in PNS class lol, we'll never forget those! Thanks for all the laughs and good times. Wishing you all the best for your future. Keep being awesome!"

– Thota Santhoshini

"You're such a unique person, every time I came across you there was something new to discover. I really enjoyed our random conversations and your spontaneous plans, they always made things fun. Loved your confidence and definitely had a great time in the outings, and especially on the Nanded trip. Best of luck in everything life has in store for you! Keep in touch!"

– Soham G Korade

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: A lot changed, especially after I faced some academic setbacks.

Learning to manage my workload, balancing priorities, and becoming emotionally stronger was tough but necessary. I've grown more mature and self-aware, and I've learned how to bounce back when things go wrong.

Q: What next?

A: I'm joining Chubb Business as a Software Engineer – excited and a little nervous, but ready to take on this new chapter. College gave me memories, lessons, and resilience. Now, I'm stepping into the real world with gratitude and hope.

Rayaan Khan

Ramyaan

Q: First day on campus?

A: Well met my first friend Aakrit whom I spent the rest of the college with and met weird twins who tried to scare me idk how though but became some of the craziest part of my life.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Free Fire at Akhil's room, Rain walk at night, speedboat in Hussain Sagar with some amazing peeps

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I will miss the late night scooty ride with my friend(s) and the walks with my JC Family.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Learnt a lot how to deal with life and how friends can help you cope up with it.

Q: What next?

A: Let's see...

"Rayaan! Pehle to mera mazaak udaana band karde kabhi xD. But you're a very jovial person who always makes our dance practices entertaining and fun. It's always fun dancing with you from tdc events to outreach to batch dances! Love your sarcasm lol!"

- Roja Lakshmi Sahoo

"One of the best dancers in the batch.... Grace mein karna koi terese seekhe.... Would miss seeing you dance.... I wish you all the best for your future and I hope you get everything you need...."

- Obbineni Sai Nikhita

"Yo Rayaan – easily the best boy dancer on campus! You've got such a calm, chill vibe, and honestly, that's one of your best traits. Always so fun to talk to, and you're an amazing listener too. I've loved all our deep conversations – they've been the best. Wishing you all the success and good vibes ahead – stay awesome!"

- Vrinda Agarwal

"Rayuu I wish we had more time, more memories like the ones we finally made last sem, since 2nd year, it should've been this way. Now who will I teach lessons during walks and who'll I rant to with my endless bhak bhak and who'll patiently listen.. then roast me right after? or trust more than I even trust myself? You became that person. I'll miss you so much, truly I wish you stayed longer. Love you always..."

"Ever-smiling rizzler, Vayu juniors ka favourite, dosti ki misaal, my OG song buddy, and just an innocent sweet personality. Keep dancing, and never lose your spark."

- Shambhavi Jahagirdar

"Hi Rayaan, what a great dancer! I had a lot of fun practicing and performing with you whether during Felicity or Navrang, as well as discussing so many web series xD. You've a very fun and chill vibe. All the best for everything ahead, keep dancing, and yes we'll definitely explore Pune :)"

- Vanshita

"Khan Sahaab, an amazing dancer, and an even more amazing friend. I truly enjoy irritating you the most. Your taunts are the only ones I do not take seriously. Hope you earn a lot so that you can buy all the cars that you want :) Keep dancing. All the best for all your future endeavours...."

roaming in DLF, to sting shots and watching tumbbad at your home.

Singing chiru chiru and celebrating my birthday on your terrace are just few of things that come to mind among the thousands of other amazing times we had. We will keep meeting in the same way. Rooms can change but what we do wouldnt."

Q: First day on campus?

A: Came to campus with Bharat and Arnav. Met with the punjabis - vinkesh and my dear khushi. Those were the covid times so precautionary measures were there. It was fun and a feeling of entering a new world

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Searched for lost Kabir shamlani after the Felicity buzz and found him drunk sitting in bushes behind the football ground all covered in twigs and durt. His iphone was destroyed too.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Its the people - always.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: My hair. I had to cut my long hair and since then they have been short. Miss the lore :(

Q: What next?

A: Plans are to join the corporate. Will decide the future based on advancements in the tech, specifically AI world. The world is too uncertain right now to fix onto anything.

Q: First day on campus?

A: Ek kaala suar room mein ghus aaya kyoki samne he room tha uska bhi. Playing cards with Lathar, Suar(Sarthak) and Krishna.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Doing anything that was illegal or breaking any college rule.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: The freedom of roaming around college and meeting friends anytime. Going to their rooms without any plan, playing games, talking for hours(sarthak ke sath baat karte karte subha hojati thi), and making random plans. That fun, that bond.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Since first year, I've become a lot more confident and responsible. Also, I've lost 15kg since first year. In my first year, I was more fun-loving, full of jokes, and made friends super easily. I could mix with anyone without thinking much. Now I've become a bit reserved. I don't make friends that easily, and that humour, that charm - vo thoda kam ho gaya hai. But I guess that's part of growing up too.

Q: What next?

A: Abhi ek or saal bacha hh mera.

Q: First day on campus?

A: When we came for our initial 3 day isolation, I didn't know most of our batch well thanks to the disconnect caused by the online sem. Initially, getting to know so many people so fast felt a bit overwhelming but soon after, all of us had so much fun doing random crap during isolation :D

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Recurring trips to DLF or canteens before they close, to stock up snacks or food for all nighters

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Regular mango shakes at JC when they are in season. Also TVRQC, the one club I joined

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: The hair?

Q: What next?

A: For now, it's work. Over a longer period of time I'd also like to figure out my niche further and find something that excites me.

"Komedy king. Cares about his friends."

- Pranav Agarwal

"When I first met you in 7th grade, I certainly didn't expect that we'd end up together in the same college. I love that TVRQC gave us the chance to pursue our common hobby together, and I admire your enthusiasm to keep the ship running even when you didn't have sufficient support. I hope we get more opportunities to organize/take part in quizzes together (and i wish i IDed arshad nadeem sooner :\) also pls stop jinxing sports matches :)"

- Kapil Rajesh Kavitha

"The most handsome, nice, thoughtful, and responsible girls have missed out on being in a relationship with, I know of.

A very nice human alarm.

Tries his hardest to work his way through situations and helps anyone unconditionally without a second thought. I don't think he ever said no when asked for help, and I relied on him way too much, probably never will meet someone like him.

The jokes and existential discussion about the future and current should be enscribed in stone"

- Sreenivas Bhumireddy Papireddy

"When you need some subtle humour or some quality quizzing, you Better Call Kaul!"

- Druhan Rajiv Shah

"the true jinx king! i've had so much...

... fun discussing cricket with you. you're super sweet and really fun <3"

- Shashwat Dash

"Really glad that towards the end of our undergraduate years, I found a new and really cool friend. Still boggles me how I've never seen him even remotely pissed off, whether it's on the football pitch or the most hostile situation on earth (IHS paper showings). Will miss all the cerebral and timely jokes he used to crack (or not, if we can meet again in college given he's in Hyd, which I hope we can and will :))"

- Tanveer Ul Mustafa

"Best dasa student I met, definitely suck at football, cricket and almost everything but ethics and geospatial courses. Good sense of humor and great friend for sure.

Do remember

Csk >> dc"

- Utsav Shekhar

"From Goa to Sikkim, had 2 amazing trips with this guy. Bro is the chilliest dude i have ever met in college and isko dekh ke kabhi lagta bhi nahi tha ki ye sala DASA hai. Guy used to be our ATM machine in all trips and always had a front little pouch hanging to his waist everytime we went out. Where are we going next ?"

"LUCKY KAUL!! seriously though, one of the most level-headed takes on cricket enthusiasts. just stop jinxing my team every time 🤪 and of course a great quizzier and tvrqc co-ord (especially for letting me participate 😊). always laughing. I don't think I've ever seen you get angry with anyone and that's pretty impressive. I wish you all the best for your future and hopefully we will meet in the wild :)"

- Aryan Ashok Chandramania

"You're a very unique character in college, always culturally active though hidden among the ones in the limelight. Keep up the singing man, you have an amazing voice! Loved performing with you in Octave both years, was pretty cool when we won the trophy. See you soon in the near future!"

- Sarthak Chittawar

"a fking engine man! loved playing with you, tere saath bhi ek turf ka plan banayenge, bas aa jaiyo mana mat kariyo :) football sessions felt better with you bhai, always a very fun guy to be around, all the very best aage bhai, see you"

- Mayank Jaiprakash Shivhare

"He brags about being a DASA student (international), conveniently ignoring that our monthly expenses are way lower than his. Claims to be a global champ in nearly every sport. Puts minimal effort into personal hygiene, barely brushing his teeth or bathing. Crams all his slides the night before, struggling with us to...

... memorize everything. Boasts about his world tours. Always wears earphones with no music playing—still clueless about it after four years."

- Sunkari Sai Satvik

"Finally I will be free of your marking on the left wing. Man has decent footballing skills, insane goalkeeper, a pretty chill guy, always in on the joke and one of the og of the Casual Strikers.

All the best bruv."

Q: First day on campus?

A: Day One :) I entered the Campus at 2 am. Some 10-11 people came running for me at the main gate. Those faces I saw only in photos before that. It feels good when I remember that moment, but soon I have to go to Parijat for quarantine because I don't have a COVID-19 negative certificate.

"#MessPortal Tiwari is the friend who frequently called for mess or temple visits. We did many assignments together—he'd start on day 1 but always said, "Abhi preprocessing kar raha..."

...a hu" 😊. Never got angry, even when we teased him. We planned lots of trips (some even happened!). Religious, foodie 🍔, and great at reminding others—just not himself 😂. Easily the most-called person in my call log during college days!"

- Rohan Rathee

"Ultimate friendly person, both online when we first met and offline. Had fun exploring the city and going on random trips together. You're literally on my speed dial for walking to the mess or just about anywhere on or off campus. It's been great seeing you become more physically active later in college, keep that up! Keep playing chess, and all the best for your future. See you soon in blr! Hope we stay the same in the new city."

"Best roomie and brotha I could have gotten! We ended up being roomies for like 4 years and have constantly done the most random harkatein in our room ALL the time (never bored in 552 huh). I have literally learnt so much from you and discussed (debated :p) so much stuff too. Thank you for introducing me to good music (esp Porcupine Tree). Most of the stuff I listen to atm is stuff you introduced me to.

Do everything you want to do, dont listen to others' expectations and sleep schedule thoda.."

"Mr S. Sinha, what do I even say? You, sir, are one of the smartest and genuine people I have ever met. Thank you for all the laughs, fun times, swiggy ordering, rebuking for ordering Wendy's, getting weirded out by me. People like you are hard to come by. You are somehow the most diplomatic and yet unhinged behind the scenes. Thank you for all the knowledge that you've imparted.

And thanks for completing AoT. Lemme know if you ever rewatch or start another anime. mtrh always.

Q: First day on campus?

A: We had to quarantine so couldn't meet anyone initially (and I got to figure out I was lactose intolerant :-)). Then I think sometime later Kriti and other people came so I sneaked into the 2nd floor and then the thing I always said about Kriti not being able to recognize me came true lmao

Q: Best campus memory?

A: There are too many amazing memories honestly. I really enjoyed summer of 2023 where we used to just goof around in the workspace, playing video games and singing our hearts out. Oh and also Parijat nights when we all were able to get together were very fun <3 Finally I think just being in lab

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I think what I will miss is always having someone to go to and hang out with whenever I wanted to. I really enjoyed being surrounded by my friends. I will really miss those random strolls through campus just talking for hours. I will also miss those shitty gym machines which made you fear your life

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I am a completely different person with I think barely any similarities with first year Srijita. Like I honestly believe college changed me in ways I never imagined I would change. I think it has made me a way more calm person, also made me master the art of doing things last minute (this was written at 11:50 pm) and just taught me the importance of having fun and being surrounded by fun people :D

Works hard, never shows his efforts, never flaunts a humble saint

Tanveer UI Mustafa Manveer

Q: First day on campus?

A: It was Covid times, late in the night. Came to the campus with my dad and was super sceptical at first, but the hostel and campus grew on me pretty quickly.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Winning the Inter-House football tournament as a first year.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Ma Homies :-;

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I'm significantly less socially awkward now :D

Q: What next?

A: Still got a year left, gonna rock it and the years ahead as well InshaAllah.

"Tanveer's the kind of friend everyone needs—always up for random plans, late-night chilling, or impromptu cycling trips that somehow turn into adventures. Dependable, fun, and always in for the vibe. Grateful for all the spontaneous memories, bhai!"

– Harshit Aggarwal

"hi tanveer!
you're so smart + super hardworking + very cool! it's truly inspiring :D from pool to bowling to football (only on ground for now, but I demand turf soon) to many many courses and projects together, we were up to some pretty cool stuff on campus! so glad we have another year to do all of it and more, and hopefully many more!

I feel so proud to call you my friend

keep on rocking!"

– Nanda Rajiv

"Best food advisor, second best roommate. One of the most caring and empathic people I've ever met. Makes the worst (best?) PJs. It's kind of genius how he stays fresh and clean without letting laundry get in the way—like, who knew a pile of clothes could be both wardrobe and interior décor?"

"A football legend running on 1% battery, then claims he's too full to eat more than a crumb. He's all about the high scores in gaming, but when it comes to love, he's strictly 'single-player mode'."

"Tanveer is a one-of-a-kind specimen—wants a girlfriend but won't ever try! A Gujarati who doesn't speak Gujarati or eat sweets. Pool king who helped me level up my game (and win way more). We met as quarantine roommates and have been friends since. Famous for his deadly sliding tackles—both on and off the field! 🏈 #Legend"

– Bhav Beri

"Tanveer is the most polite guy I've ever met – so polite, that I'm still not sure he's physically capable of shouting at anyone. Also, unlike most boys he actually bathes everyday. Unfortunately, that level of hygiene never quite made it to his room. I'm pretty sure there are a few pieces of clothes and chip wrapper that were never displaced in 2 years. Q: First day on campus?

A: Scammed my covid report to get into bakul nivas (regret it now). Met many friendly people. Was scared if I could make friends (sigh of relief...). One thing I learnt over the years is that no matter the place, if you be your true self, you will converge to your perfect friend group :)

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Our group of 6 friends came from DLF and so did a storm, lights went out, trees fell, no other living soul in sight, paranormal activities, iykyk...

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Biryani (the food + the experience). Period.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Started cursing (non-negotiable given the friend group)

Q: What next?

A: Will be in touch.

"Tejas is a mf but everyone thinks he is sweet. He is not the type of guy that would throw water on someone from above while they're on call."

– Ashutosh Srivastava

"Finally, I won't be able to man mark you when playing football, at least for now :("

Very chill guy, will miss reacting with thumbs down on your football reminder messages :D"

"Tejas is great at first glance and gets progressively worse with every glance thereafter. This mf will fuck with you for absolutely no reason and act all innocent."

"Best f-cking roommate ever. It was only sheer luck that we became roommates, and I have never liked my fortune more. Sleeps a lot (most geniuses do). Eats a lot too. Has the memory of a squirrel. Biggest FIR & TMKOC fan(Finally! Someone!). Could never figure how someone could have such good taste in humour but be so unfunny at the same time. Sweet AF too tho! Couldn't have asked for anything more from a dear friend and a roommate (Could've been funnier tho!)."

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Too many to count tbh. Will defo remember entire CND teaming up for CiS assignments, prog club rushing all events and slides, and all of us in Goa:)

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

"Ujjwal ji, kya hee bole hum. What a journey it has been. I will miss bitching about CND together lmao. We have had so much in common. Our interests, we both got into CND, both went for Prog club, wanted nothing to do with Science, and only CS. We have had our ups and downs, but lekin in the end we had a blast! Make sure you complete AoT btw XD. And thoda brain rot kum karo :sob: But yes, hope to see you succeed in all your endeavours. Abhi toh ek aakhri baar CND see nikalna baki hain XD."

"UwUjal, you're one of the most brilliant people I know—an insanely smart programmer and a super hard worker. Watching your growth has been truly inspiring. You really pushed me during the intern drive and even beyond, especially when I was ready to give up, and I'll always be grateful for that. One day, I'm sure I'll read something like, "Bihari Creates AI That Automates OS Development," haha. Wishing you all the best—stay in touch, uwu :)"

Q: First day on campus?

A: Well, the first day on campus was a bit chaotic. Came to Hyderabad with my father, the utter crowd at the Secunderabad, and then the sudden transition in the views from Old Hyderabad to Gachibowli kept me in awe. It gave a glimpse of what kind of world I was entering.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: There is not one but many campus memories. The catch-up with the friends at 12'o o'clock, the sudden dance at Arpit's room, playing cards, watching a cricket match in the SPCRC rooms, there are so many. Getting placed is one of the core memories, but the casual moments stand out.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: The chit chat with "Dubey Dilwale" at the end of the day at Raj bhaiya's shop.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Acceptance. I have learnt to accept things without attaching much emotion to them. Many failures and setbacks forced this learning but it was worth the pain and the journey

Q: First day on campus?

A: I came to the campus during the covid period and we had to quarantine for a few days. We were only allowed to be in 1st floor wing. Got to the assigned room and unpacked and connected the LAN. After the quarantine period was over, I went around the campus and ate rubber bhindi in Kadamb for dinner.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Did not read the mail which was sent the morning of the Science endsem that the exam was 2 hrs instead of the usual 3. Woke up, gave the exam at 9 am and realised it later and was very scared. Got more than average marks and did well which tremendously boosted my confidence.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: The evening cricket matches will always be special. We would forget about our phones, our worries and play till sundown which would energise us to face the rest of the day. Who knew that what started as a way to get an alternate to sports credits would become such a beloved part of my campus life?

"My sweet Yash Prashant Adivarekar. I've gotten super close to him for all the wrong reasons. I suppose it all started when we locked eyes in Bakul's hallway and immediately conducted double aggravated assaults on Swayam. That and other reasons to lock eyes in a Bakul hallway (*Winks). At the expense of sounding super generic, I must confess that he is one of the most wholesome individuals at IIIT and that he can possibly charm his way anywhere with his amazing persona. I'll miss you!!"

Bro has knowledge regarding even the most niche thing ever in all domains ("ghoomta firta reddit"). He is quite understanding and can always be relied on. I will fondly miss the times where we used to play cricket almost everyday in the final year and the time we spent roaming around in Bombay (I still want to go to the Oberoi mall pizza place 😊). GLHF :)"

Q: Biggest change since first year?
A: When I first came to campus, I was very anxious regarding campus life because I had lived all my life in the same city and with my family. I was also under-confident and used to question myself too much before doing anything. Having spent some of the best years of my life and facing the ups and downs I am much more confident in my own capabilities, with a friend group that is super fun and supportive and am not anxious anymore about new experiences.

Q: What next?
A: Research paper is in the pipeline. Will try to apply for Masters. Will always be looking out for new & interesting topics to immerse myself into. I will be starting my corporate journey but I don't imagine myself ending up doing that for all my life. Will keep doing side projects which I am really interested in. Hopefully one of the side project is so interesting that it takes up most of my time and ends up being a startup. I also want to become more healthy. Also a yacht does not sound too bad.

Q: First day on campus?

A: Was on the 4th floor completing lockdown. Still managed to play corridor cricket and gave my first intro to the UG4s.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Ohhh.. have lots of them! From randomly heading to Ananthagiri at 3 AM, to long night walks with friends, chilling in Room 305, THUB 7th floor, exploring the most random places, and those scooty rides... But the best has to be the moment we officially formed our group – #JCWaale.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Mere dil ke North aur South :D

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Learned how friends can truly change your life – and help you cope with anything.

Q: What next?

A: Whatever life has to offer!

"One of the craziest person I have met. Bakchodi koi tere se seekhein karna. The dances, assignments, projects, late night deadlines, tera cursor, your relationships, your famous chiji, sab dekha, bade maze aaye. Koi bhi dikkat ho to phone kardena, subah SBI se paise ke liye utha dena. I will miss that a lot. Koini ek din Kabir Singh jaisa ban jaega itti tension na le, apni aurat ko Pril ka pouch deke aaiyo."

– Rayaan Khan

"Hi Batak, I still have your number saved as Batak Shivhare. Anyways, you are one of the most caring and understanding people I've met. Mature yet have a childlike heart.

All your double meaning jokes, I somehow understand in an instant. We've had some really good memories together too. Anything I do, love the way you always cheer me up so much. It gives me so much more confidence. Keep smiling and keep bringing smiles to everyone around you. Hope you have a fantastic future. All the best brother!"

– Shambhavi Jahagirdar

"Yashhhhhh, my city twin! I still remember how excited I was when I found out you're from the same city – felt like an instant connection. From OSN assignments to being RSAI and history teammates, our college journey has been filled with so many great moments. Doing coursework with you was actually fun (who would've thought?). I'll always cherish our deep, long conversations – they meant a lot. Stay awesome and keep in touch! ✨."

Q: First day on campus?

A: The day kicked off with parents dropping me off in the campus, met my room-mate and other friends with whom I had interacted online, also got scolding from the guard for gathering a lot of people in the room due to covid scare lol. But yeah it was mainly interacting with batchmates on day-1.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Long campus walks with friends, discussing about a variety of topics from life issues to gossiping. And yeah the amazing group of friends I got from the campus will be the most memorable thing for me.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I'll miss the late night hangout's, roaming the campus and the post assignment submission bakchodi and ranting. Nothing beats a set of friends sitting in a room and talking bs for 3 hours straight.

"I'm not even sure where I could begin. I think I've spent more time with him than my other super-close friends combined. There's so much that I couldn't fit here and even more that should never see daylight.

So, I suppose I'll leave a cryptic message with random terms – sweet big man, frickin amazing story teller, high-minded individual, PYQs finder, omg he's so tall, and a few "short"-comings."

- Vineeth Bhat

"Heyyy Mitanshh,

Okay let me tell you – you are honestly the most knowledgeable and humble person combo I've ever met. So full of gyaan, yet so down to earth – I absolutely respect that.

Even though the TAship was probably the weirdest one I could've chosen, you made it super easy. The best moments were definitely during the DS TAship – that's when we actually started talking, and it was amazing working with you!

Bangalore mein mast catch-up

Meet you soooon in BLR....."

"Sabse banger ICPC teammate :p
loved the absolute unhinged nonsense we would do even during the online round (annoying Prakul>>).

You are super competent and the most chilled out positive person ever. Will lowkey miss the MMiB grind and rants; continue working hard, doing well and retain your optimism and enthusiasm towards...

... everything:)

We are defo going Kapoor's cafe again very soon :0"

Apna kuchh khas connect hai yar.
Mehnat to kafi log karte hai bhai,

Thanks for never being judgemental towards me.

Take care, brother."

"Best person to meet in group 5.... Some how sab log Terekko kassi maanke chalte hain but I saw your masti vaala side also.... Hamare video calls courses ke baare mein discussions cricket ke bhi kabhi kabhi will miss those.... I wish you all the best for your future and I wish you get everything you need..."

"Bhai iss saal toh Ferrari nahi jeetega. Very nice person, loved discussing F1 with you, hanging out when I was still in Bakul, all the stupid stuff you used to do, all the Mumbai meetups. Don't change man, atb for whatever you pursue – you're definitely gonna kill it.

Keep in touch!"
– Rohan Girish

"Mitaaaanshhhhh 😊 😊 Literally a gentle giant. I'm surprised that so few people actually know who you are as a person. To quote Vander from Arcane (great show btw), "You've got a good heart. Don't ever lose it, no matter how the world tries to break you." Such a hardworking guy who's got his priorities straight. I'm still...

Q: Biggest change since first year?
A: I think I have matured a lot since first year, I used to be really competitive and insecure but now I've become much more calmer and have my priorities really straight. I have started worrying less about what people will think of me and have started to accept that things happen for a certain reason, that there is no use worrying about the future or crying over the past about what could have been different.

Q: What next?

A: Starting a new career in tech and hoping to create impact from the work I do. Apart from this, looking to make more friends along the way, stay in touch with the current ones and yes roam a lot of places (in and out of India).

... in awe at your honours decision and how you worked hard to make it worth the risk. Hope to achieve your leve of work-life balance. Keep racking those

Ws. Will miss you a lot 😊"

"You've always been so helpful and smart! Never thought we'd bond this much, but Goa trip with you was too much fun seriously so many fun memories! From all the random fights about planning the trip to having so much fun on beach -so many good memories! Also can't forgot Rakhi celebration, now I guess I have to send you a rakhi every year haha. So glad we became friends, stay the same, be in touch and keep doing great things!

"Hi Mitansh,

You are a very special friend. You are really supportive and motivating friend. I will always remember the help in assignments, previous year endsems which you shared. The most kassi and focused person I have ever seen. Loved spending time with you. Also, a fan of your high network from where you extract information.

Will miss the fun with you in hostels.

Stay happy and keep in touch,

"While the campus is filled with smart and creative minds, when push comes to shove, very few prove to be truly reliable. Mitansh stands out in this regard. I've seen him effortlessly thrive in leadership roles—whether in course projects or as a TA. You can count on him to be anti-fragile when it matters most, and that's what I admire most about him. He's also a great person to talk to—a perfect mix of no-nonsense and brainrot. Loved our time in SE + a special mention for your contributions in DS"

Over the past few years, you have grown so much as a person in so many ways, and it was very cool to see. I want to be the first person to know when you find your special someone. Hope to keep meeting throughout the years, and to see you kassi less after graduating :)"

- Keval Jain

"Mitansh bhai, you were unarguably one of the most hardworking and ambitious people I met in college. Still remember you dancing in our room after the historic IND-PAK T20I win. From temple visits to fun mess convos - all were memorable. Being our DS TA made life tougher 😅 but rewarding too. Thanks for all your help 🙏. Stay the same and definitely stay in touch,

"One of the first real friends i've had in college. I want to write so much but at the same time I can't because I can't express in words how much you mean to me. I'm so sure you're going to be one of those friends that I still regularly talk to after college and whose kids will call me aunty or something cringe like that."

- Sanika Sachin Damle

"won't be mean cos i do enough of that irl. udk how much ur friendship has meant to me especially this year. i cant explain the weird things music makes me feel to anyone but u. our trips fill many of the holes this shitty college inherently creates. sometimes i just observe n admire in awe how effortlessly u always navigate through everything from accads to activities to research under pressure. im v glad ull be there in 5th year. u mean a lot to me & ty for being so nice it really means a lot :("

- Arghya Roy

"Hi Nanda, I met you the first time when you were silently playing GOAT on stage on your acoustic and I was like woahhhh, that's goat. Since then I've seen you as an amazing guitar player, you make playing guitar so enjoyable on stage. Orgo may be the funny one but your the observer that makes it funny XD. You are a lovely friend, I'm so glad you're sticking around for another year, please stop hitting me (jk, I don't even...)

... feel it :))"

it's been been 4 years from the start of the college till date and everything we did in between from anti-ditch gang to octave practices to night rides to apex, it was always super fun. to more such memories 🌟.

hopefully I'll be able to convince you that mountains are more fun some day.

"Nanda is a kind of person who fits in any group and makes it better. She always radiates positivity and joy (except for the times she is sleep deprived, dear god stay away from her during those times). Had a great time in all outings that we did, playing football, burnout paradise, bowling (on second thought, not bowling). Hopefully we will be able to complete the list of activities we have decided on before graduating, which is a tough deadline cuz I'm sure she is going to break HSRC's records."

And yes it's not ending any time soon, lettuce and brainrot go hard u will not be able to stop laughing. Keep being awesome and lame, and also keep dreaming - Vijayanagar >>>>>>"

"Best music taste i've seen in a person! You're the perfect example of an all-rounder with a very sweet voice, great guitarist and tennis player too. I've loved performing with you in Spotlight, Meltdown and Unplugged, we've pulled off some good ones, and I hope we can perform together more for one last year. I love your high energy in everything like the early morning cycling we did one day. Goa was super fun too!

Keep cracking your stupid jokes it'll hopefully make us laugh one day lmao.

"nandoz, amazing guitarist but on the vocals side, won't forget that hysterical (chandramukhi) laughter you have - impeccable, honestly should've done it at the hidden castle tunnel, people would've lost their shit, had so much fun in Goa - the candy cigs at the airport 😊, and will miss doing the sigma boy move without me whistling (obv better than anyone else), we still have to do that proper chugging contest ukwim we need to hit nandos plan b in blr"

- Raghav Donakanti

"Nandaaaa!!! You're insanely talented, and nice and funny (innum yen level varala aana); I'm glad that we got to hang out the past year and hope to continue! Goa was extremely fun and lets do more of those! lets play more tennis and maybe you might have a chance at beating me fr; Have fun at your internship and dont kassi too much!"

- Ajit S

"Your basketball game is still a bit awkward (especially that kick when you shoot! 😊), but it's definitely improving! We've got a year to fix it, so let's get to work on that form. And yeah, your love for curd and addiction to ORS is a lil much. Don't listen to the haters, ur jokes are very funny. It was great getting to know u over the last year. All the best for everything, keep rocking!"

- P Marshavardhan

"This woman makes the most astoundingly lame jokes all the time and has the audacity to congratulate herself for it. But, I laugh at the secretly (guess I too am lame, huh). This being said, she's the most upbeat person I count among my friends and can bring a sort of uplifting energy to any, however brief, conversation. She's super fun to be around (not because of the jokes; note - herself not included) and I hope... Yada, Yada, she's not getting more effort out of me for writing a testimonial."

lets recreate Koi Koi sometime. Koi Koi"

- Chekkapalli Naveen

"The second I walked out of 228, all the memories came rushing back—when we first moved into 218. We've been through a lot: grinding CLD courses throughout the night, random jokes about Balu, we wantedly...

... went into quarantine in 1-2 because we wanted breakfast, grinding sci-1/sci-2 all-night, doing course-projects, discussing random

spiritual/philosophical shit, random research-ideas / judging people / CSAI-seminar XD—the list goes on. Best roommate and projectmate ever. Love
You! (No more space)"

"Pattu, I'm glad we got as close as we are right now ra. Us balling together, randomly jamming, laughing at all the cute, weird things marri does is very fun. Im just glad we have another year to hangout together and have fun. Love you ra"

- Aniketh Atmakuri

"How my impression on you has changed over that past years, from 'shrek' to the poem about our 'eternal beauty'. Thanks for bearing me coming to hangout and calling you pretty much all the time. An honour to witness Le'Pattu. From watching movies in that room, studying for useless exams to falling asleep. Your room was THE hangout spot. Mostly because of you (and Malladi :). Really got some unforgettable memories and i'll always keep dishing out relationship advice for better or for worse. <3"

"First and probably the only George Russell (Daniel Ricciardo 2.0) fan I'll ever meet in my life. We only became good friends after Sem 4, thanks to Fl. Still waiting on the "Fl Telugu Yuvatha" go-karting that never happened. Also, Ben Stokes gadiki antha scene ledu, he's just an older version of NKR. Will miss the arguments that we had in multiple groups (hope they continue). Very friendly guy and very easy to approach. Never change"

The way you play under pressure is amazing, and batting with you a couple of times for some match saving partnerships are one some of my favourite memories from college. Off the field too you are one of the nicest, friendliest people I know, and all the pizza zone sessions are among the highlights of my college life. "Mr achar. gyan pehne me 30 years experience. Banterer no.1. Man has bipolar opinions that change every minute. Heavy duty sleeper and orders from swiggy/zomato as if he has stocks in them. Does the most weird stuff which makes no sense (and has a perfectly logical explanation for them). Rich af (apple-paglu and buys games from steam). Best hindi playlist. Elite tmkoc and FIR humor. Has actual rizz (unlike ashutosh Srivastava). Black."

- Tejas Srivastava

"Fresher's night dance boss. Have had so much fun with you and you are probably the funniest guy ik on campus xD OBH me bhi same hi rants krne hain ab in 5th year.

Q: First day on campus?

A: My first day on campus was nerve-racking. After high school and a semester online, the energy shift was welcome but overwhelming. Introducing myself to 280 batchmates was scary. That night, I fell asleep to the Arjun Kanungo concert outside, hopeful for the 3-4 years ahead.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: All the late nights spent cramming, coding rounds, jamming in srujana, late night JC-runs, ginger tea, David cup noodles, loitering in the labs, midnight walks with a special someone, felicity, being on stage, 5 am convos, date debriefs, gossiping with the girkies are all unforgettable memories.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I'll miss the proximity the most-familiar faces all around, random run-ins, daily updates, mess chats. The comfort, the belonging. Nights might feel lonelier, hallways a bit emptier. They say it's the people who make the place—guess they were right.

"My Roomie!! The most awesome shot taker I know, ill always remember our nights together (iykwim) :smirks:. You're too strong to be taken down by this bitchy world full of men. You are much much more deserving and inspirational than you think you are. You DESERVE the world bitchhh!! I wont say keep in touch kyuki tu idhar hi h, mere dil me :blushes:. Be less paranoid, get your ears cleaned and keep your double chin up :kisses:

Manifesting more steamy nights with you :morekisses:

Love YOUEUUU 😊 "

- Khushi

"The cutest person with the sweetest voice (Hamari Desi Billie Eilish). You're genuinely one of the sweetest souls I've met—always smiling and so adjusting. I've seen you transform from a complete pseudo-Dasa to a full-on desi girl. From late night gossip sessions to watching the cringiest reels together, every moment was chaotic in the best way. I hope you graduate soon and get everything your heart desires. You deserve all the success, love and happiness in the world. Love you poorvi aunty <3."

- Mahika Jain

"There's so much I could say, but I'll start with our endless campus walks – where we basically shared everything. We even lost weight together from all that walking (bonus haha). You were the girly girl, the romance lover, the fellow Taylor...

... Swift fan – and that's exactly why we clicked instantly. Your voice is beautiful, I could listen to you sing for hours. You read like I do, feel like I do – a true hopeless romantic with a chill vibe. Keep slaying – the world isn't ready for you! ❤️"

- Vrinda Agarwal

"All the time spend together is really forever best and memorable, tu bhut hi crazy bhand hai. You are such a good listener, u understood me each and everytime. Bhut mst tareeke se u made me understood a lot. Also tune already bhut kuch ukhada hai and I am sure age or bhi ukhadagi to pls bindas rha kr and be proud on yourself. Contact mai rehna bolne ki zroot to pdni hi nhi chahie after all the good times spend vo unconsciously hi yaad rhega.

- Mallika Garg

"You're the kindest, sweetest, most beautiful person I have ever been lucky enough to meet and yes now thanks to me you're also passably funny. I love the way you sing, and when I first saw you perform I was blown away and it's been that way ever since. Thanks for agreeing to date me and making me the luckiest guy ever (thank you tichnas!). I love you and a part of me always will. Good luck cutie, your hardwork on research will pay off. Tell your advisor to go screw himself for me"

I really hope you consider singing as one of your primary goals in life!
Apart from this talent, you really are the most friendly person I've met, the way you greet and talk with people is a thing to learn. Iske alawa hamesha saath mein gossips karte rahenge.

"poorvi, the best singer in our batch. you're a very talented person. i love how once a year, we end up having some really long deep conversation lmao. we've had the chance of being in many events together and you made a lot of them much more fun than they actually were so ty for that. band wouldn't be the same without you hard carrying the vocal front. I've been...

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: First-year me would be shocked at how much I've changed. From mindset to confidence, I've grown in ways I didn't expect. I picked up a few bad habits but overcame struggles I once thought I'd never move past. I'm less anxious, more grounded, and have truly lived the college experience. The ups and downs were real, but I made the most of it. With one year left, I hope to learn even more, grow further, and walk out proud, knowing I gave it my all.

Q: What next?

A: ನನಗೆ ಏನು, ನಾನು ಇನ್ನೊಂದು ವರ್ಷ ಇನ್ನೂ ಇಲ್ಲಿಯೇ ಇದ್ದೇನಿ...

... friendly with you for a long time now and hopefully we get to spend some solid fun time together in fifth year :))"

Q: First day on campus?

A: Well I am LEEE and my first day was filled with excitement and nervousness as to how everything is going to be and how everything will turn out. Well, now I know that it truly turned out to be a great experience.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Well there are so many of them but if I were to list a few, it was hanging around with my core friends and just enjoying ourselves after completing an overbearing assignment and getting rid of our toxic teammates lol.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I think the security the college provided in terms of comfort and freedom to make our life decisions – it can be anything, from courses to going out of campus anytime :)

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I think I have grown to be more mindful and mature of things over the years (and also learned some corporate tactics lol) !! Overall – I improved a lot and I like this version of me.

Q: What next?

A: Not decided but I hope I can make the college proud!!

"Aishani you're so bubbly and so motivated! Keep smiling and doing great work <3"
– Roja Lakshmi Sahoo

Q: First day on campus?

A: Boddu saar and I arrived at the same time and got sent to the same room. Stayed with him ever since. Adnan pulled a diabolical prank on me. Coping Crew meetup happened. Met almost everyone whom I knew from online sem too (Sai bhai 🤝 🙏)

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Probably recency bias but it has to be the unofficial award ceremony after the farewell given to us by our juniors. Very thoughtful and very lovely

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Horror film screenings in 338 (mandatory incidents of Boddu getting scared shitless by Vedi and the violence that ensued)

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Hair

Q: What next?

A: Try graduating before the new academic block gets built challenge

"Friend for a life time, closest to my soul probably. The only person who knows my truest self. Grateful that I could be part of the OG Trio. Only person who could listen my heart out for hours regarding my deepest concerns. Most selfless person who dedicated hours of his time during our Internship Drive. Also one of the most unluckiest individual among the folks , but also the brightest one. I hope life takes him to places that he always deserved to be part of. I hope I stay in touch with you."

The videography guy

Q: First day on campus?

A: Overwhelmed. Anxious, excited, but at the same time, nervous. I got to have a very quick peek at the campus, before we were sent to our quarantine rooms, since we came during the times of COVID 19. The place seemed wonderful, filled with a lot of bright minds, some of which I met on day one itself!

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Party song. Standing beside the music deck, when they played the 'Felicity Party Song' on the main screen at the stage. This video and the weeks of effort that took up the days and nights of me and my team to make it will always have a special spot in my heart.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: The gym culture. I made a huge amount of friends at the gym, and the guys who seemed the most intimidating turned out to be the sweetest. Everybody greeted each other with a big warm smile, gritty handshake and a lame joke to come along, and sadly, you don't really get that anywhere else.

"Is it really time to write this? I'm already missing you while typing these words. You've been my gym buddy, my partner in crime, my everything on campus. You accepted me exactly as I am, always making me feel seen and loved without ever asking me to change – and that's a rare kind of magic. I'm going to miss our endless campus walks, our random chats, and just the comfort of your healing presence. Gym boy, player, rizzler – you're all of that and still, most amazing, genuine person! Stay same.:)"

– Vrinda Agarwal

"you're so cool, talented, and creative!
if your videography has a 100 fans i'm one of them, if it has just 1 fan, i'm that fan, and if it has no fans, it's because I'm off insta xD seriously though, you make it seems like your day has more than 24 hours, the way you manage so many varied interests – it's really inspiring also special mention to your impeccable sense of fashion! :O

looking forward to another year with you in college, and hopefully many more to come!!
keep rocking :D"

when you were just teaching us how to make videos over discord. i remember thinking you were very sweet and so good at what you do.
look at you now making "waves" in video making. i had so much fun making felicity videos with you when you were holding hair dryers on our faces lol. you're also a great dancer. good hospital times hope we never repeat it xD"

– Mukta Chanda

"You're one of the nicest guy I've ever met! a literal walking monument of a green flag: Were really close in first year, but slowly drifted away in the middle, now in 4th year we're getting closer again, and hope we stay close. Out of the many things I adore about you, your discipline and character has always stood out, please dont change those, they are something which very few people have and I have huge respect for those; Lets keep in touch! (imma touch you)"

- Bafna Jainit Sushil

"Hi man, your work ethic is so admirable, both in terms of video making and the passion you have for improving yourself at the..."

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Mindset. Came in with a victim mentality, and did not think I would grow into somebody who would have more than 2 friends. But well,
UG2k21 had one of the best people
I've ever met, and everyone was super encouraging towards whatever I wanted to do. I'd go as far as to say that I am much closer to discovering myself after being in IIIT. Working out, dancing, filmmaking, video editing, running,
leading clubs, Felicity core team.
Didn't imagine I'd have all that on my list, but I'm super grateful.

Q: What next?

A: Self exploration. IIIT got me started into finding who I truly am.
A lot of experiences, many academic,
many non academic, but now I crave for more. I was taught perseverance and always striving for better. I wanna explore myself as much as I can, and try out all the things that make me click. And surely, my life at this college has made me capable enough to tackle whatever comes, and I've never been more ready for it.

... gym. An absolute beast and an inspiration to all. You also seemed like one of the most genuinely nice people ever, and I would have loved for us to hangout more man.."

Vrinda Agarwal

Drama Queen

Q: First day on campus?

A: The first day -ah ,we were supposed to be in quarantine, but rules were just suggestions. A bunch of us snuck out like prison escapees and ended up bonding over an intense game of UNO (yes, friendships were tested). Ironically,some of those sneaky delinquents are now my ride-or-dies –zero regrets!!

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Lohri 2025 was fire, but my birthdays? Now those were campus festivals.We had a Goa afterparty in Mahika's room – then danced around campus like unpaid background dancers in a Bollywood movie. Gym sessions and campus walks with my pookies I shall never forget :) (Spilling tea is so necessary lol)

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Campus walkssssss-my daily therapy session, GYM community lol, and gossip hour all rolled into one. Nothing hits quite like a 2 a.m. existential stroll followed by meeting up with friends at chaiwala at jc. This place somehow turned into a home away from home.

"Where do I even get started with this! The best person I met here. Been my day one, been my 24*7. Biggest support system of mine and I honestly can't appreciate you enough. Thank you for being the most amazing leader, best friend, dancer, rebel, gym girl, and kaleshi aunty (:P) I know.

You made college complete and I will never forget the infinite memories we shared during the infinite walks we had throughout these four short years."

- Sannidhya Gupta

"Best roomie ever, had the best memories with you gossiping late night in the room, watching shows together, dancing on loud music in the corridors and doing random dance sessions in the basement. You are my confidante, I can share anything with you and be the craziest version of me around you.

Love you, xoxo."

- Shambhavi Jahagirdar

"My Gossip Queen, Gossip Partner, my heart!! I miss you already so muchhhh! I've loved our time together, late-night sessions in our rooms, watching movies (mostly me recommending my favourite shows to you XD), and talking about everything under the sun. I've made so many friends because of you. Your sunny personality lightened some of the darkest days of my life, and for that, I'm truly grateful. All the best for your future!"

- Mihika Sanghi

"We started off in first year as walking buddies, walked our way through hot men, perfect date ideas and fantasies. We were so young and hopelessly in love with the idea. But I saw you grow in front of me. Went from a child out of high school to the Boss Woman you are today.

Everytime you dance, you leave me awestruck. Felicity, Goa, all the times we have gone out wouldnt have been the same without you.

We seen the good and the bad but survived them all.

Can't wait to come to your wedding <3"

- Poorvi H C

"Vrinda, u are my partner in crime for dance, gossiping. Ecell marketing, fanclubbing Sanidhya, & anything..."

Q: Biggest change since first year?
A: Honestly? My attitude towards life—and my entire personality had a software update. First-year me was all wide-eyed and "I'll attend every lecture." Current me? Running on vibes mostly and last-minute submissions. Character development? Absolutely. I would definitely win an Oscar. (I am serious ;))

Q: What next?

A: Adulting starts ;— (only one in the gang who'll be in Blr, Hiii Blr folks btw) joining Walmart to fund my cafe hopping, dance addiction. Maybe a master's if I survive corporate life. Long-term dream— A book café that serves cake and dance moves—because who needs logic when you've got vibes?

... & everything else.

U are an amazing and supportive friend. I love the way u handle everything, CC, Ecell, House & still be so cheery. I love the smile u greet me with & talks we have. And love the dance reels u make.

I shall not only miss pulling ur leg but also "Leg Press pe neeche wala level karde" in the gym. Hope u have a wonderful future, and we stay in touch, you Papadiganj nivasi :)"

"My fiend of a sister. To the best of my knowledge, she's akin to a cat - offering me support while disparaging my sanity. I still remember the day when she entered my life - I was walking by the street and she came up and asked me a very embarrassing question; fully unprompted while I was with friends. So, yes, I suppose I had to return the favour by coming up with the meanest and most creative defamations in her honour - a privilege that I will reserve all my life."

- Vineeth Bhat

"Bhrindzzzz, I am so proud of you and I admire the grace you carry around yourself. Whether it is your dance, or your walk, or your work, you always handle it with such grace and calmness. Stay like this always. Will miss seeing you around. All the best <3 <3"

"I didn't think I could make new friends in my 3rd year, but you proved that way wrong. Thank god you chose to come to CVIT, that led to one of the best friendships I had in college, and something I will keep with me for a long time. From the discussions we had in CVIT about life to the later AI discussions (Ferrari is cooked btw), it's been one amazing ride. Walmart is really lucky to have you. Please stay in touch and I hope one day you're able to open your bakery + bookstore. Good luck!"

She knows how to get stuff done and she can take control whenever the situation demands it from her! Go go steering committee!!"

You're the exact opposite of how you portray yourself. While you appear to be carefree, you're very thoughtful and intelligent. Anyone who spends time with you knows you're more than the casual jokes you make. I love the gaming sessions and group studies with you.

You are extremely thoughtful, hardworking and caring, and you would go to any extent to not let anyone down. Your friendly nature has always inspired me to be friendly like you. All the best for your job and MS :)"

One of few people who has always a smile on the face, and can genuinely be happy even in the stressed times. ... moment together we spent was worth it – be it chess, badminton, table tennis, or just work. Your dedication to help others in need is truly noble. Hope your spirit of empathy never dies! Hope to remain in touch forever <3"

– Parth Nimish Desai

"Jain guy of our group! 😊 Wishing you all the absolute best, my man. You're legit one of the top 4 chess players I've ever known 🤖 – and dw, online matches are definitely happening! Gonna miss you a LOT, bro. Those MoMOS and OM night grinds were pure chaos, but somehow we survived that madness together! 💀 Keep shining! 🔥"

– P Harshavardhan

"Hi Sanghavi saab, Pranaam aur namaskaar. Shukriya, ham jab neta banenege , tb aapko zarur btayenge. Vaise aap ek bahut hi imaan dar aur santusht insaan ho. Bhai, aise log duniya me kam he hote hain... be proud of yourself."

– Harshit Aggarwal

"Akshat :) The Life of Yuktahar!
Man, you are like an engine, once you start laughing, there is no stop to it.
Never quit that :)

You, Parth and Shreyu got me hooked to chess. It was wonderful playing with all of you, with the chess clock, in the afternoons, when JC was closed. (sadly, I don't recollect winning a game).
Hmm.. you ditched heavily choosing CVIT over CQST, but I forgive you for it."

– S Sreyas

"broo, I remember our class talks, Codeforces, debugging, and many more things we have done..."

... together.

You are a very friendly and joyful person. I have always seen you smiling. Be like this forever and stay connected!"

– Yatharth Gupta

"Everytime I'm about to kill a mosquito I remember this man and stop myself. I'm still unable to comprehend how he was able to imprint this change in a trait that comes so naturally to humans. Anyways, absolute madlad for being such an ardent Yuktahar goer, day in, day out. Good luck with your MS dude and good luck finding food that you can eat there."

– Punnavajhala Gnana Prakash

"Sanghvi sir – Apne OG CVITian, it was lovely interacting with you in college. I'll remember our meetups on Research Street and our bluff sessions near THub.

You are really nice at heart and are really hardworking. Stay the way you are bhai! Let's stay in touch and meet soon :)"

– Mitansh Kayathwal

"One of the sweetest and dedicated guys I know, always humble and ready to help you out. An absolute monster in chess. I managed to squeeze in handful wins against you (29-4 H2H), but apart from that you always used to just casually beat me 🤪. Will miss trying to save positions against you. Stay connected! Good luck :)"

– Swayam Manoj Agrawal

– Khushi Wadhwa

"From being benchmates to endless discussions while the professor was teaching, ESW project madness, and Night cricket fun, it's been an amazing journey. I can't blame the seating because it brought me a great neighbor and teammate. We didn't win cricket, but the laughs and memories were priceless. I remember a time I wasn't available and could totally rely on you for checking my papers. I am grateful for all of it ❤️. Wishing you all the best for everything ahead!"
– Vanshika Dhingra

"Akshat, it was so fun working with you that calm vibe and your wild laugh.

"Akshat is a very dedicated, sincere and a focused guy with a very good heart.
I formed some of my most cherished memories in IIIT with him in my first laughing at his witty jokes in classes is unforgettable. I really think about that time and always think, it was just yesterday, and here we are! Please

Bhai thoda bol liya kr chup mat rehya kr.

Have a good time with you. Keep contacting! and best of luck for your future endeavours."

Q: First day on campus?

A: Spent the first few days in quarantine, talking to my roomie Roja and eating mess food out of those sad plastic bag-like containers. Sometimes, we would play cards or just gossip with other girls in the common areas:)

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Chilling with my friends after exams, carrying a speaker around with songs playing. There was a strong and cool breeze and we were just singing along...

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I will miss our CND batch emergency meetings when no one had any clue about the assignment or the exam next day, and we would sit together in lab or video call all night and figure things out

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I've become more open to meeting new people and trying new experiences!

Q: What next?

A: Time will tell:)

"..potate?

We've learnt so many things together I couldn't ask for a better and more cute roomie. Thanks for taking a chance with me :)"

Q: First day on campus?

A: seniors were trying to get us to do felicity/kalakshetra work, but rev, nan, and i somehow escaped and went on a long walk in the phd quarters. after that, we met others, ate pizza in krb, and explored random parts of campus with random people.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: during our second year felicity, it rained almost every day. on one of the days, my friends and i brought a speaker and danced in the rain in front of the basketball court - it was so much fun.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: spending so much time with my friends and being so close to them.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: i think i've just grown up a bit.

Q: What next?

A: i'm going to work for some time and then figure out what's next based on how i feel.

"anuu, you are the best roommate i could ever ask for, the light to my darkness, the smile to my frown. ngl i feel like the universe conspired for us to meet cuz i needed you bro :-; That one fateful walk around the campus on the first day, I did not expect to get a soul sister out of it. i loved 105 timezz, i loved that you came to ranchi. my parents also love you a lot :) your happiness is infectious, i am so glad that you are in hyd only <3 stay pretty, stay healthy, stay safe always <3 ilysm"

I'm also gonna miss getting drunk with you and ur random ass sleeping schedule (how do u fall asleep putting shoes on). The last 2 years were goated, we should make ur 1 trip a month thing a tradition at least among us 4. loved doing tp with y'all. "It's wild to think that when we first spoke at Theos, CP during online sem, I had no idea Anushka would become the anchor of my college life. I genuinely don't think I'd have made it without her - her steady presence saved me more times than I can count.

She's the kindest person I know: listens closely, speaks honestly and treats everyone with respect; also absurdly capable, from leading fashion/queer clubs to algo research. OOM, but I'm lucky to carry college with me, because she's part of it."

- Akshit Kumar

"you're definitely the best roommate in the world. i still can't believe how we managed to become roommates randomly, but it was also the most perfect fit imaginable. i didn't think it was possible to be this comfortable living with someone. i loved doing everything we did; it wasn't just easy but also just so fun. i'll miss us enjoying music together under the fairy lights, and i'm so so happy that we hung out one last time in jahnavi's room. it felt, for a bit, like we were back in ours."

- Sreeja Guduri

"nushkaaaa, you know what I love about you? I love that you have such thoughtful, yet crazy ideas which I can for some reason never say no to. I swear you are down to the most last min plans and adventures (remember our first one with orgho at atrium and currently our last party planning one). All I want for the next year is to continue doing those random shit and I loveee you bye"

Q: First day on campus?

A: I arrived on campus in Dec 2021, during COVID, and was quarantined in Parijat. Worried about language barriers, I felt at ease after meeting a staff member from Madhya Pradesh. That moment gave me comfort, and soon I connected with amazing people to begin my college journey.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Cricket, a long-lost hobby, revived with night matches and became a daily joy by final year. I remember the fun fights, unexpected players joining in, and the grand finale on a full ground—complete with a light-hearted prize distribution. Pure college magic!

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: The late-night 'chai pe charcha'—be it 12 AM deadline rants at JC or 2 AM chai orders—was therapy. From sharing assignment pain to random deep talks, JC became our constant. Birthday celebrations, quick meetups, Raj Anna's chai, and of course, the legendary Oreo shake—unforgettable.

"Arpit you're so calm and collected, that's so admirable. And you're super talented! All the best for everything!"

Bas bharosa rakh ki tu badiya hai.
Btw Apni trip baaki hai bhai! Kabhi toh vo khwaish puri karenge yaar."

This guy has skills in every field sketching, video editing, music, sports! Truly inspiring. Being your roommate added lots of unforgettable memories. Late-night Maggi sessions, Scooty rides, random night walks are some of the best times we had.

Sometimes you got a bit moody too 😊 but that just made things more memorable. From day one to the last, it's been a great journey. Wishing you all the success and happiness ahead. I really hope you achieve your dream.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I'd say two big things changed. First, I started stepping out of my comfort zone—interacting more with people and exploring skills beyond just coding and academics. It really helped me grow in ways I didn't expect.

Second... I tried to become more serious about studying. Keyword: tried. Let's just say the effort was there, even if the results took a different path!

Q: What next?

A: Honestly, I don't know exactly what life has in store. I'm starting with a job—something stable to build a secure foundation. But beyond that? It's uncertain. I don't know if I'll chase the passions I've always dreamed about or take an unexpected turn somewhere along the way. All I know is, I want to stay open to possibilities and see where life leads me.

Q: First day on campus?

A: Excited to see things that I've only heard of/seen in pictures, and also meet new people. For some reason we wore formals for our induction on the first day. Did not know that I would go on to make so many memories with the people I met that day – it is almost magical looking back.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Taking part in Megathon in my first sem – got me closer to the gang (Lé Boys => Parivar). Discussing complexity theory with seniors till 6 am. Hanging out with seniors and profs and learning probability theory (via poker). Using Grover's search to ask someone out (trust me, this trick works)

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Will miss discussing random things with seniors. Have really soaked a lot of inspiration from them.

Annoying friends till they say – 'isko kaun bulata hai yar?'

Will miss playing with friends for events like octave, unplugged, felicity

Will miss spotting Lily in labs and playing with her; RIP :(

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Learning how to deal with tough times, and also learning to rely on friends.

"Best bro ever, my go-to person for every life update, research questions, and literally anything else."

Always the best insights to everything. Most OG research guy I know on campus, and awesome guitar player. Can be spotted on research street lost in thoughts about a complexity problem, say Hi to snap him back to real life and catch up with a cup of chai."

Q: First day on campus?

A: I was nervous, scared, and excited all at once. Leaving my emotional parents and little brother in Chandigarh to start life at IIITH was overwhelming. The first few days were scary, but then I met my roomie and we had a lot of fun watching our 1st movie when I was supposed to be in quarantine XD

Q: Best campus memory?

A: There's no single best memory, just a biiiiig cluster of them. Every event I took part in, the fun and chaos with friends, weird moments in class, rant sessions at canteens, being a TA, working on research, learning from profs, Chai wale bhaiya... all of it made campus life amazing.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Living just a door away from my closest friends, knocking anytime, scaring them, 3 AM Monopoly Deal and dumb charades, deep talks till 5, JC and David visit turning into campus walks, studying together, getting ready, going out, basically sharing each moment together. I'll miss my friends the most.

"Ashna ji, you're such a fun girl. Going out with you has always been fun. All the parties and dance and booze you genuinely bring the life to any party. Keep being a boss woman, you're gonna kill it in life. Wish we could've done SMAI project sexy hota i swear"

Q: Biggest change since first year?
A: I was very shy in my first year, rarely talking to people. But then I grew out of it and made so many friends. And well, I started drinking chai 😊

Q: What next?

A: Corporate Majdoori at Goldman Sachs. Saare dost to doosre shehar ja rahe and it's hard to leave behind all the memories and step into work life. I'll miss the random laugh sessions and carefree days. But I hope to keep meeting friends and stay connected. Life at IIIT was different, and amazing, one I'll always cherish. ""ASHWINI SO JAA!!!"
This is one of the most perennially tensed, sleep deprived person I have met! The only girl I know who was sad ONLY because she came 3rd in her class (and then she calls ME kassi!)

But most importantly, one of the most kind and nicest persons I have met. Keep smiling forever Ashwini, and all the best for your research!
So grateful to be your friend!"

From the late night talks about god, religion, relations, family, kids, marriage, oh god we talked about soooo many things. Your passion towards astronomy is really inspiring. It motivates me to work hard for something that interests me and not to do things just for the sake of it. Living practically, I learnt from you. Hope you become a great researcher. ATB!"

It is always a pleasure to talk stuff with you; you seem so interested in almost anything I have to say.) Find your true calling and chase it! Bhav

Q: First day on campus?

A: Greenery everywhere – experiencing the Chhichhore scene! Finally met my online friend Maharnav before quarantine. 4th-floor isolation turned into unexpected fun-bonding, laughter, and memories from day one.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Won Megathon 2023 with an amazing team! Pulled my first all-nighter—code crashed just before presentation. Fixed it half-asleep in 5 mins! Hilarious moments: Divij's rapid speech vs Harshit's slide changes. Perfect chaos!

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I'll miss those long & endless talks—sometimes random or sometimes on deep topics—in the Bakul gallery, mess table or on after-dinner walks.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: The biggest change since my first year has been my growth in confidence. Coming from a shy, introverted background, college—especially my involvement in clubs and student leadership—helped me evolve. Through organizing events, I've learned people management, teamwork, and the value of discipline, shaping me into a more outgoing and organized individual. Also, learnt watching more & more movies to spend free time :)

"He's explored more of GitHub than the actual globe. Need a movie recommendation? He'll expertly acknowledge the title you just fed him. Need a joke that will make you question your life choices (in a good way)? He's got an endless supply. A truly unique specimen!"

— Maharnav Singhal

"Bhav is one of the most organized people I have met in college. He is the type who puts a lot of effort into making considerations like "Which courses" and "Which mess" and I just tagged along with him on all those things XD (okay maybe not with messes).

With him also comes free access to random news articles, facts, and videos via WhatsApp. It was a really fun college life finding someone who had a similar vision and thoughts about college life as I did and I can not appreciate this enough."

— Divij

"Bhav's the coding ninja—can build a website in no time but won't spend a single rupee even if the world's ending. If frugality were an Olympic sport, he'd win gold. Always leading events like a pro, just don't ask him to pay for snacks. Legend in his own thrifty way!"

— Harshit Aggarwal

"Bhav was the first friend I made when the college became offline. One of the most dedicated people I have seen, I still remember the times when we used to...

... watch movies in his room, and the only thing that concerned him was working on the Clubs Council website. We had a great time together in all the movies and restaurants we went to. Whether it's work or fun, Bhav brings a sense of commitment and joy and he's a great person to hang out with."

— Tanveer Ul Mustafa

"Widest range of connections. Indianmoviepaglu. Bhav the Builder. If someone's even 30 seconds late for the mess, he'll unleash his inner aunty faster than you can say "paneer"! Reliable, punctual, and dramatically annoying—like a 2000s movie in human form."

— Pranav Agarwal

"Bhav is the perfect blend of a techie and the perfect movie-guy! Room No. 460 would be the perfect place of chilling out randomly and this guy would make sure to entertain you with his quirky jokes, whenever he would be around. He would never sit idle at one place. Whether he was binge-watching movies or studying, you could easily see him munching his favourite biscuits (yes, they were very dear to him!). All the best bro for the future and whatever you want to achieve in the near future!"

"Hey Bhav!

I remember our earliest reactions were about the IIIT Resources page, and it's been a long journey we've had together since then. I loved working with you on the CC Executive Board and organising the Escape Room event as part of ERC during Felicity 2022.

You and Divij showed how to defend one's opinions and beliefs, so thank you for that.

Stay in touch, and wish you the best in all your future endeavours!"

- K Ganeswar

"Easily the most famous guy in our college. Man has an aura of another kind.

IDK how many departments u manage for our college (lost count). I guess ur running the college. I appreciate ur dedication to ur work and hats to the amount of info u have on any given topic. Whenever I have an issue dealing with the college system, I know u would have a fix or a solution.

It's been amazing knowing u, hope u have a great future."

- Sreenivas Bhumireddy Papireddy

"Bhav is rock-solid. If you need someone you can truly count on, it's him. He does have a 'calculative' side, in the best way possible - meaning he's smart, he plans, and he considers all the angles. Honestly,

I think it's part of what makes him so incredibly dependable."

- Yash Bhaskar

"Hey Bhav! It was an amazing experience working alongside you, and I'm glad we became friends along the way. Your casual candour during meetings and quirky remarks...

Q: What next?

A: Gonna change the world. Right after I finish watching all the Hindi movies...

... always made me laugh and will be missed. I hope we stay in touch even after college ends. All the best for your future!"
- Mihika Sanghi

"Hiiii Bhav, my fellow Exec Sec – it's been such a journey working with you! I've genuinely learned a lot from you. Your discipline and dedication are truly admirable. I'll always remember our little fights (lol) – both of us just so passionate about what we believed in. You're probably the only person I know who watches so many movies and still manages to be a total pro at development! It was great knowing you – all the best for everything ahead! Keep being awesome."

- Vrinda Agarwal

"Bhav stands out for his excellent leadership skills. I've grown to respect how he takes so many responsibilities and still gets the deed done in everything. (I used to contact him for every club-related issue lmao) That combined with his hold development (as evident by his contributions to college and open source) makes him a really valuable person to be around. I've had fun talking to him and love his chill, no-nonsense attitude towards life. All the best bro"

Q: First day on campus?

A: We arrived just after the covid, so we were in quarantine. I remember the packed food packets we got from Kadamb, and stuff we did with everyone like how me, Hardik and Adyansh raced in the Bakul corridor. In the evening, 50 ppl were sitting in a room to watch Borat during "quarantine". That was fun.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Those morning walks/study sessions on the road behind Himalaya, Lohri 2022, Megathon 2022 with Pranali, evening football everyday with coach and the boys, the summer of 2023 with Hardik and Arjun, our tournament win in 2025 with Ankith, Abes and Sumit and chilling in Radhikesh's room were all great.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: The sense of security that comes from the fact that 5 of your friends live the next door, in the same hostel and you can go to them at any point of the day for absolutely no reason to just spend time, gossip, chill or work with them. Another thing I will miss a lot is yuktahar food, such a comfort.

"Sabse crazy (literally) aadmi jo iss college me mila vo tu hi hai. Sabse alag thoughts aur harkate teri hi hain 😂. Bhai I will always cherish apne saare crazy experiences, ooty se leke doggystyle pumpkin carving tak 🎃. Abhi toh aur bhi bohot bakchodi karni bachi hai, thoda time ruko mai bhi aata hu europe XD. Sab badal gaye college ke end tak but tu humesa vaisa ka vaisa hi raha, love that the most about you."

- Arjun Dosajh

"Bhai, I am very grateful to have found a friend like you. Tune mujhe itna help kare, I can't thank you enough. I told you things I never told anyone, and it took a huge weight off of me, knowing that someone in this world will know the "real me", the truth about why I am the way I am, if I suddenly cease to exist one day. And you are one of the most hardworking people I've met. You pushed me when I gave up so many times. Thank you for that. Dhyaan rkhna apna. Always there for you. („^~^„)"

- Radhikesh Agrawal

"bholee ji, I had the best times of college with you from trek to Ooty to Vodarevu to Old Hyd date. I will never forget these moments. Ofc jitna bhi bolun, I respect you sooo much for the discipline you have, the 4am breakfast you did at Devid's and the research grind you did and got epf!! always with that smile and the hello..."

...o while walking past your room, made my day, knowing that he is always there for me. yes, yaad hai offer, already accepted hai, nahi bhul raha <3"

- Hardik Mittal

"Hello Gaurav, kaisa hai bhai? Bhai first of all tera love for football is great, mtlb I respect that a lot. Overthinking ko tere sath share krna aur teri stories sunna bada acha sa lgta tha, aur aage jb bhi baat hogi ense hi baat krenge. Your personality is truly inspiring, mtlb bhut seekha bhai mai terese, aur hn kitna acha hindi bolne laga re tu bhai! Bs ense hi muskurate rehna, mauka milega to phir chalenge kahi scooty pr, tb tk ke liye ense hi hansmukh raho - keep smiling marathi bhau :)"

- Arpit Pathak

"Aaaa there's just so much! Honestly the conversations have always been the easiest with you! Absolutely love how I can do duniya jahan ka rant without being judged, and how you manage to give buddhi when I am being kinda unreasonable! Thank you for being patient with my awol behaviour, constantly trying to be a better friend! Hoping for a lot more "Yahi baatein toh baad mein yaad aengi" moments ❤️"

"A man of passion, will, & most importantly, sheer discipline. Gaurav tu lajawab hain yaar. I love the passion u have for football & bioresearch. The discipline u have to manage both impresses me the most man. Tere main confidence, composure & clarity hain. Ek aisa aura hain bhai there main, teri smile dekh pigal jaaye insaan, apne paise dede tujhe. Shayad isliye sabne tujhe corphead banaya, aur sahi hi kara :) Hoping to see u soon in lab bhai, u are the motivation for me to do my own research :)"

"My CND buddy. Yaar idk how we made it 4 years, but hogaya. Ab ek saal hi bacha hai.. To listening to you rant, from exchanging gossip, lab discussions, advisor bitching, courses crying, science lab we have done it all.. You are kind, funny and smart and damn itna khushi khushi kaise rehta hai.. You are incredible at football (mereko idea nhi hai, par log bolte hai).. and overall a good friend. Switzerland jake bhuyna mat..

All the best bhole"

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Over time, I have become significantly more responsible and careful in terms of academics and research work. However, I have also noticed that I have grown a bit less open and less inclined towards fun. I have embraced aawarapan more and I actively seek time alone to better understand myself. On the downside, my health and football have taken a hit due to the hectic schedules of IIIT Hyderabad, especially since 2024.

Q: What next?

A: Well, first I need to finish my research internship at EPFL and then the degree. I love my research, and I enjoy it a lot. So after IIIT Hyderabad, I wish to pursue a PhD. I will most probably be doing a doctorate degree either in applications of Deep Learning in Medical Sciences or Life Sciences or in the field of bioinformatics/computational biology in some University in the Europe or the UK. And after that.....well, itna kaun sochta hai. Dekhle lenge tabka tab, xd.

"From a random CND-mate, to our official third wheel. Life has been so interesting with you. You have forced me to think about such unique (slightly disturbing) things and I will always remember you by them. I have made some of the best college memories with you. Our first time drinking is something I will never forget XD. Our face paintings, futsal events and parties will always be cherished by me. All the best for your future!"

- Mihika Sanghi

"Bholeeeeeeee
You were one of the first people on campus I had a proper conversation with. Tu starting se hi CND mein sabse hatke tha xD
Your reminders to me every time we meet ki mujhe thodha lite lena chahiye, to random health advice cuz I was totally not fine, to your bigg smile when we ran into you, they're all things I'll remember about you. I'm pretty sure we're gonna meet again sometime, but tab tak ke liye, work hard, pursue your passions and epfl is lucky to have you!"

- Anika Roy

"hello first year pehle teen din ke roommate. you were honestly the first friend i made in college and its so crazy the whole journey we've had together. thankyou for totally carrying corp in felicity and making sure ki hum fest kara paaye. i have always been a fan of the gaurav bhole calves and nobody can convince me otherwise. hope you do great in life (you already are :)) and best of luck for everything that lies ahead!"

- Adyansh Kakran

"Gaurav is by far one of the nicest people I have met in college. A football legend, playing with him was so fun unless it was Aakash vs Vayu. Ooh boy he was such a pain to handle, always keeping us defenders on our...

... toes. We spent a lot of nights playing FIFA together, and those were nights in which we used to forget about all the stress of course load and other responsibilities that we had, and just get lost in the game. Grateful to have a friend like you Gaurav!!"

- Tanveer Ul Mustafa

"Hello Gaurav sir, kya haal aapke. Dude, ngl initially I had the wrong impression about you. You seemed like the very cool, self-absorbed, sporty type of person. But boy was I so sooo wrong. You are one of the nicest people I have talked to and extremely wholesome (at least in front of me :p). And on top tum football mein bhi jhakas!
I wish you atb for all the things you pursue in life. Keep having fun too. And thanks a lot for looking out for me always. I will try to take less stress lol."

- Prakul Agrawal

"I have never seen a man with this level of clarity about life. You eat good, you play good, your lifestyle and discipline is something I look upto tbh.
But phir bhi masti karta hain, mala tujhyashi bethun khub changla vaatla, aani yuktaharcha ghosti mein bhulnaar nahi, apan toh abhi aur milenge, ly"

"Didn't talk a lot but shared some core memories of life. Remember FAP? Im sure you do 😊 A wide smile, a big wave, a really warm heart and super helpful soul. Q: First day on campus?

A: I clearly remember that day. I never thought I'd end up in this group, but I'm so glad I did. I was alone in my room watching "DJ Tillu" when I met Vedanivas, and the rest, as they say, is history.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: If I had to pick one thing, it would be the moments Nikitha planned for our Telugu gang—whether they were spontaneous dinners, campus events, or trips, I enjoyed them all the most.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: My room, along with Vedanivas', Ravindra's, and Abhishek's rooms, holds a special place in my memories. In essence, the entire Bakul Hostel is where I forged some of my most precious and enduring memories.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Wow, it's wild to think how much I've changed in just four years! I'm definitely not the same person, and honestly, I have no clue how that's all gonna play out in the long run. But yeah, I'm kinda excited to find out!

Q: What next?

A: Graduation (Seriously I have to graduate god please make it happen)

Brahad Balaji Kokad

Brahad

Q: First day on campus?

A: I don't remember much honestly, but the campus was much more green back then, and I loved that.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Performing music on stage was always great! I loved playing in Felicity and Octave, particularly with Anubhav and band -- uh wait -- Bhalu and band! I have very fond memories from being part of CCC, Pentaprism and Cyclorama too.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: The people for sure. I've met so many nice people here, some became closer friends than others. Not just my batchmates but seniors and juniors too. I'll miss performing and jamming with my musician friends. I'll miss the dogs and cats. And I'll surely miss Raj Anna's chai.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: My hair lol. Also my guitar skills. I walked in knowing only one thing for certain, that I wanted to learn the guitar. And so I did :)

Q: What next?

A: Umm ^_(ツ)_/^-

"Musical god. Loved performing with you in Unplugged, Meltdown and Felicity all these years. I hope we can perform some more times before graduating. Prateek Kuhad in '22 was fun! Let's go to more concerts!

Also mala marathi shikva"

"Brahad ji! Your insect photography will always be interesting and memorable! You are such a talented and inquisitive person and such a delight to talk to!"

"BRAHAD BHAI!!!. You're one of the few people who know what they are doing with their creative side, and that is really admirable. Always have looked up to you and it's always been a wonderful time working with you and learning from you.

Keep shining!"

- Sannidhya Gupta

"A lot of people would deservedly talk about what an amazing photographer and musician you are, but the trait in you which inspires me even further is the power of your empathy - reflected in the devoted care you provide and the deep bonds you have with the dogs and cats on campus. I've been a part of several clubs on campus, had a few doubts regarding the continuation of club activities for some, but because of you, I've never had any such doubts with CCC. Humbled to be a part of it. Keep rocking."

I'm always here if you ever need to talk. Great things lie ahead for you. Stay in touch!

Q: First day on campus?

A: I came to campus in the morning, and we were supposed to be in quarantine in the hostels for 3-4 days. The day was quiet, but at night I met a few people on my floor. We had a good conversation, it felt nice.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: There are many...

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I'll really miss the Telugu Peeps group. It gave me good friends and countless memories.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I was very quiet in my first year - it was difficult for me to start a conversation, even with people I already knew. But by the end, I was able to interact better.

Q: What next?

A: Looking forward...

Q: First day on campus?

A: It's COVID time, I had a strange experience on my first day. My COVID-19 test report was missing, so I had to go to Himagiri before entering college to get one. The security guard said to go right, and I walked for long distance, thinking the campus is that long on the left side also.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: My best memory on campus is when people asked me to run for Parliament, second time. I was the least expected one to win my first elections, but later on, the situation was different. Also, exploring unknown places in college showed us how beautiful it was. Made many memories while exploring them.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I being a DD student, I will miss hanging out with most of my friends, we may meet outside the campus, maybe on campus, but it's not going to be the same. I wish we didn't grow.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Now, I could speak confidently, express my opinion strongly.

Q: What next?

A: Graduation lol

Q: First day on campus?

A: I came at least a day later than everybody else and I am really glad I came late because that got me a room on the 4th floor and got me close to the people I call friends today :) (It was also easier to sneak out) Meeting Group 1 peeps in-person felt really amazing too! Go GI!

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Organizing Felicity in my 2nd year was probably one of my favourite campus memory! It was an overall new experience, and I had the time to spare for it as well. That was also what got me into Clubs Council and introduced me to a lot more people.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Friends. I am already missing them, evenings are way too quiet compared to hostels because of my friends who were constantly coming to room every couple hours. Life was very happening in college and the dip in that activity is surely going to feel like a void for a while.

"He doesn't just watch anime, he lives it. He doesn't just play games, he wages digital war. He's also a human jukebox of tales – insert coin (or just be near him) to hear his classics. Again. And again. And we wouldn't have it any other way."

– Maharnav Singhal

"Divij is the ultimate college buddy – and engineer se jyada gamer! Gaming ke beech bhi har course mein A grade laana is normal for him. Clubs Council ho ya Felicity ya fir course projects ya long random discussions, har jagah mazedaar moments share kiye. Ek baar padhta, toh hamesha yaad – insane retention! Sabka dost – students se leke guards tak. You made my 4 years unforgettable with endless fun. Bas ek hi advice: waise hi rehna, bas thodi si exercise bhi kar lena 😊"

– Bhav Beri

"Divij is the perfect go-to guy for the best advices you would like to have for literally anything! Yes, this man helps you easily with his quick wit and great knowledge of all things under the blue sky, make sure to interact with him when he is not sleeping. The person who lives in the virtual world and popularly addressed as the "guy with headphones around his neck", his video games, music in his free time and random news channels meant a lot to him. All the best for your future, best roommate!"

– Pranav Gupta

"Divij is like a big brother who I look up to. He is probably one of the wisest and most mature people I know. He is good at every video game that I aspire to be good at. Even if luck isn't on his side most of the time, he has proven himself to be a fighter! A singular action of his, back in first semester, determined the rest of my college life and I am very grateful for that."

– Kommireddy Bhargav Srinivas

"It's rare to stay close for four whole years. Divij was the first friend I made here, and I'm grateful we grew closer with time. I admire his 'Debator' personality -extroverted, sharp, empathetic, and sensitive (my favorite), and always up for deep conversations. He's now synonymous with college for me. What I love most is his healthy competitiveness-that'll let him thrive in any work he takes on, while still being mindful of his well-being. Thanks for putting up with my antics bro. Atb for life"

– Ishwar B Balappanawar

"Best bro i could have asked for. Always the funniest and smartest guy in any room hes in. Will always remember that he was the person who first took me to the gym(as unlikely as it seems XD). Always there to share a laugh or to bitch and moan about college. Have countless memories with him and hope to make many more."

"Hey Divij!

Working with you on the CC Executive Board and in SERC was wonderful. Always loved your frank opinions during various debates about policies and stuff, and am grateful to you and Bhav for showing how to defend one's beliefs and opinions.

Hopefully, we'll stay in touch in person also, if possible, apart from social media. Wishing you the best in all your future endeavours!"

"Divij is the laughing Buddha of the batch—always calm, always cool, and somehow always cracking the darkest jokes. His music taste is top-tier, his vibe unmatched, and conversations with him just...

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I have become a lot more lax and not necessarily in a bad sense. When I came to college I was already very much into anime, gaming, fooling around but I was still focused on studies (was on-time for class, made notes) but that's something that changed overtime and I like it better this way.

Finishing assignments and projects at the last day has given me more memories than I would have gotten otherwise if I had done them on time. Grinding at the last minute is where life is at in IIIT :)

Q: What next?

A: I mean, I am probably gonna be living 20 minutes from campus so would be able to meet my DD friends anytime but yeah, it's a new path for all of us single degrees starting from here and I hope we all end up successful wherever we are. Friends who made it this far and friends who couldn't, I would like to believe that this friendship will last a lifetime!

You honestly helped me get through lab work past 2 years xd."

Aapke woh games aur anime suggestion kaafi cultured the :) aur baaki DASS mein toh kaam kiya hi tha.

Q: First day on campus?

A: Thanks to the online semester, the first (few) days were a mad scramble to meet all the people I got to know quite well online and see what they're like and whether they look anything like the images I had in my head!

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Late night deep discussions about anything from advisors to algebra to philosophy to career plans to plain ol ranting, at the OG JC, where true bonding with seniors, batchmates and juniors occurred and where everyone was an equal. I said this during the Freshers' Video and I'll say it again :D

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: College was all about connections, and by Jove I'll miss all the incredible people I had the privilege of knowing in my time here! Y'all were the fire that held back the dark and y'all were what I looked forward to every time I came to campus after a break.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I've learnt enough here to change my outlook on things by a great deal. I've learnt to find joy in the smallest conversation with friends, in the smallest discovery I make in study, the smallest little treat I get myself as a reward for work.

"Honestly I think the 500 character limit is no where close to being enough - I remember being very intimidated by your and your lingu skills during online sem, only to later realise you are one of the best friends I will meet in my life. I don't think there has ever been a dull moment with you, and I don't think I ever will. Thank you for always being there for me, thank you for being such an amazing friend. May the force keep us friends forever <3"

- Srijita Mukhopadhyay

"Aye yo bossmannnn; Drurah Shahhhhh; You're welcome for the name btw; One of the first friends I made in college and I'm glad that we never fell apart; You're insanely smart and talented at whatever you do; Gave mee (i took for myself) the esteemed position of leader of the cult; almost as funny as I am; and no I wont change the ringtone boss; Take things easy and I'm sure you're gonna do amazingly in life; lets meet for dinner tonight lmao;"

- Ajit S

"Brother I feel like I've known you since forever. Your music taste absolutely slaps, and so do the jokes and puns. College felt a bit more like home with you, thanks a ton :) Also, I clicked that pic that's on in your pfp here, one of my all time favs."

- Brahad Balaji Kokad

"Hi Boss! (It always feels...

... great to call you that, you're the only one I do!) You were an amazing roommate. I honestly don't think I could've had better tuning with anyone else. Future mai bhi kabhi same city me rehna hua, to room share karne sabse pehle tuje hi call karunga bhai !

Take care, brother."

- Tank Madhav Tusharbhai

"hi druhan you're super cool and make the best puns :D stay rocking :)"

- Nanda Rajiv

"the other fellow clid gujarati, & the man whose existence saves me from being the bastard guju ur v interesting to talk to, and I always learn smth new during our convos. also a v knowledgeable dude with whom I can talk abt obscure topics & who gets old-man vine & internet refs. and also vv smart, at a lot of things. 1 of my first memories of online sem is asking u a doubt abt AoC around day 5 or 6, & u offering to vc & explain it to me. that just epitomizes you for me - a basically nice guy."

- Aryan Ashok Chandramania

"My homie and Kannada brother. College wouldn't have been the same without you, my guy. You are also dual so your kinda stuck with me for another year.. Your a good friend and a nice person to talk to. Take care of yourself my guy.. Cheers to one more year of chaos, boss..."

I'll miss teaming up for quizzes (and stargazing), and I'll always admire your vibrant personality and how you're able to mix your insane tech skills with an amazing creative streak. Its so mesmerizing how you're able to randomly break into fluently speaking Russian as well.

As a member of the Drurah cult I shall do my best to keep your memory alive and worship it, or die trying."

Q: What next?

A: Now to go out into the big bad (?) world and make a difference. Academia requires altruism and discipline, industry requires diligence and worldliness; all of which I will give to the best that I can!

... feel grateful to be a paraud member of the Drurah cult. Will try getting somewhat better at Kannada this year ig 😊 (Gotta climb up the cult ranks to be able to serve you better 🙏 100)" - Punnavajhala Gnana Prakash

It was really fun playing at the same D&D table for all those months man, long live the brigade of D!" - Divij

"Dru-rah (idk how its spelled) is one of the most lovable men on campus. He has everything going on for him - the rizz, the jokes, passion for nerdy stuff. Bro managed to sneak into my core memories about college via the many nights we spent together playing DnD. And love him for putting up with all my shenanigans.

If we ever happen to meet again in life, lets give a cheers to the old times with another wild DnD session.
<uwu_face_with_hearts_emoji>" - Ishwar B Balappanawar

"How's life? Hope it's better than the last time I asked you this! You have always been great inspiration for me to pursue things like theory and open source. (You are the face of theory group in my head). You almost convinced me to get into ricing, but sadly never got into it.

The memory that's burnt into my head is that vim golf event where we battled for 3rd place (It wasn't even close, I lost horribly). Good luck! Hope to stay in touch!" - Kommireddy Bhargav Srinivas

"Wassup man! I wish I had gone beyond this and interacted more with you....

... Especially on some mutual interests like chess. Keep chilling and all the best for your future!" - Soham G Korade

"Thanks for being such an awesome friend. You rock Druhan!" - Adnan Qidwai

"Hey man, you are the best keeper I ever bowled to (maybe a tough competition with Anubhav Sharma :))
The levels of discipline you've showed in everything you do is truly inspiring, and that's not a joke. I hope you do well in everything you want to do in life... everything that's important to you.... and i really hope I get a chance to meet you some time in the future."

- Aadarsh Devanand

"IIIT was worth it because of you. You're the smartest, hottest guy I know, and every moment with you was filled with laughter and joy. You take my breath away and always will. I'm so proud of the man you've become— you're destined for great things, and I can't wait to see you achieve them all. We were short-lived, and maybe it was meant to be that way, but I'll always remember you."

- Poorvi H C

"Funniest guy af, never seen this guys face without a smile brother always lightens the mood wherever he goes.

Will miss ya bro keep in touch"

- Bhavya Kothari

"bro i will never forget the night cricket match you guys played. it was at some 3 or 5 am but i would come and watch that every day of the year. good luck for your phd :)"

- Arghya Roy

"You're one of the chilliest people I've met. I'll miss watching fl with you during the online and offline sems, and also cheering on your amazing wicketkeeping (it's seriously the best I've seen in college!) MBC was super fun with you too. I'm very excited to see what you'll cook in the future. Enjoy Austin!"

- Kapil Rajesh Kavitha

"My keeper!! Trust me i still how dk how to bowl that googly, but somehow you..."

... know it!! That defines our relationship ig :) Pizza zone with you, from discussing strike rates of 50 to averaging 50 :wink , from doing ANLP together to visiting CVPR twice you just have been a real all rounder haran! I am sure something big is lined up for you, and I really hope you get the best! But all I have is one request - do not forget me :) i might need a job later :))"

- Patanjali Bhamidipati

"one of the sweetest guys on campus!! an amazinggg teammate, the bestt keeper i've ever seen and that outstanding final season with the batttt i've loved playing with you for 4 years haran, will cherish it forever. and coming to the more important part, i've interacted with you more as at a personal level over the last year, and i fell in love with you ever since! you're so sweet, veryy helpful and a fun guyyyy aaaa i regret not getting close earlier love you!"

- T Ravindra

"Very hardworking guy, all the best for your phd and don't forget us after going to us. Also party for RL pending."

- Nipun Ashish Tulsian

"Nier, I'm glad you struggled to figure out the vpn installation. That shit led to a brother, getting myself the best younger brother mutthi, big don uncle who's like family, and many more.

If you're gonna kill it in Austin and i pray there's a lotta happy and good things coming your way.
On a random weekday in bed, staring at the ceiling, i'll always remember 'Let me not die ingloriously and without a struggle, let me do something great that shall be told among men hereafter'.

Love you nia"

- Balakumar Velayutham

"Ntg good for you , all the best for phd , no option to write a testimonial for

Mr. Raajesh"
- Himanshu Sarraf

"Not gonna lie, I underestimated Haran at the start. But he quickly proved himself to be a smart, resourceful person while being an absolutely sweet heart. He is kind, handsome, charming and always has a smile when talking to people. (No wonder Sreeram fell for him). Hopefully, we will meet in the upcoming months, I'm not done with him."

- Kommireddy Bhargav Srinivas

"Haran was perhaps the first online friend I made in college! Chill, focused and fun guy to be around. He is the only reason I managed to submit most of my DSM lab circuits haha (really got carried by him there XD) Man was also there when I was down at my lowest in second semester and helped me keep going! Thanks a lot for everything man and I hope to stay connected in future too :)"

- Divij

"All the very best buddy :)"

- Aryan Gupta

"Haran enjoys the best of all worlds-his humor spans sharp wit to brain rot, and he balances being effortlessly cool with genuine humility. This pattern manifests in other ways as well - he is too cool and modest at the same time, engaging with all kinds of people. Absolutely loved our time in Group1 which is now an inescapable core memory for me. Thanks for putting up with all my (and sreeram's) antics. You such a cutie patootie uwu. Wishing you all the love and success ahead"

- Ishwar B Balappanawar

"Hello Haran Sirji! I would have said, 'take care of my Poorvi,' but aap toh pardesi baabu banke nikal liye! 😊 Lol,

I...

... love teasing you with my Punjabi
Hinglish jo aapko samajh nahi aati! It was lovely having you around in college.

I wish you all the growth and happiness in life. Keep in touch, bye!"

Q: First day on campus?

A: Felt unreal, something like a dream, I would wake up and get ready to play cricket in the morning with my friends, but I made so many more here that now it feels like that day was 2000 years ago. Played a lot of games (on laptop for a change) with my new mates.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: No single memory as such, but working on projects last minute with friends and being so sleep deprived that literally anything starts sounding funny is something which kept happening and despite the toll it took on sleep schedules, would do it all over again exactly the same.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I guess the biggest privilege that hostel gives you, is when you think about having a chat with a friend, you don't pick up your phone, you barge into their room and just start talking. I would miss being a few rooms away from my friends than being a phone call away, the most.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I no longer play Valorant till 5 in the morning, I guess that would be surprising for my first year self, I started focusing more on health as well, something that had taken a backseat for a long time.

"Smartest man alive? Can't argue with that. I just wish I weren't so introverted and had the chance to meet you earlier—that's one of my regrets from college. It was always such a joy talking to you, whether it was about academics or just some random bakchodi. And you were an awesome guitar student—picked it up so quickly. (Smartest man alive, no doubt.) And brother, you were made to have pictures clicked. Itne smart kaisee?! Andar bahar dono taraf se!
And yes, we'll definitely stay in touch."

persistence and a fresh approach

Q: First day on campus?

A: Was stuck in room for the first five days (quarantine). On the fifth day though we explored the campus like we were tourists in rome. Sreeja, Paridhi, Anusha and I got ready, wore our slingbags, and took off. We even asked directions (to the library?) and got lost at a point (an achievement fr).

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Probably all the time with friends, random sidequests (atrium balcony at 3am, milkshakes at 6am, bike rides at midnights and getting lost in hyd), adventures (exploring araku caves, bicycling over highway bridges, building a women pyramid for dahi handi) and countless times I could not pinpoint!

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: my friends <3 WAIT NO BINLOO I MISS BINLOO SO MUCHHHH (To Lady Artemis "RE" Binloo)

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: my hair idk? I mean ofc my horizons broadened, I definetly unlearned time management and maybe relearned it?, appreciated home and the little things in life way more (actually stop and smell the flowers or the autumn breeze guys!!)

Q: First day on campus?

A: I snuck in as an outsider for felicity and later while we were hanging out we were outside Nilgiri and saw two people on the top floor. We all collectively "saw" that they called us up and went. Turns out we were interrupting a couple. We stayed awake till 8 am and then I slept in Ronak's room.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Less of a memory and more of a people told me and showed videos of what happened, but my first time visiting JC Hut. Had to visit Apex too after that.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Being able to meet everyone as often and impromptu walks around campus.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: My eyes don't turn as red anymore.

Q: What next?

A: I have no clue.

"gossip queen + nashedi crazy combo.

you're my only competition for worse drunk day stories and im glad i was around to see it. fellow "do it for the plot" partner. a good wingman lmao but even better at calling out bs. thank you for all the emotional support from almost failing courses together to ranting to sherlock-ing. very good listener 10/10. keep giving us updates because where else will i get goss from?"

- Mukta Chanda

"jaikar, you were my best friend in college. the amount of times we've stayed up having deep talks or gossiping till 4am was straight up unhealthy. you're a very good guy, and i admire the goals you put for yourself. i'm so proud of you for being where you are now and dont let anyone take that from you. thanks for listening to my brain rot i could always tell you anything and you (most of the times) gave me good advice. keep being goofy and unhigned."

- Sriya Venepally

"jay, you've come such a long way, and i'm so proud of you. it's been amazing to see how much you've grown. you're so much fun to hang out with—always down to party. also, thank you for being our main gossip source. you're one of the few people i've been close to since the very beginning of college. thank you for always being there for me. you're someone I know I can always count..."

... on. i'll miss all our random, interesting conversations—from deep talks to just us bitching. I'll miss you. love you."

- Anuhyaa Nallapati

"Jeeeekar, i still think your name is jaycar it makes you cooler anyways so be happy. You're a cheeky guy and i always have a good time with you.

You'll always be my college boyfriends sidechick, and tattoo partner (at least I motivated you to get it xD, and you inspired me too to get one two years later lol). Stay happy and lively as always <3"

- Roja Lakshmi Sahoo

"jaikarrr, idt I can cover everything in 500 characters. I've got so many great memories with you. Always loved our bike rides, uncles trips , khajaguda trips and many moree. I'm so proud of how far both of us have grown and I couldn't have done it without you for which I'm always gonna be grateful for. It's so easy to get real with you and there would absolutely be no judgement. let's always stay in touch and ilym bestie:))."

"Jayy! If there is one good thing that DS did, it's our friendship, and honestly, I wish it had happened sooner. You're lame, crack, and dumb :) Low-key, you give amazing advice, and somehow manage to be fashionable and hilarious. Also, nobody does your mom jokes like you; my mom would be proud :) I love how we bond over the finest things in life: Ronak. I will fight you for him. You're a total sweetheart. Don't change, and don't disappear. PS: stay away from Ronak. And my mom. But mostly Ronak."

- Meghana Tedla

"Jay, u r one of the hypest and chillest dudes. I've loved bonding over rap (Ronny J on the beat) and the Weeknd. I like that we can talk about anything. I'm impressed how you're just naturally curious about the most random things (never lame acad shit ofc). I've seen you change and transform a lot throughout college but I'm glad that you haven't changed in the things that matter most - being there for others, seeking out new adventures, and just having a good time with friends."

thanks for being so cool and coming to wing end at weird times at night, will miss you buddy"

"Heyy Jay, you are such a crazy fun person to chill with and go out with. The first batch trip was nice because of you and the stuff we did then were too lit. The stories you tell are so entertaining and you live in such an exciting manner. You are a genuinely good person who cares for others. You were missed in Pondi but Goa nights were better coz of you. We should go out more and do stupid stuff like the Plabo night and the Vijetha night. Won't ever forget these things man."

Nani

Q: First day on campus?

A: Being from Hyderabad, we talked with the administrators and got permission to home-quarantine and come to campus after the online semester. So we got to experience it in its full glory, as that was when Felicity 2022 happened. Still remember roaming around and participating in Kalakshetra.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Working as part of Team Wanderlust for the US Cansat 2024 competition.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: The hostel memories. Gaming sessions, movie nights, board games, group dinners and the like.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Being part of multiple student bodies and research work in general, my confidence in dealing with administration, managing teams, etc., has greatly improved.

Q: What next?

A: Exploring the area of hardware-software interface, pursuing a career in related companies, and hanging out with friends while playing games and watching movies. :)

"He is so close to me, that even if I criticize his punctuality here, he will still treat me as close as ever. Nani is a very kind, and humble person. He will question himself a 100 times, before doubting you. Love those philosophical talks with you. He is a very process oriented person, so if you don't get your way, he will take his time, but find it. Logic is not everything, and he will respect you as a person more than any technical qualification. Hardly anyone does that."

Being around you inspired me, and there was so much common sense that I lacked, and I always turned to you for it. You're skills as a mediator might just be unparalleled, and you always try your best to give and help. I'll keep in touch"

- Aniketh Parkala

"You're the most kind and sweet human being ik. It was really fun being roommates with you. You made working in group projects so easy too, thanks for carrying me through EW-I btw XD. Your dedication and determination to your work and clubs was amazing to see. IK you're going to do well for yourself and I wish you all the very bestt."

- Marri Abhinav

"Hey Gnani, you really do justice to your name. The few times that I've spoken with you, I've realised you're quite mature and wise. You are one of the most pure hearted and non pretentious person I've seen. Wish we'd spent more time together, but I will cherish our few moments together. You are also very passionate towards your interests. You do things with interest rather than just for the sake of it. Also really admire your book reading skills. All the best for everything!"

Keep aiming high!"

"Gnani—

The first truly sweet and honest guy I met on campus. In a world where I was always a little suspicious of the people around me, you were the one who made me feel comfortable. You became that go-to person I could trust.

Thanks for patiently teaching me LaTeX.
da :D

Wishing you nothing but the best<3"

— Ashwini Kulkarni

"Gnani! From online sems to now, it's been a wild ride and somehow, we've gone from random convos to full-on Telugu banter and endless roasting sessions!! You've always been that chill, sarcastic soul with a surprisingly solid heart. Also about my photo obsession sorry, some of us are just naturally photogenic so yeah. Jokes aside, it's been amazing knowing you. Stay in touch and wishing you the best for whatever comes next!!!"

I never got around to playing that game I installed on your laptop, haha! You're always ready to help out—itne sweet kaise? You're also one of the biggest bookworms I know. — Bhav Beri

"Gnaneswar is one of those people whose views and opinions are respected by any and all. Whether it be his unique perspective or his committed work ethic, I find them both very admirable. As someone like myself who tends to have very strong opinions on things, he sets a really good example for navigating difficult conversations, whether it be in a setting like Clubs Council or otherwise. (Brownie points for him being a gamer too!)

Looking forward to learn a lot more in the future!"

Q: First day on campus?

A: Bakul quarantine : I most of this day was spent playing uno and bluff with people. Met a bunch of ppl I interacted with online, also saw some others whose face I hadn't seen before (was genuinely shocked seeing Aryan and Shashwat)

Q: Best campus memory?

A: First birthday celebration. It'd been at least 5 years since I'd gotten to celebrate with friends (for several reasons) so I was very touched to have my closest friends "surprise" me with a cake at midnight. Also got a few cute pikachu gifts to make the day more memorable!

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Night cricket :(it's so cool how we defied expectations of usual friend grs and the friend grp size actually increased I the last 2-3 sems! Was so amazing to see the subculture -> NC transition.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Being able to make friends I can consider "close" and whom I can open up to

Q: What next?

A: :(

"Fellow F1 fan! Hope we can all go watch a race irl one day. Will miss the cricket streams, isha dubey classes and all other fun/dumb stuff we used to do.

You've been a very nice friend all these years, also smart af (mbzuai final boss)"

- Sarthak Chittawar

"You're very thoughtful and kind, and although before night cricket we were never that close, we've been friends for quite some time, almost since the beginning of college.

You should play more basketball with us. All the best for your masters, I know you'll do great!"

Q: First day on campus?

A: We were in quarantine, and Hardik Mittal was my temporary roommate. Had fun meeting a lot of people, couldn't go out of Bakul, but had real fun inside the corridors, playing cricket, running, etc. Had fun meeting lots of new people who would go on to become my closest friends in the years to come :))

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Celebrations of birthdays, playing mafia and bluff with everyone. Time spent in Coorg with my friends was heavenly. Also, I specifically remember celebrating my birthday in 3rd year, we had gone out for go karting, and paintball, it was a super fun time enjoying with my friends.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Apart from my friends obviously, I will definitely miss all the canteens, Paneer Karam Dosa and Aam Rass at BBC, random juice combinations at JC, coffee at VC and Damam bhaiya, and extra masala veg fried maggi at Davids

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I am a lot more focused than before, and I only care about the things that matter deeply to me, including my work and my close friends and family.

Q: What next?

A: MS CS in UCSD

"A man of focus, commitment and sheer freaking will. My best roommate and a constant inspiration for everything I do. You're just like Rancho from 3 Idiots, literally saari features match! I love that you always wait for everyone to finish before moving on, however it may cost you. Teri "explore everything" ki philosophy is something I admire a lot and will always incorporate in my life. One day we'll complete that 42km marathon. Tu hamseha mere bhai jaisa raha hai. Bahut miss karunga yaar tujhe!"

And you always had such an attachment with whatever you do. It was always great to see you enjoying your work, and be completely immersed in it, ignoring the outside world. Long conversations we had about cool things and research are very memorable. Great to see you reaching where you always wanted to be, and hope to meet you there too!"

"You're the most chaotic guy I know,clueless with logistics,always last-minute, and somehow surviving thanks to Romica.But when it's something you care about,you're focused,driven, and unstoppable and that's something I have always respected a lot.I'll miss our long walks, your random hypotheticals, and the times you'd barge in with some wild story or some hot gossip that made Kyrylo and me go,"Ab kya hua teri zindagi mein?". Don't forget to fund my GPUs when you're filthy rich with your quant job."

— Vansh Garg

"The thing I would probably remember about you most are our late night discussions. And since we know each other for really long, those debates could really be deep and open. I hope some day I actually convince you on some of my views. It was also great to see you change a lot during the duration of our friendship. You always had some chaotic aura around you, especially when you like a tornado used to come in our room at nights. Delighted, that someone can actually tame your energy. See you soon"

"Hamara CP bhai! You have really inspired me for codeforces, literally I used to solve only those questions that you solved, and when I learned that those were at a good rating level, I gained a lot of confidence. Thanks a lot for that!

You really are a very divergent thinker. Don't have all the answers to all your Jain questions, but it's always interesting to think about and discuss them. Philosophy kyu liya hamne pata nahi, but bahut maza aaya course ki burai karte hue aur project mai.Atb

Q: First day on campus?

A: totally overwhelming! All my friends at the gate, so many new faces, went to Dominos. Mad rush to meet online friends in person. Then, into the hostel & accidentally scaring my roomie with my Punjabi-Hinglish accent XD. Epic start!!

Q: Best campus memory?

A: So many memories! Late night walks, cards in hostel corridors, DSAC games, dancing at events, late nights in Srujana, workspace nights (sleeping, working, movies!), seeing friends off home... But OMG, the best? Lying on faculty area roads, watching stars in total silence. Truly, there's ALOTT!

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Will miss being a student, that 'benefit of doubt' before adulting hits. Gonna miss EVERYTHING: friends, sleep, my room, our deep/silly talks, BT hangs, random fun, drunk college days, DSAC games, group Instamart runs... It's just too much to leave!

"My roomie, My lesbian partner, without you I wouldn't be half the person I am today. You love unconditionally and that's something I wish to take back from you. Day 1-er. God bless the rooming gods who paired us up, cause I couldn't have handled anyone else as roommate. Your one of the strongest people I know and I hope you stay the same forever. The world is not ready for you and I can't wait to see what all you have to offer to it. PS. drive away all the creepy men for me pls <3."

"Punjabi aa gaye oye! Khushi, you're one of the coolest, most fun people I've met. You plan like a pro, fight like a firecracker, and always call dibs on everything—especially the front seat during car rides! You're full of confidence, charm, and that Sunidhi Chauhan voice – truly the whole package. What I love most is how effortlessly you understand me – I don't even have to speak. Stay exactly the way you are, keep slaying, and yes – I cannot wait for your wedding! Milte rehna, always

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: people say I'm less of a 'gundi' now, and honestly, I feel it; definitely more toned down. Still emotional, perhaps even a touch more so these days! But alongside that, I've genuinely gained confidence in new areas, found some truly amazing friends, and even feel more organized and responsible. Guess this is adulting, and it feels like I'm really evolving

Q: First day on campus?

A: I tripped on the stairs of the auditorium. Met my roommate - who is now a lifelong friend.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Walking around campus with Ishwar, discussing random shit, while listening to the Pikachu song, and drinking some JC drink (would've been nice if it was strawberry).

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: my friends

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I'm not a slave to grades and numbers anymore

Q: What next?

A: masters in CMU hopefully, in the short term;
world domination in the long term

"Meeting Bhargav was serendipity at its finest-a random bus seat arrangement and boom, best friend.

Bhargav carries an invisible yet powerful aura around him rooted in a quest for greatness. Almost like I sense a destiny waiting to be quenched. And while all this manifests outward in the form of curiosity and sharpness, the real trait I admire and value is his perseverance. He is a person worth knowing and I am glad that I did. He listens your heart. Here's to more fun and meaningful days ahead."

- Ishwar B Balappanawar

"I always felt that you have a unique way to deal with your problems, always chill and funny. Especially during exams. My time with you was one of the best memories of college be it future planning, hot chicks discussion, or just normal chicks :) History really is full of bad jokes. I will really miss you.

(Not gay)

PS : Best roommate I could've ever asked for."

- Umang Sharma

"You're one of the most brilliant people I've known. A true hacker always breaking into things. I've learned so much just by watching you take on wild CS challenges like writing stuff from scratch in C or Assembly. Your "this ain't gonna stop me" energy is truly infectious. You've explored so much in CS and somehow mastered it all. Beyond that, you've been a rock-solid..."

... friend. I'll always remember us geeking out, figuring things out, and laughing at CS absurdities. Keep hacking your way through life."

- Vansh Garg

"One of the first friends I made in college. I love how you are always curious, eager to explore and had your own side quests. During the college you were the only one who could get "Wow" out of me. Always filled with ideas, energy on how to break things and build them back. I value a lot our conversations on cool things we had in past years, where we would see something original and start discussing it. Hope to see you in person in few years on other side of ocean"

- Kyrylo Shyvam Kumar

"Bhargav is a wonder kid, he eats up technology for breakfast and doesn't even realize it. His curiosity at certain things in our early years at college really had me admiring him and wanting to be more passionate at all of it like he was. He is a really amazing friend and teammate, and really made our Felicity trip special! My most distinguished memory of him from our early days is him finishing an IoT lab under an hour before I even got to the lab (I overslept and yes, I totally got carried)"

One of the first friends I made in college. Its crazy how dedicated you were to battlesnake, motivating me to work as well. The perfect mixture of work and play.

Q: First day on campus?

A: Left my bags outside hostel to go meet everyone even though I wasn't supposed to. I was soo happy to meet all the friends I had been talking to online. Ran back across campus bcoz guard told me I'll have to carry my bags upstairs alone if I didn't come quick. Then the Srija prophecy came true. 😊

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I've learnt to be open to new people and experiences while also being content. Have met so many amazing people because of this and turned some of them into friends that I'm going to cherish for a long time :)

"Dear Kikito,
You have been one of the best things that have happened to me in college... no; life. Found out what having a bestie is because of you. Friendship like yours -- what we have -- I think such things happen only once in a lifetime. And I am really glad to have found you. We have been through a lot together.

And have always been by each other's back. I have no doubt that no matter whatever happens, we'll still be there for each other. Be it now, or 50 years in the future. Miss you a lot"

"My first roommate, and the person I probably bonded with most online. We have a LOT of things in common, we were bound to meet at some point. You have an incredible sense of style, and amazing hair. You always have fashion school as a backup in case the dd takes too long. We should go out more next year, social and anushkas birthday were really fun."

– Sanika Sachin Damle

"Hi fellow cinephile! Cyclorama was really fun, thanks for being one of the literally 4 people in the club when no one else was interested 😊. Also for being my occasional design critic, has been fun to discuss all kinds of things with you. Looking forward to more films and discussions in the following year, and lets keep in touch!"

Kyrylo

Q: First day on campus?

A: First day on campus was in quarantine. I came just in time to enjoy my first Felicity (and play table tennis on tables in quarantine, when guard was not looking). People with whom I played TT (or discussed group theory :) in next days, became my best friends for next years.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Winning Megathon in my second year. Discussions with friends we had, were really fun, and we pitched it really well. I liked time spent with friends, and we became much closer after sleepless nights.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Many things - Vibes during night walks; hours spent doing projects (and watching movies in parallel) during SMAI; the dopamine during the revisions, hours before final MR exam; so many good moments when playing Catan. Will definitely miss the cool people I met here.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: My look on CS changed, I got much more interested in deep learning, and joined Cvit. Definitely grew as a person. Meeting different people with various interests and lifestyles also changed me.

"Kyrylo is the tech talker-in-chief- always dropping random facts, always hungry, especially if it's non- veg on the table."

- Harshit Aggarwal

"Hi Kyrylo, I remember when we first talked in the ESW team, never thought it would lead to so many amazing memories. Zomaland was just the beginning, and after that, we went to so many places I've lost count. That year was the best part of college. You were the best project partner, and I'll never forget our blue room study sessions followed by movies, and long night walks on Microsoft road. Thanks for all the laughs and support. I hope you achieve all your dreams. All the Best

- Vanshika Dhingra

"Seriously can't WAIT to actually invade your kitchen and cook up some crazy good food - say goodbye to those tiny room experiments, we goin gourmet! 🎉 Get ready for non-stop hangouts at your place! And bro, you better start prepping those Russian lessons, I'm expecting to be fluent by next year. Keep killing it with everything! Good times loading! 🔥"

- P Harshavardhan

"darylo shvyam kumar :) (i hope you got the psych reference!), is that guy who would always leave out time to spend it with friends, no matter what. i cannot appreciate that quality enough. your PICHHLE SAPTAAH would...

... always be a centerpoint of our jokes XD. the only guy who has almost memorised wikipedia to the heart! and sundar pichai's favourite gemini user.

happy that you are staying back for a while, hope to meet you regularly. all the best, lots of love!"

- Vaibhav Agrawal

"Underrated. On the surface, he might not seem like the flashiest person. BUT THIS MAN KNOWS HIS SHIT. We did soooo many things together from contests to courses, and throughout them all I could feel the competence radiating from him. It's captivating.

Apart from that, I am lucky to be able to claim you as a friend. You have let me tap into fields and groups that I couldn't otherwise. Even if most of our conversations were about work, the camaraderie was as clear as diamonds. Thank you for shar"

"My name is Kyrylo Shyvam Kumar. You are one of the most mature and well-rounded people I have met in my life. After all, you are the gentleman singer of Ukraine .P. I will miss those deep talks we used to have just walking around campus. And ofcourse, no one can forget your preflop raises in poker. I wish one day you can give me a masterclass on how to make trades, not only in Catan, but also irl!"

"Kyryllo - We've known each other for quite some time, but the memories we made in Goa will be the fondest ones I take forward. Goa Trip would not have been the same without you, the hangout sessions, duo trips to beaches and yes the casino! You are a really hardworking person, and that's a key thing that highlights you. I've really enjoyed the discussions we have had about various topics. All the Best! Let's stay in touch. And yes, "Don't sleep on this" :)." - Mitansh Kayathwal

"The guy who silently shaped our academic journey at IIIT. Decided all the courses of our group. Has a great memory, and an unstoppable urge to share the most random facts no one knew they needed :)).

Super hardworking, dives deep into whatever he learns, and always curious for more. I can never get bored with you man - always soo fun solving some online puzzle or a JEE question together. You always turn my half-cooked rubber duck ideas into a real beautiful solution :). Will miss you a lot yaar!" - Akshat Sanghvi

"It's such a shame we met only in our last year. We have so much in common, and it will be hard to meet again. I'm happy to have had you as a friend. You give off that air of confidence wherever you go, whether it's in talking about your future or bluffing in poker, and I admire that about you. You are one of the few people I like holding Ethical and Philosophical debates with, because it feels like we live on the same wavelength, and I will miss that. I hope you burn bright in your ML career."

"Kyryl is a true man of culture. When he..."

Q: What next?

A: I hope I will continue seeing my friends in person, even after many years, even thousand miles away from here (especially those who want to become RS in distant lands). It would be great to see us grow professionally, and then observe if we achieved happiness while choosing very different paths.

... isn't explaining RMS-prop or the latest tech news, he grinds elden ring or reads berserk. Kyryl is a very unique character, and one whom i've become very accustomed to calling a close friend. He always makes time for us, coming to our room for poker/catan even though we stay on the opposite side of campus. After I left non-veg, Kyryl became the only one left for our taco tuesdays and la pinoz days. I'll always remember you and treasure our friendship :))"

- Shreyas Reddy Palley

"Kyryl is one of my earlier friends at the college, starting with the batch trip. Kyryl is funny, smart, and a fun person to be around. You can initiate conversations around a lot of topics with him. Love his approach to the subjects at hand and life in general.

Kyryl is part of many of my core memories for me. Will miss all the random pizza sessions we had (both in room and out). If we ever happen to meet again, lets finish that one chopsticks match we started. All the best for your life, uWu."

- Ishwar B Balappanawar

"Kyrylo, you have an insane drive for knowledge of all kinds. Be it CS, AI, or anime, you are uptodate with everything. You are extremely thoughtful and the way you reason about daily day to day decisions is inspiring for me. Many times you don't show this, but I know you are extremely emotional and you care deeply about the people around you. I have enjoyed a lot with you, from playing hide and seek to being TAs together. You are my brother. All the best for Typeface and ur future MS plans :))"

Q: First day on campus?

A: Ended up recording the very first nightout on Day 1 itself. Me, Gundam, Keval and few more wanted to explore all of campus, and even went into the lake and jungle straightup. The best part is we ended up finding things which aren't supposed to be where they are xD

Q: Best campus memory?

A: I would say the fest days were one of the best memories in my campus life. All the last minute tensions, the fun of having an amazing fest, and a lot more was crazy amazing

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I would honestly miss all my friends, the night rides we end up with, hunt for food, organising events, and all of these things. 3 months away during the internship alone made me realise how fun college life was, and how hard it is to even meet 10% of these friends once you are out of college.

"My arch nemesis, I hate you haha. I never thought I would ever be this close to a telugu guy. One of the very few people who grew with me side by side. Thankyou for being by sidekick and also for the bike. Will miss DLF and Khajaguda ek sal ke bad. Take care"

Even when I fail, he is always there with me, to help me out and calm me down. Wherever Yashaswi is there, things become so simple. We share the love of movies, and dialogues. He is always concerned about others, more than himself. Trying to make his close one always happy. Super grateful to know you ra!!"

Q: First day on campus?

A: My first day on campus was relatively uneventful. Going on my first campus tour (thought the roads were confusing XD) and getting my first JC Oreo shake treat was really fun until I had to run back because I forgot to collect my mattress from Srinivas who threatened to leave without giving it to me.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Theorising about what was behind the "haunted" Vindhya door until it finally opened to reveal one of the coolest labs on campus. This list is of course incomplete without mentioning Sreeja's microphone and the impromptu karaoke concerts held in 306.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: How easy it was to sync schedules and make impromptu plans to go out; some of my favourite moments were getting ready with the girls before heading out. Will also miss the long walks around campus sharing gossip and laughing about random things. One thing I wont miss? Washing my plates in mess.

"you're such a graceful dancer i wish you danced even more in prithvi. such a nice person, so smart. always helps me out in courses and always gets better marks. im glad i crossed the tpe rite of passage with you guys as company. dancing together with you was soo fun and i wont forget how my first and only telugu dance was with you"

A: Learnt how to do my own eyeliner. Went from waking up at 7am every day to occasionally rolling out of bed at 1pm. But more importantly, I started feeling truly confident in myself and comfortable in my own skin.

Q: What next?

A: Corporate :)

... how in our 2nd year, when I was stuck in lab (as always) during the summer, you would come meet me after your parachuri meets and I swear those would make my week. SOO dont forget about me when you become famous and rich and move across the world and we neeeeeed to continue those meets(i volunteer to come to microsoft) ;)"

"How life treats us, mostly depends on us. Past situations(family issues) always try to pull us back, But its us who can beat them. We should only focus on ourselves whether today we are better than yesterday or not. Society would never let you progress and hence its your own duty to progress and ignore the rest of the people. Whatever people thinks about us should not be a matter of concern for us. My sincere advice for you was always that you just focus on yourself and don't get hurt from others 😊"

Q: First day on campus?

A: After spending an hour taking photos at the entrance and an emotional drop-off, the fun started!! The annual fest, Felicity, was almost here, and the campus was buzzing with excitement. I remember the colourful walls, decorations, and unknown yet friendly faces everywhere. It was truly surreal!

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Exploring the unexplored! Be it the (now restricted) forest area, the forbidden amphitheatre or the locked terraces. There is a great sense of thrill and satisfaction in finding new spots around campus. The best memories and best friendships were made in these places and will be cherished forever!

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I will miss the people for sure. From my best friends to caring seniors and loving juniors, my teammates, roommates, and batchmates. I will miss the comfort this place provided us with, the familiarity of everything. Every nook and cranny here holds a special memory, and I will miss it dearly!

"I don't even know how to start. I can't believe we've known each other for four years. Friends kept coming and going but you were always constant and by my side <3. I will always cherish the memories we made together and hope to make sooo many more. I don't know where we'll be after college, but wherever you go I'll pop up to annoy you 😊. Thank god we're not graduating right now because I'm not ready to say goodbye (hopefully I won't have to) to the most amazing person I know <3"

Thank you for being such an amazing friend. You were always there to listen to my rants.

From going on that ride in blr to playing tt randomly in the mall, every time we were together it was always so fun.

Will never forget our dance in first year and how cute that was.

It was always so fun to annoy you by messing with your chair.

Always stay the same, I hope you achieve everything you dream of.

Lets party again cutie bhandi.

Every memory we shared is really close to my heart 😊"

"Where do I even begin? Mihika, I think back to the time we first met in CC – even before my CC interview – and I can't help but smile. Thank you for generously sharing your questions back then. But more than that, thank you for everything that followed – the countless midnight gossip sessions, the safe space you always gave me to open up without fear of judgment. You have been more than a friend, you've always been a constant and I will always cherish that – stay the same!"

Btw, meri hindi theek karne ka pura credit aapko jata hai ji, uske liye dhanyawaad.

"Mihika, u Dewas dwelling, physics solving, basketball dribbling, cat loving creature. I remember the "quantum physics concepts for dummies" u tried teaching me, only for me to realize every time how exponentially smart u are. U shoot for the stars & land on them too. As ur close friend T.S. once said & I concur, tum bhot achi astrologer banogi :)

You are an amazing friend Mihika, one who made me fall in love with cats. Here is to hoping to catch you dancing at more bhandi parties, all the best!!"

- Amey Choudhary

"mihika, you're so talented. you play almost all sports and you're so good at dancing. i loved playing and winning every tournament with you and yeah our football celebrations were the best. i love partying with you and you're the biggest bhandi i know. lyy :)"

- Sriya Venepally

"ayyy mihi first year first day pe i met you and loved your company. you have always been such a smart girl and i love having intellectual conversations with you. i still remember asking you if you guys think that roja was flirting with me or not. all those times were so insane. keep smiling and best of luck for your life!!"

- Adyansh Kakran

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: My hair! And the way attendance is taken XD. When we were in the first year, Badri sir used to manually mark our seats on a sheet. Now it is all automated with the use of biometric machines. Another huge change is the campus itself. It's currently under construction, but places like Srujan hold a special place in my heart. The biggest change would be my personality. I was a timid, shy girl in the beginning, but this college experience has helped me bloom into my true self!

Q: What next?

A: While it is intimidating to step into the unknown, I am excited for the future. Who knows if I'll do a PhD or a job, but whatever it is, I hope it's something I am interested in. I don't know exactly what my next step in life would be but isn't that what makes life thrilling and worth living?

"very pretty dancer. dancing with you is always so much fun and im so glad you danced a lot more with us in our last year. parijsaat preing with you is always so fun we always needed to finish it quickly and we always somehow did lol. such a cutie bhandi"

- Mukta Chanda

"Mihikaaa, from that random call about astronomy and Shrek in online sem to Goa I've had so much fun with you. The trip and all the other times we've gone out wouldn't be the same without you. And also thank you for being so patient and teaching me Bom Diggy.

Good luck for everything, and hopefully you never have to deal with a cab driver that keeps complaining about bada."

- Jaikar Sai Muppidi

"hey mihi!!

You have a bubbly personality and lift up the mood of conversations, and always give a friendly and approachable vibe. Hope you cherish and nurture these traits!
Stay in touch, and wish you the best in all your future endeavours!"

"Hello... In the entire list of our batchmates, you're the person I have known the longest, for over 6 years and counting. From our first day at Allen SRG to our last day (of coursework) here at IIIT, we have come a long way. I know you're incredibly smart and are capable of achieving great stuff and more. What's more, you're doing research in physics, something I respect you a lot for. Wishing you all the best in everything! I hope we stay in touch for longer and longer :)"

- Nobhendu Chowdhury

"Hi Mihika, I found such an amazing friend in you <3 You always feel easy to talk to and you're such a smart person! Pabba Ananya Vaibhavi Gundi

Q: First day on campus?

A: Was excited to meet my online friends, met chandana first, she had to show me around campus so many times, yet I would still get lost. Then met Arya, Vansh, Shambhavi and few of us went on a walk. Explored JC first among all the canteens and I loved it.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: The day few of us JC Waale stayed up till 5 am at Amphi dancing randomly, singing on the top of our voices, talking to shambhavi who was in parijaat from amphi just by shouting, playing garbha, and doing all sorts of other stupid activities.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: My group JC Waale, having meals with them, meeting at BBC, going out with them, having my girls in consecutive rooms, getting ready together, ice-cream nights, playing games, taking sessions. Will miss dance practices in basement, behind amphi, nilgiri, himalaya, and dancing on amphi stage.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Sleep schedule. Waking up till 1am at least became a routine. Also observed an immense upgrade in my time and stress management skills.

"Ananya, one of the most seasoned and perfect dancers in our college, I'll forever be in awe of you. You literally bring grace (and a bit of crazy lol) everywhere you go! You're a killer leader and a great friend, keep shining!"

- Roja Lakshmi Sahoo

"Absolutely incredible dancer! Makes everybody gather around and cheer for her grace on stage.

Keep up the great work, and I admire the fact that you are one of the few who are genuinely working for, and following their passion. It is very inspiring.
Keep shining!"

- Sannidhya Gupta

"Hey Ananya!

We've been acquaintances since online semester, but we properly interacted only in our 4th year, lol. I still remember the online NESS study sessions where I used to think, "How do these people learn stuff so fast?"

Loved watching you dance these past four years, and it was amazing watching your dance group perform in Brahmakumari's Auditorium.

Always keep pursuing your passions and hobbies!

Stay in touch, and wish you the best in all your future endeavours!"

I truly loved collaborating. You're just an amazing dancer and I really respect how you manage both dance and work so effortlessly. It's simply awesome!

Q: First day on campus?

A: Felt like a new phase of life was about to start, and it did. New faces, new friendships, new experiences, new memories, new adventures, everything felt nice. Was scared but excited too.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Had too many best memories, can't decide amongst them. Most of the best memories were with my gang itself. Us meeting for chai every evening at BBC and playing random games invented by us, going on late night walks, celebrating birthdays, and so much more.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Definitely friends, sometimes the campus as well. The late night walks, the ice cream nights with my girlies, playing games, cracking jokes. Will miss the college events so much, especially dance practices in amphi, in the basement, in nilgiri, in himalaya.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I guess the campus has changed a lot since first year. New academic building, messes being shut, starting triple sharing in hostels.

"Chandana, you're really sweet and funny and total chhota packet bada dhamaka. Also, please tell me your secret to your choreo learning superpower one day!!"

Q: First day on campus?

A: I can't remember most of it, but maybe the taxi cab journey from the airport. Seeing Hyderabad for the first time, and then entering (the Covid-quarantined) Bakul for the first time, unaware that I would be spending the next 4 years here. Oh and I recall washroom hunting lol. And mosquito killing :)

Q: Best campus memory?

A: For me it is the AoT watch nights, ordering Lapinoz Pizza (we abused ze BOGO deals) and me trying my best to prevent spoilers from reaching the gang. Arnav, Shiven, Sriram, Ujjwal, and I are watching anime and eating pizza... those are my most precious memories.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I mean, I would miss our "binge AoT and chill" nights. But besides that, I would miss being a part of the programming club (not the logistics, though), and I would also miss all the outings I have had with various friend groups.

"You are the nicest, most helpful roommate I could have asked for. It was fun teaching you about new memes and watching you be confused about every new one. I will miss everything, from the DSA discussions to the random late night talks. I apologize for ruining your sleep schedule, hope it doesn't stick. You're the most genuine person I have ever met. Loved having you throughout the journey. P.S. AOT is amazing, thank you for introducing it (forcing me to watch it)!"

- Arnav Negi

"Peak golden retriever energy from this boi. Thank you for introducing me to AoT, and no thanks to you and Anika for stealing all the As in CNS courses T_T.

I will not get tired of pulling your leg, just please remember to take better care of your health - we can't keep pulling all nighters forever and if it should end with CNS now. All the best, and do really, really well!"

- Ujjwal Shekhar

"Hi Prakuli, you're a really good person, too good sometimes. Cut yourself some slack please and don't compromise on anything that's important to you. From the ERC escape room event where I kept correcting you and you got more pissed, not letting you write notes, sending a pen flying across inlp, fighting with you over answers, running prakuli gif, listening to your same nano particle rant for the...

... 100th time, you being pregnant with a water balloon are all cherished memories. Thanks for everything xD"

- Anika Roy

"My CND brother, Bangalore kid and overall one the most coolest and sweetest person i ever had the chance to befriend. (soak it in, I am not gonna be this nice again).. All those long nights doing projects together, dealing with science lab, nightmarish courses, even more horrible exam schedules, AoT binge, seeing you soo stressed out of your mind and still coming out doing better than all of us. You made college incredible and CND bearable. Cheers to one more year together in this hellhole <3"

- Poorvi H C

"Hi Prakul, you're one of the most honest and hardworking people I know. So glad DSA taship gave me friends like you. You're so incredibly smart and still so humble, and I'll always be grateful for all your help—especially for ACA (i probably wouldn't have passed without you). Also, it's way too easy (and fun) to gaslight you. Wishing you all the best for the future—you'll kill it for sure. P.S. You're never getting my stickers."

I still think I'm not more gullible than u lol. wish u the best for future & yes, we need ur passion to start demon slayer again 🙏

PS: Is it wrong to not be special? No, esp when you're prakul, who made me watch 140 hrs of anime. u have superpowers :p"

- Romica Raisinghani

"My first roommate! First year was fun bro, thanks for saving my ass when I got absolutely washed in house party. Also the only anime I've watched is thanks to you so that's pretty cool. Hope to hang out with you again in 5th year!"

- Sarthak Chittawar

"Prakuli, (used Anika's name here lol) You're such a weird but awesome guy (I mean it in the best way). You are very kind-hearted and it's awesome knowing you. Just know I still always want to beat you !!"

- Roja Lakshmi Sahoo

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Changes in me? Well... my sleep schedule. I am happy to say, I have become one with the night creatures now. Jokes apart, I think probably the fact that I am more inclined to have stronger views about things now, thanks to my roommate encouraging me to have an opinion. Oh and I went from a negligible sense of humour to a horrible sense of humour. I blame my roommate for this too. Ruining my blissful ignorance of the meme world and all.

Q: What next?

A: Good question? Does anyone know the answer... Oh, wait, for me it is probably research itself. They won't let CNDs go that easily now, would they?

But yeah, I will probably complete internships and hope to join one of the companies as a full-time employee. Then we shall see whether I prefer corporate or academia. Although, need to learn to enjoy life more. So let's see, might also try to have a little more fun :p

"Coolest CND i know. Sorry for watching aot in 2x, but it will probably happen again if you tell me to watch it.

I will however watch the live action avatar thing when it comes out. Season 2 percy jackson coming out soon and im really happy for you about that and im happy for me as well (Clarisse)."

"Amazing and deserving musician, with guitar, piano, and drums up your sleeve. You're super down-to-earth and a fun person to chat with. Wish I had interacted more with you and learnt more from you. Definitely keeping in touch and wishing you best for everything life brings your way!"

– Soham G Korade

"You're truly the Daddy of us all, smart, cool, and hardworking all rolled into one. I've never met anyone with so many talents and interests, and I've always looked up to you for that. Your ability to push through and give your all, whether it's music, course project, or learning, is something I deeply admire. I learned a lot just by watching you work. You're at ease on your own, always curious and content. Some of my favorite memories are with you. Can't wait to..."

selfless, kind, and overall awesome individual on campus. Sir, jack nahi, aap

You have single-handedly saved me so almost anything.

I wish you the very best in life! Take care, have fun :)"

– Prakul Agrawal

"Literally one of the most talented guitarists I've ever met. Only regret is that we didn't get to work on some quantum paper together. Let's do it sometime :)"

– Aryaman Manish Kolhe

"God 🙏. You can literally do anything bruh it is genuinely amazing. CND has been really fun with you, hopefully the matured. Pandit aadmi to tum ho bhai.

Tum se baat karte kabhi nahi laga ki

From being roommates to being fish-mates, I enjoyed all the random convos and discussions we had. I love how you have always been sweet, nice and humble to me and to everyone. One thing we could not do enough is play football together. Clg went by pretty fast. I really hope we stay in touch and keep meeting whenever we can.

Have fun in your new life!

Ronnie

Q: First day on campus?

A: As a Hyderabadi resident, I was lucky enough to make it to Felicity in first year. My friends and I basically started our campus life with the highest levels of josh possible before DSA came and cooked us.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Every fest, every sports event, and every week after exams when we had zero work and desperation to just have fun.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: It can't be just one thing. Competing in inter-batch and inter-house sports games and having JC cold coffee at night were some of the best parts of college. But I will miss my friends the most - late night drives, going to DLF/Indiranagar, cards, or literally nothing but walking in campus.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I'd like to think I came out of my shell a bit. I've definitely become less shy to trying some new things. I've basically learned how to have much more fun and just enjoy life than I did during school and JEE days.

Q: What next?

A: Who knows? But all I know is it's gonna be Legen-wait for it-dary.

"Hi Ronz! You're hands down the best person I've met. You've been my closest friend, and I can't imagine what these years would've looked like without you. Funny how I thought you were rude at first :P You're sweet, caring, calm, too smart and unfairly good at everything. We vibe the same, think alike, laugh at the same lame jokes. I'm still funnier XD. From movies to you teaching me tennis and even getting me to kick a ball, I've loved it all. Thanks for getting me hooked to cc. Love you Ronzoo!"

- Meghana Tedla

"Hey Ronnie, I always thought all you cared about was studies but damn did that opinion change so quickly in the start of college itself.

We had so many great times together, especially the late night drives where we had amazing deep convos lol. Its always amazing to play sports with you, preferably on same team coz you're too much of a beast to go against man. Coldplay and Goa were fun times, we should soon do the abroad trip we keep talking about. Lets hope my job is in Hyd so we can chill here"

- Revanth Kumar Gundam

"Pretty much the first person I spoke to. glad we've been close friends throughout. You're very smart and sweet, just not (a) desirable sadly. Random discussions when we found no-one else about most random scenarios were super fun (mostly my sg)Thanks for teaching me squash and also being the dedicated driver of the group. Playing sports with you is amazing. Ill still take your secret to the grave. Thanks for letting me live in your room. 'You've got a good heart. Don't ever lose it.'"

- Marri Abhinav

"ronnieee you're such a solid friend. i knew if i was doing a project with you i'm getting a good grade for sure. our random talks about life are so fun and you'll always be the one person in every course that i try to beat and end up failing. you are so mature and were there for me so many times. i know we ended up having diff courses and interests and i barely saw you in campus the last few semesters but i know i can count on you anytime :)"

Q: First day on campus?

A: I came with my parents, all nervous at the gate, the guard said turn right for Bakul Nivas. That's how it all started. Met with my roommate, went around the campus, made a lot of friends on the first day itself. Spent the whole night discussing what we liked, what movies we watched. A good start.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Initial days of college we didn't know a lot of people. I randomly ended up in my friend's room, a lot of people were sitting there. What started as introduction turned out to be hours long time spent cracking jokes, getting to know each other. We stayed friend throughout the college!

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: All those late night discussions, ending up in someone's room randomly and having a conversation for hours together. Those late night campus walks across the college, especially after it had rained.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: IIIT has given me the confidence to go ahead and try to achieve my dreams. It has taught me how to learn and grow. It's something I will carry for the rest of my life.

"Cutie you are the best roommate I can ask for, I fought with you in our third sem and did a lot of mess, I always regret that I was never able to tell you that directly but that is the only thing I always regret. Being your roommate is the best thing which happened to me, I learnt a lot of things, had great moments. I wish we were roommates longer."

– Sai Madhusudan Gunda

"Hi project partner, pehle toh thoda kam kassi ban. It was great doing the project with you, though last minute xD. Usme bhi kaam kam idhar udhar ki baatein zyada ki hai hamne. I also got to know what a gossip aunty you are :), shakal se bahot shaant lagta hai. Stay in touch and keep achieving in life!"

– Vanshita

"Bro please don't go to US bro, they will shoot you down pakka!! My biggest kassi and saanp, and stop pulling that hair reading through those papers and stuff, only balding only will happen.

I thought you were a cute, nice, innocent person bro, but hell no way, (i'm kidding) "Chota packet bada bomb" i think this was the line somebody used on you, 100% true, keep in touch bro, united by politics divided by our grades xD."

– Patanjali Bhamidipati

"Topper sir.... Shared very good conversations with you... Will remember them... I wish you..."

... get everything you need and all the best for your future..."

– Obbineni Sai Nikhita

"I love you, man. I can never forget the hours we spent bitching about random people and random things, ranging from Modi to people who might end up in a medical shop :) I never hesitated to speak my heart out to you. You are probably the hardest working person I know. The hours you spent grinding CP after DE Shaw will be a source of inspiration for the rest of my life. Don't forget me after you become a millionaire in Bangalore."

– Malladi Bhaskararama Sahishna Advaith

"Heyy my ultimate kassi gossip partner! Naren introduced us, and since then, gossiping with you has been an absolute blast 😊 I'll let you in on a secret – when I first saw you, I legit thought you were all innocent and just always studying. But then you opened up, and there was no looking back! Also, if nothing else works out (which it will), please take up stand-up comedy – you're honestly too good at it. Don't forget to catch up when you're in Bangalore... nahi toh maar dungi"

– Vrinda Agarwal

"Its been great knowing you man. Miss our bitching sessions. Hope to stay in touch with you!!"

... of knowing this man as well I would've liked to. I do hope that changes later but in the brief spans that I have spent with him, I've found that he has an uncanny ability to extract information out of anyone, anywhere. He's a walking, talking gossip library.

Now, for the lesser important benefits of knowing him - he's very nice and is always, literally always, ready to help. One just needs to ask him and Rudransh sir will fix it. A generally wholesome, affable dude."

This guy is the kind I would be grateful to have by my side in a roast battle, cus god can he spit some fire. Its never boring hanging out and having a conversation with him.

Hoping to stay in touch even after college and not drift apart :)"

... truly memorable. From "not studied anything" to scoring well – you're the real chuparustam 😂. Watching you grind hard in COD 🎮 and being around you was always fun. Wishing you all the best ahead. Stay in touch, bhai!"

- Ashish Chokhani

"Rudransh is the definition of a clutch-god. He just relaxes till the last moment, will swoop in just around the end and will get the best job done (be it any exam/assignment/or writing a testimonial 😊). But fr, he is one the smartest people I met at IIIT (bro is so good at everything). His clarity and command over things is just incredible. I will fondly miss the discussions around everything including academics, research, US immigration 🇺🇸. I am sure he will excel at everything he pursues. GLHF!"

- Swayam Manoj Agrawal

"Really good friend. I have so many memories with you. You have been my teammate for most of my projects. I remember each and every struggle and each and every 'jugaad' that we did. Went out with you a couple of times as well. Really fun talking to you, you have a good sense of humour. Particularly remember one of the evals that we gave where you saved our team by speaking well :), wont write more than that here :). All the best for your future, buddy."

- Pranit Khanna

"Rudransh bhai, apne convos hamesha badiya hote the. You are a calm and composed guy. It was truly great spending time with you. Thank you for helping me in my academics. COD ka time yaad rahega. Let's stay in touch.

Q: First day on campus?

A: Covid, so I was locked in my room the entire time basically. Met a lot of cool people though like Anushka, Nanda, Kriti, etc.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Playing night cricket, the first match went into a super over, and we lost the second one, but the whole experience was really enjoyable. We played basketball after our second match, at around 2am.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: All my friends (im objectifying them) and kadamb biryani

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Got better at tennis and lying to my parents

Q: What next?

A: No idea, ask me in a year when I'm actually forced to decide

"Fav teammate and a great friend. You're probably one of the few all-rounders in college, a very fast learner in anything you do as well. You've always helped me out with acads or anything else where I was struggling in, thanks a lot for that.

Your level of brainrot is a diff dimension fr.

Have had some really fun times with you in night cricket, BB nights, and even finishing off projects on time somehow. We should really go

Pls be drunk more lmao its fun.

Shoutout to Zythum 🙏"

PS: I love your hair!"

A: Almost went into Nilgiri thinking it was Bakul. I've always loved the greenery in campus and hope it stays the same for a long time. Quarantine days were quite fun as well.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Night cricket with friends, this was fun but also led to me meeting a really nice group of friends who are almost like family to me now. BB nights, partying in kik, zythum, red rhino, felicity, coldplay, goa, pondi - i can name so many things but words aren't enough to describe how much fun we had.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: I'm really gonna miss my friends and their presence on campus, at least the single degree ones. 4th year was incredibly fun with 2 trips in 2 months, and then the numerous times I went out with them, apart from living life to the fullest in campus.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I've matured as a person, become more caring of others. Built very strong relationships with people I didn't even interact with back then. Also improved considerably in acads lol, but that's fine.

"xorggg, photogenic mf, this shit still cracks me up, thx to purini, will miss listening to you sing and perform, you cutting the rope in house party ukwim 😂, playing rdr 24/7. big time f1 enthusiast, we both need to hit Miami gp once bro with your gator cousin also, increase your attention span to more than a goldfish's da, you'll get more returns on your stocks 😂, loved going to Coldplay - surreal and thanks for being the story guy. please keep livestreaming on WA, im gonna miss it"

- Raghav Donakanti

"This guy man. Convincing us to come for coldplay was the best thing that could've happened (I wish we somehow convinced ourselves to stay for Goa as well), but yes only the first of many concerts to come inshallah. Never stop ur wlogging it's so nice. But yeah maybe learn how to go to mess alone especially now that some of us aren't there. Also, your brainrot is goated man don't stop sending reels. Nicki Minaj Silicone"

- Rohan Girish

"xorgggg u r like best travel planner ever like coldplay, goa everything u planned even though last minute it was crazy da. trips were sooo fun and getting drunk with you is the best like so goood. you r the best and im so happy i became your friend even though it was so late. obviously, u r the best singer ik , you have a crazy voice u..."

"you've been one of my closest friends on campus!! you're so funny and super super fun to hangout with. coldplay was so much fun together and we need to recreate something similar for sure. i love your impromptu humour so much and ill miss all the random timepass we used to do. you're insanely good at singing and im so jealous of you for that 🤩. im super grateful for all the memories we've had together and look forward to many more."

- Shashwat Dash

"You're an amazing project teammate and a really great friend. The 2 days we went to the gym together were really fun and your "pump feels amazing" and drunk face are the exact same. The next time you shave you should do it in stages, including a handlebar moustache. The rate at which you text on the group is very wholesome, and even if people start getting occupied with their new jobs and other friends, you'll be there to hold the group together, revive the conversation and initiate group trips."

"best singer in night cricket hands down.
you really have a crazy good voice.
very funny & chronically online guy.

the Sarthak Messaging Service is appreciated. man might overtake rushil
this year with his 'predictions'. fellow RDR enjoyer and big kohli fan. the guy who has the most fun I think after weve all had a couple glasses of juice.
extremely photogenic. hopefully the enough free time to do cool shit next to hangout, whether its playing bb when you do some(unintentional) somersaults or some random video games like olympics.always looking out for the whole group and makes sure everyone is included(though sometimes rrc work makes you yourself miss

Sarthak is easily one of the most

Oh, what about when we go out? Yeah, no, I get violated by words). Even then, I enjoy his company because he's still super funny....

Q: What next?

A: Getting my Dual Degree, then probably try out many different things for my initial work years. I dream to travel the world by 2030.

... Ykw? I'm going to leave this as a todo and see what I can think of to say about this man's gargantuan character.

Points to add

1. That night at DLF
2. That night in Goa
3. That night in THub"

- Arghya Roy

While I won't miss Isha's classes, I'll certainly miss dozing our way through them together. Please keep continuing our vlogs, they're such a cool way to let us keep in touch with you no matter how far we are from you. Hopefully a night cricket f1 trip happens, and hopefully legreg's fortunes improve by then :p"

I can see that you are working hard on research, but dont take too much stress about it and just go with the flow (mk's flow), things will definetly work out for you; I'm sure you'll do great in the future no matter which direction you choose to pursue;"

Keep absolutely crushing that RRC research - rooting hard for your ICRA paper this year! 🎉 You're our OG Whitefield guy, and yeah, probably the 'whitest' guy I know lmao 😅 Keep them racist jokes coming pls. "You are the best roommate anyone could ever ask for. Too kind for this world, too patient to have survived living with me – thank you for everything. You made me believe that female friendships can exist without jealousy, only with love and strength. You've taught me how to live life, given the best advice, and always listened to my endless gossip. You were the first to see my full-on girly Barbie side– I'll miss our kiya kiya vibe (and dance) sessions. Love you forever! Don't forget me ever :p"

You are the smartest person I've seen. You have ample IQ, EQ as well as street smartness and loads and loads of talents. Every conversation, every dance, every song, every RR session, you made it special and fun. Hope we keep meeting and make more and more memories together. Love you to the moon and back baby girl!!"

Remember to stay bubbly! Hope to celebrate more rakshabandhan days ahead :D"

You and Vrinda were my very first friends on campus, and that'll always mean something special to me. It's rare to meet someone so genuinely kind-hearted, someone I can talk to without overthinking or second-guessing anything. I love hearing your random humming or singing through the wall during showers—it always makes me smile. And the fact that we share the same Kuldevi?

Crazy! can't wait to be your roommate too <3"

A: Most memorable instances in campus include every night cricket tournament we played, where we enjoyed a lot sledging opponent teams, those iconic celebrations of my teammates, and those funny misfields made by us together created a fun atmosphere.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: One thing I'll miss the most is those frequent net sessions with my batchmates and those banters where we pull each other's legs and also those intense overnight Call of Duty sessions in hostel including those intermediate fights where we throw things on each other as a result of frustration.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I was too introvert and maintained very less network in the initial sems, but gradually was able to open up and also improved my friends-circle becoming extrovert to some extent and also improving my sense of humor.

Q: What next?

A: Roast VK*

Q: First day on campus?

A: On the first day I entered campus, I saw a long-haired person entering near security before me, later I saw this person at the Bakul entrance. I was confused whether it was the boys' hostel. It was Sreyas Badami 😊, we became roommates 😊.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: The night of random convo, random jobless activities before everyone leaves for summer vacation in general, but after sem-2 was the most memorable.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Bitching about my life to people who are in much worse position than them. Did that with everyone, but like flexing who has the worst lifestyle.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Maturity, understanding that "asking why" before doing anything that people around you are also doing is very important, as asking myself if that is what I want.

Q: What next?

A: I am a Dual Degree 😊 - research.

"Sreenivas has been a solid roommate—always around but somehow always "too busy" to hang out. Classic move: saying he's got tons of work, then chilling anyway. Gonna miss the chaos, the rants, and the unexpected wisdom. Room won't be the same without you, bro!"
- Harshit Aggarwal

"Sreenivas, you are one of the most unique personalities on campus and my personal favourite. I will never forget my time with you during CG, taking care of you when you broke your leg and just having random chats with you. Our team name has been consistently after you, "BHUMIREDDY PAPPIREDDIES" as you mean good luck to us. You are super fun and have a great ringtone. Wherever we are, whatever we are doing, and in whatsoever ways are stories are moulding, know that you will always be my DIRECTOR."
- Keshav Gupta

"Basically single and ready to mingle, pls contact him if interested. That aside, basically 3rd roommate - would stay over in my room overnight to dedicatedly do assignments, projects or studying, basically forgetting what sleep even means (taking a 30 minute powernap to last a whole extra day, then putting the softest alarms known to man). Basically needs to be informed well in advance if planning any outings, very busy person :D Basically fitness enthusiast, intellect of a God....."

"Sreenivas.. Director saab.. One of the first friends I made in college. I spent so much time in your room, you and Harshit. My constant company in train as well, not anymore :(.

Did so many things for the first time with you, like trips, nightouts, movie nights.

You have naturally gotten style bro. Those badminton shots that you play are nothing short of Anime fight scenes xD.

PS : I am never taking course suggestions from you again.. Psychology and GnD is what you suggest -_-"

"Sreenivas – truly one of the most innocent souls you'll ever meet! A wonderful friend whose presence can brighten anyone's day. His working style might be a little unconventional—after all, who else chooses humanities for a CSD thesis? But that's exactly what makes him unique. Keep shining with your brilliance wherever life takes you!"

- Bhav Beri

"Dancing together was the start of our college experience and I wish we had spent more time early on. I feel like a lot of what you do resonates with me, and to me, you feel like the most similar person in the entire college. Your fiery passion and drive are a sight to behold, even when it is for the most minuscule things imaginable. I hope that we find more time to spend together in our last year, and I wish the best for you, wherever you go and whatever you do."

- G V Krishna Chaitanya

"Met you online during the first sem. Don't call yourself an introvert, man. You're a hardworking guy and were a great help in projects. I really enjoyed studying with you. Love your humor and sarcasm too. Take care of yourself bro, phir se pair mat tudwa lena, aur dil bhi. All the best for your future! See you in blr."

- Soham G Korade

"Sreenivas always keeps worrying about something (tension about work), yet his company...

"sreenivas :) one of the most innocent guys i have met, you are such a selfless nice friend. will forever cherish the time we spent making Pathaan 2.0 in the blue room in ws! even though we sometimes went too far in making jokes around you (THE DIRECTOR!), you never faltered and always laughed along. cannot be thankful enough to call you a friend, you are one guy made of gold! love you and wish you all the best in life!"

- Vaibhav Agrawal

"Director! 📲 To this day, I have ZERO clue why people call you that, but it's legendary lmao. Absolutely love the times with you, bro - our group legit has the BEST vibes! Rooting for your economics research to bring you some massive success! 🎉 So hyped to hang out a LOT more in the upcoming year now that we've got nothing but research on our plates. Here's to all the epic fun times ahead! 🎊"

- P Harshavardhan

"This guy always claims he's swamped, counting even his sleep time—whether alone or with his girlfriends—as part of his "busy" schedule. He feels so overwhelmed that he skips typing messages, opting for voice-to-text, leaving us to decipher his cryptic words. He's constantly obsessing over his girlfriends and flexing his muscles around Rushil (showing off with some questionable vibes). Everything, including dining out, needs to be booked a month in advance."

Q: First day on campus?

A: The first day has been successfully archived into the 'Too Much Information Overflow' sector of my brain 😅. I'm pretty sure there was a lot of confused wandering. Did it even happen? Evidence is inconclusive.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: After 4 years of collectively losing my mind, there are way too many—chilling like we had no deadlines, pulling last-minute all-nighters like academic ninjas, and somehow surviving it all.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Gonna lowkey miss fighting for every single mark during paper showing—nothing like turning into a lawyer for that +1. And of course, the late night coffees and chaotic all-nighters that made me question all my life choices.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Pretty sure my body is now 60% caffeine and 40% panic (but no iron 😅). My sleep schedule now resembles a quantum state – both existent and non-existent.

Q: What next?

A: Still in beta mode—figuring out what I actually want to do with my life. For now, just exploring and hoping the next update brings some clarity!

"Friend forever. Thank you for being with me since the last 9 yrs. In all the chaos amidst the college life, at the end of the day I know that I always had your shoulder to cry on.

The endless gossip sessions, the endless misunderstandings, we have crossed every barrier and stuck together till this day. I know that after 9 years we are not going on the same path. I know we won't be able to talk everyday, but we won't last the charm we always had.

Love you tons.
#104 forever"

Its honestly an honour to have been friends with you for so long :) From JC (thanks for adding me hehe) and those music VCs to that drinking era to FG for the first and every time to blr and all the horrible reels.

Here's to many more good memories and buri addatein :)"

"Known you since online college when you were chasing girls left and right.

Once on campus, you became the biggest bewda - Old Monk in a Coke bottle made your room reek. You've always found ways to test boundaries, it's your nature to see how people tick.

Sometimes "2 taco se pet bhar jaata hai" defuses the chaos you create.

Funny how someone with a 5-word memory buffer hoards campus gossip like a Swiss bank. You taught me patience when mine ran thin."

Q: First day on campus?

A: I was a shy, introverted girl who barely stepped out of her room. I wanted to make friends but was too nervous to talk. The best part? No strict rules like my old hostel(Narayana), so I felt a little free and happy to be here.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: My last year at MP was amazing! Every moment with friends was special from scooty rides and cafe hopping to our unforgettable Goa trip. I loved when my friends called me down from Parijat for random walks around campus. Those memories will always stay close to my heart.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Hanging out with friends anytime without any time limits. Those carefree moments of laughter and fun are something I'll truly miss.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: I've grown a lot!! stronger and wiser. College taught me how to handle problems and people better. Beyond friendships, it gave me life lessons I'll carry forever.

Q: What next?

A: I want to settle down quickly, earn well, and after 3-4 years of work, start my own business. Excited for what the future holds!

Dressing up together so many memories

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: May be konchem extrovert ni ayyaanu.

Q: First day on campus?

A: I still remember walkings into campus after waving byes to my father. Struggling with all the luggage, that's when my friends came in helped me for the first tym. That night we all gathered had fun watched movie ..the memory is still fresh.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Many are there , whether they areall songs cramm in dances , or sankranthi ethnic wears, whether the trips we had or the bday parties we had . The Swiggy girf restaurant treats or the late night walks....all are the best memories.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Ill miss the coffee , the egg puff from vc, the double egg chicken fried rice from tantra, the cold coffee from jc...most importantly I'll miss the people who will stay back in hyd.

Q: Biggest change since first year?

A: Everyone has changed...point someone and I can tell what changed them...mostly positive changes. And coming to change in me...I have grown emotionally backed by all the unforgettable events whether good or bad.

Q: What next?

A: Idk let's see.

"Thank you so much for being the right person at the right time. Your support helped me restart things when I was at my lowest. Q: Best campus memory?

A: One of my favorite memories is to always go to JC/Davids late at night with my friends or just all the time we spent in CVIT, whether it be doing work, celebrating birthdays, or playing mafia or cricket with my friends in the lab itself :P.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: One thing I will miss the most are all my close friends who are graduating but most especially my extended CVIT gang. It really feels like my whole college started after I joined CVIT and I got close to all the amazing people at CVIT.

Q: What next?

A: Just plan on doing some good research work and publish to good places.

"Vansh, i have had the joy of seeing many different shades of you (all black) (jk :)) which I can relate with.

One side you are introverted and nerdy, enjoying CS&CV concepts, working extremely hard, having the craziest sleep schedule & loving the docking scene. Other hand, you have this spirit of fun and warmth inside you, who likes to enjoy 7 cheese with his frnds, likes to hang out with them and share his feelings. You are my brother. I'll be your 1st sub when you open your piano youtbe chnl:)"

- Keshav Gupta

"Vansh :) that guy who you would find continuously working sitting at one place with full concentration! will miss the time when we used to sit together on that side of CVIT! the shared long days and nights were extremely tiring (due to rigorous work), but quite memorable as well. together we used figure out the nitty gritties of pytorch, and we never did write that blog on nn.Embedding and gradient flows :P. dw, some day!

wish you all the best in life, and in research!"

- Vaibhav Agrawal

"Very very very very fun person. One of the first people who I talked to both in online sem and in person. Without him my attitude towards many things would've been very different. He is a caring and careful person. He second guesses himself constantly....

... but does deliver when it matters. I will miss all the fun times we had together, talking about random things, working on projects together, etc, etc. Thanks for always being there for me."

- Kommireddy Bhargav Srinivas

"My academic buddy. Extremely OCD, won't let you write a single unclean line of code, and will create a hundred files for a single task.

Extreeemly dedicated to work, but will always take out time for friends (and his coffee 😊). Hopefully those 1000 arguments on lipreading will pay off one day, cuz all those websites we made for Jawahar sir are toh completely useless. Gonna miss running for Davids ki maggie at 4AM, and all the all-nighters we spent working, which we somehow called "productivity"."

- Akshat Sanghvi

"Before joining college I always wanted to get friends who can be nerd-sniped and with who I can spend hours discussing technical details. And it was really great to find you and all our other common friends. How can I forget our first offline meet, our discussion spiraled into a great conversation on group theory! If thought deeply, I feel we were becoming much better friends in last 2 years, after our friends groups completely merged. I am sure your sleepless nights will pay off!"

"When Vansh doesn't break his leg, he is one of the pillars of KCIS. You might become confused thinking he's the CVIT receptionist or a professional hobo, but he's actually just a coffee addict and a sleepless zombie with 100+ alarms. Vansh brings the greatest vibe at any given moment and is always there for you. I'll remember him as the guy who gave his support when I twisted my ankle. I've shared some of my best moments with you and I'll always treasure our friendship bro :))"

"I'll always remember u as someone so kind, energetic, full of life - jab bhi dekho u r running yaha se waha. v spent some great time together - from the pizza party at thub terrace to the dog park day (v both were visibly the only ones who enjoyed). oh & ofc the time spent in microsoft playing TT & carrom till late night, it was so fun. u asking me to tie a rakhi remains one of my best & cute memories w u. Always stay lively and joyful :)"

- Roja Lakshmi Sahoo

"I have first-hand experience of closely working with Vansh for an important conference submission. The way he handles things step-by-step and not panicking regardless of how terrible the situation is and constantly thinking about different solutions to the problem at hand is something I wish to incorporate in myself in future. I still think there is something there in the "black coffee" which he drinks that allows him to stay so relaxed and sharp. Good luck for future endeavours :)"

- Swayam Manoj Agrawal

"Vansh is perfect husband material. He is extremely smart and capable of sustaining an intellectual conversation, while being deep, mature and caring at the same time (hence the first line). I've always seen Vansh sincerely give his 100% in his work, and I admire him for that. He is also capable of talking and theorizing about the most random brain-rot stuff, which I had the privilege of experiencing. Vansh has snuck in many of my core memories and I love him for that. UwU bro. All the best"

- Ishwar B Balappanawar

"Haa Vansh :)

I would tell my friends someday, that I once push around a crazy smart guy on wheelchair. A true inspiration, that convinced me to start sleeping in the lab ;)

Lot of fun memories with you, from back in the Euleroid days, to theory group, psycho project and unlimited mafia :)

But actually, your passion for work is crazy, and its insane how you make every conversation about CV so fun :)"

- S Sreyas

"Heyy,

Whenever I was like aaj mood nahi or kai karte hai, you'd just appear out of nowhere—speed walking, speed eating—and it felt like a sign from the universe.

That energy genuinely pushed me to stay up and study. Your dedication and consistency really are something else.

Vansh.

Loved all our meals and random convos—and hey, one more year for me to keep hearing about Papa 😊 Wishing you the most and more, always."

"Vansh, you're one of my dearest friends. Even though we haven't talked as much as I would've liked over the past two years, that doesn't change a thing. I've never met someone so hardworking, kind, and full of enthusiasm. Talking to you always lifts my spirits, and I truly enjoy every conversation we have. You deserve so much more—great things are waiting for you. Stay in touch – my one and only "vaishya"!!"

Thank you for listening to all my rants in your room, and always being so helpful. We both might end up being the last people to graduate from our batch, so atleast we can suffer together :) Stay the same and good luck on everything ahead!"

Vanshika Dhingra

Dingu

Q: First day on campus?

A: I came to campus on March 20, 2022 – it was Felicity day and Arjun Kanungo was performing, but I couldn't go because we were in quarantine for 3 days. My parents dropped me, and I remember settling into my room that day. Everything felt new and exciting.

Q: Best campus memory?

A: Felicity '24, day 3 – when Nikhil D'Souza performed. That day was amazing, we had so much fun. After that, we all ended up at the H-105 afterparty. The vibe, the music, the people – it's a memory I'll always hold on to.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: Living like neighbours with my friends. Any time during the night, we'd just start talking or playing something. It was all so fun and comforting. That kind of closeness and spontaneity is what I'll miss the most.

Q: What next?

A: I'm moving to Noida to join Microsoft as a software engineer. Let's see where life takes me from here – hoping for good things and new adventures.

"Vanshika you have always been so sweet! Still remember you during felicity in third year, was a great 3 nights xD Always have fun !"

– Roja Lakshmi Sahoo

"Hii Dinguu,
Bhai, main kaise thank you bolun, mujhe nahi pata – I don't even know if it's possible in words. Saare projects maine tere saath kiye, and it was all so easy man, like zero bakchodi. Tu best co-worker hai!
Thank you so much for everything
brooo."

Bhai, although I keep teasing you for being childish – stay the child you are! You're a total cutie . Maturity aa hi jaayegi job mein, don't worry
I loved the time we spent together – badminton, walks, late-night gossips, sab kuch

love you!"
– Prisha

"We spend a great amount of time together and all of it is memorable. I fondly remember time spent tinkering with circuits, hours spent coding (and watching movies) during SMAI or those late night walks with you. It was great to have someone I can talk to about anything and everything, and you were a good listener.

Wonderful, that we grew and changed together in these years, and I am excited to see what you do next.
Hope you find something you love and are passionate about, and have fun doing it"

– Kyrylo Shyvam Kumar

"Hey Vanshika, I am so grateful to have met you! You've helped me so many times that I've lost count, and I couldn't be more grateful for all of
it. While we were doing DS assignments, I was stumped by the diligence that you showed when I almost felt like giving up. It was really inspiring. You're smart, and you've been a great friend to me. I slightly regret we couldn't hang out more. :/

I hope we stay in touch, and wish you luck for everything that's yet to come! 🌸"

– Aaryan Ajay Sharma

"Pls drink in moderation :)
Stay safe and happy"

– Kabir Shamhani

"I think in the end, the whole of life becomes an act of letting go, but what hurts the most is not taking a moment to say GoodBye!

Byeee!

And all the very best for your future, wishing you all the happiness and prosperity in life :)"

– Pratham Kumar Mishra

"You're such an introvert, but still so much fun to talk to – a quiet vibe with great energy! I'm glad you finally learned to enjoy a drink or two 😊 now you can really let loose and have fun! I'll always remember the Arijit concert we went to – such a core memory. Wishing you all the happiness and success ahead – all the besttt! ✌️"

"Dingu, tu hamare group ki choti bachi hai, bikul Sheldon ki tarah. Itna maza aata hai tereko chedne mein, and I will miss it so damn much. Tere room ki light band karna, tere saath anushka ko darana, monopoly khelna, even though tereko haraana bahut mushkil tha, have been one of the best things in college. Chod Noida yaar, Hyderabad aaja. Mazze karenge. From flight se pehle coffee ki bottle todna, to flight mein Do Patti dekhna, we grew up. I will miss khachaking you with a butter knife hehe <3"

- Ashna Dua

"Dhingu my namesake - when we met at Ludhiana you were a bit reserved. Never thought I would bond with you like I did till the end of college. Funny baaton se leke walk pe deep discussions, feli me tujhe pakad ke dance karna xD sab karliya tere saath. I know we keep calling you bachha, but I really cherish this - it's rare to find such sweet and innocent people <3. Monopoly queen, nose mask and chocolate sharing partner, stay as simple and cute as you are. Ly "yaar" and I will never keep mum"

- Vanshita

"From first day till the very end, you've been my one constant friend in this entire college journey. My fav roommate, you will always be a 5 year old in my eyes. I will miss annoying you on a daily basis. You are the only person jo mere song recommendations thora consider karta hai. You've been like a little sister to me - someone I've cared for, laughed with, and made so many memories with. I'm gonna miss you ❤️. Also monopoly mai jeetne ka kya trick hai, please dm :)"

- Anushka Agrawal

"Teri bahut yaad aaegi college ke baad.
I will miss talking..."

... with you , and annoying you and teasing you (and also getting annoyed in return xd) Baal dhona toh aa gaya hai , ab bas road cross karna bhi seekh le . I remember being so confused and surprised by you jab we first met , I had no idea we would end up this close. I really enjoyed all the time i spent with you , especially the movie nights and walks. Keep in touch aur phone karti rehna warna noida aake peetungi . Love you so so much !

XOXO"
- Khushi Wadhwa

"Hi dhingu... Hope you have a blast living this new life of yours. You have always been the cutest kindest soul and have always been nice to me.. Arijit Singh was definitely one of the highlights of the last semester and I couldn't have experienced it with better people. Hope Noida and Microsoft treats you well, and hope our paths cross again.

Lots of Love,
Poorvi"
- Poorvi H C

"Dhingru, luckily the nick name saves me from confusion of calling you vanshita or vanshika. She's like a cute little person, i never said that but you at times do sound like a kid. Good DASS project we guys had, sorry for ditching you guys at the dass project completion party haha. Take care dhingru"

- Chinmay Pateria

"Really fun class neighbour. Genuinely enjoyed all the courses and the good times we had, especially with Yatharth, even when we occasionally got moved back a bench for laughing or talking too much. I still remember that pure torturous night before the IIS exam, cramming those formulae and cursing Ashok Kumar Das's teaching :)). The ESW project was just as fun, finishing right before..."

... the deadline. Looking back, it was all fun and memories I'll always cherish.

Atb for ur future!"

- Akshat Sanghvi

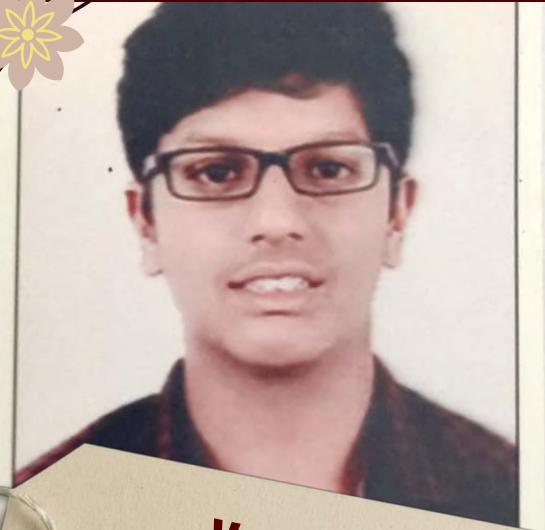

"Dhingraa!!

You're one of the most studious kids I've met. I've seen you grow so much since our first year. I love seeing you drunk, lol, you enjoy so much! I hope you keep enjoying life even more. Wishing you the best in life.

Keep in touch, byeel!"

One of the rare few with a crystal-clear vision for life-driven, grounded, and genuinely pure-hearted. Always a joy to be around, full of energy and good vibes. Still can't believe someone with his qualities is single—truly one of a kind."

- Vaibhav Agrawal

"Yatharth, We had a good time together.I remember our discussion in SE(Rayaan was there as well) in which we were trying to get the LLM work. It was pretty fun.You are very professional and sincere to your work. One of the most passionate person I saw in campus.Hope you achieve all the success in life."

- Mohammad Zaid

"Yatharth bhai! Tumhare saath 4 saal kab ho gye pata bhi nahi chala. First year se 4th year tak, kaafi maze kiye kaafi maza aaya tumhare saath! You value and cherish your friends, and that makes the environment around you so jovial and comfortable. Yeh quality kabhi bhi mat chodna.

College toh khatam but stay connected... Miite rehna! Good luck for your future!"

"You are the kind of person that has some specific goals in mind, knows what is right or wrong and is willing to learn new things and amend the old ones. I like that about you a lot. Bakchodi ho ya seriousness, sab aata hai, dost to badhiya hai hi insaan bhi accha hai bas kabhi kabhi itna serious bhi mat hoyaa kar, chill maar bro. Lets meet soon."

- Rayaan Khan

"Hi Yatharth, I remember we had like three common courses in sem 6 and had a lot of SE and brsm discussions lol. You are one of the people with whom I have interacted since the start of sem 2.

You're always fun to talk to, very focused and helpful to everyone. I'll miss meeting you and your group so often over breakfast xD. All the best for everything, keep in touch!"

- Vanshita

"Gupta Ji, the best example of humility, highly inquisitive, extremely smart and talented, and someone who does everything with zeal and passion. Love the way you listen to people and try to understand their point, and your debating skills. You are one huge converter, let it be Rajma Chawal, JRDT, California Burrito, you totally deserve to be their brand ambassador. You don't look like one, but you're a full too centi guy too. Hope you chase all your dreams and have a happy and successful future."

- Pabba Ananya Vaibhavi

"Yatharth bhai you are one of the most genuine person I've met on campus and a very good friend of mine.

We had a great time working together in team. We were able to solve very complex problems.

You are the best person I can see myself starting a business venture with.

Wishing you all the best for future! Waiting to work with you on our next big project (startup)."

- Aryaman Manish Kolhe

"Hello Yatharth,

You're always a fun person to talk to- always smiling and full of positive energy. It was such a great experience being on the night cricket team with you. I probably wouldn't have participated if you hadn't convinced me-and it turned out to be one of the best memories!

Stay the chill and happy person you are!"

Q: First day on campus?

A: new faces,new campus,new lifestyle,it's an overwhelming moment. It made me feel I was lonely,all others enjoying felicity n my roomie locked up yea Covid it was.I told myself while I go out of this campus.I wanted to be surrounded by a large grp of ppl who really enjoy the fest with me,n uk it's ✓ 🎉

Q: Best campus memory?

A: It's hard to choose,but I could say the last days were as like my first day, I felt for the first time jealousy on balu, missing srihitha,asking asrith all, irritating ved, asking all qns ft harshitha, interaction with all these guys,made me so better me. It's just so cinematic yet my btech stry.

Q: One thing that I will miss the most?

A: other than my people.. it's my vc bread omlette(bf), sittings at blue room, rainy walks, late night cravings with dlf,summer sleep ft ws,my personal basement dance room,parijat outfit selfies, grp movie waits at open gym, dance practice at amphi,gym like stairs for 4th floor,my homecave ❤ (my room).

"Em rayanu ela cheppanu! You are my light of hope in darkness. Clg anthaga ekkani prathi sari you were my best company and will be my best my company.. Starting from long walks (upto 12kms) to randomly dancing together in rainy nights, we had many things to share and enjoy together. Always proud of having you as a friend.. And a skillful photographer in our batch.. Chala sarle ditch chesav but I could never leave you at any any point in my college.. Inka chala cheyyali together.. 5th yr kummedam"

- Darur LakshmiPathi Balaji

"To my crazy friend (in the best way possible, obviously 😅) – we've always been friends, but the last few months just hit different! From all the wholesome workspace days to random hangouts and movie nights (still sad you missed the girls' night gossip 😊), it's been a wild, fun ride. Just saying – don't overthink or go into that vanishing mode again. Don't hesitate, its always okay to talk. And anyway, I'm just a call away. Gonna miss you loads!"

- Srihitha Mallepally

"proper merupu theega vi, kanapadedi thakkuva sepu but the impact and memories of you are chala ekkova. From borrowing your clothes to studying with you for endsems, madhyalo chala ante chala fun moments. I dont think nuv kakunda naatho impromptu ga reel no one can..."

Q: Biggest change since first year?
A: Definitely my go-to contacts 😊.. I never thought I would have made friends whose missing can make me emo, it's destiny rgt. I was so lucky to have beautiful people like balu,srihitha,ved,harshitha,sathvika and others who were always there even though I pushed them away. It was so true, that I could become Lil bit more open n closer.Though I wasted a lot by being anti social kinda managed my last sem to build some good bonds with my people. Now I can say that I found my tribe happily:)

Q: What next?

A: Heyy for future me 😊, listen though u fell the lowest in this journey,it taught all of ur faults clearly and also shown even without anything ppl are gonna be so lovely with you. So, just be connected to ur people n do ur things for peace that's gonna take you to ur tailored destination ❤

... team mates telusaa :). Nuvvu notice
